GLADSTONE'S ESCAPE

His Assailant Waited for Him Once Before,

BUT HIS COURAGE FAILED HIM

The Oregon Exhibit Surprises the Chicagoans, and Will Be a Most Attractive One.

LONDON, April 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette states that on the day the Irish home-rule bill passed to a second reading William Townsend, the man under arrest on the nominal charge of having discharged a revolver unlawfully in a public place, but really on suspicion of having intended to assassinate Gladstone, lay in wait for Gladstone's departure from his residence, with the full purpose of murdering the premier. Townsend, armed with a loaded revolver, deliberately prepared to shoot Gladstone as soon as he came within reach. When Gladstone came out of his residence, and the would-be assassin saw him, his purpose weakened for a peculiar reason—the venerable appearance of the premier reminded Townsend of his own father's appearance on his death bed. The pistol slipped from the fingers of the intending assassin, and he rushed into the park and sank on a bench and burst into tears. It is asserted that Townsend made his way into the central hall of the house of commons on the same night and vigorously denounced the home-rule bill.

HAWAIIAN MINISTER.

Mr. Stevens Has Tendered His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Minister John L. Stevens, who has represented the United States in Hawaii since Mr. Blaine became secretary of state, has resigned his post and will return to the United States in a short time, probably about May 15th. It is thought likely that President Cleveland will have selected his successor by the time Mr. Stevens is ready to leave for the United States, and there is an impression in the state department that the new Hawaiian minister will be chosen as soon as Mr. Cleveland returns from Chicago. There is much speculation here regarding Minister Stevens' probable successor. Blount departed for Honolulu. A rumor has been current that the president had Bunnell hanging dead in the well at the rear of the house.

OREGON AT THE BIG FAIR.

The Webfoot Exhibit Astonishes the Exposition People.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Unusual activity was exhibited in the west wing of the horticulture building this morning, where a large force were busily engaged placing in position the monster fruit exhibit of Oregon. This exhibit will be one of the finest state displays on the grounds. In the center of the space allotted to Oregon a great pyramid, 50 ft. long and 45 feet high has been built. This pyramid is composed of 32 different kinds of woods grown in Oregon, built in spiral shape with projecting ledges, upon which will be placed a large, fine variety of preserved fruits. The men had just started the pyramid when the dray pulled up to the door containing a picture to be the background of the Oregon booth. This picture was painted by Stanley, and portrays Mount Hood, Oregon.

Christian Endeavor State Convention.

PORTLAND, Or., April 28.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

The delegates to the Christian Endeavor State Convention from The Dalles arrived in good time by the D. P. & A. Co.'s line, after a delightful ride on the Columbia. We were assigned places in upper Albina.

Thursday evening the devotional service was held and conducted by Rev. Thomas Boyd of Portland, and very impressive. Pastor G. W. Gue of the Grace M. E. church gave a fine welcome to the church and city. Prof. Thomas Newline's reply was very pleasantly put, and we expected to get good as well as do good.

State Secretary W. H. Morrow's report was then given and among other things, showed that there had been an increase of four societies of Christian Endeavor in the state during the last six months, and now there were ten thousand Christian Endeavorers in Oregon.

State Treasurer F. R. Cook showed that over three hundred dollars had been received and dispensed with during the last half year, with a small balance still on hand.

The annual address by the state president was very helpful and enjoyed by all present.

Portland has opened her arms and hearts to the Christian Endeavor society and the vast audience which filled Grace M. E. church, showed by their enthusiasm, how much they enjoyed this opening service. DELEGATE.

What Women Have Gained.

Mrs. Lucy Stone, in enumerating at a woman's club the gains she had herself seen accomplished, mentioned the right to free speech, the right to education, the right to all occupations and professions and a very great amelioration in the laws. She contrasted the old time, when an irate man at a Massachusetts town meeting had said: "The public money to educate shes! Never!" with the present when the great universities of Chicago, Yale and Johns Hopkins are opened to women, besides their own schools and colleges.

The arrival of the Liberty bell in Chicago was greeted by 12,000 school children, each carrying a flag. The children sang patriotic songs, and ex-President Harrison delivered an address to the children, outlining the significance of the event, congratulating his hearers on the growth of patriotism in this country, and predicting an increase of reverence to the flag in oncoming years.

Offers of gold in exchange for legal tender notes are still being received at the treasury department. The aggregate runs into hundreds of thousands. During the past week offers have been made and accepted from San Francisco, Roanoke, Va., Pittsburg, Washington, St. Louis, Boston, Norfolk, Va., Columbus, Ga., Philadelphia and New Orleans. Reports from New York indicate that very little, if any, gold will go tomorrow, and this, in connection with the low rate of exchange, is accepted by treasury officials as a most encouraging fact and an indication that if the gold tide had not actually turned it has been stemmed for the present.

HON. JOSIAH QUINCY.

Something About the New Assistant-Secretary of State.

Josiah Quincy, the new first assistant secretary of state, is 39 years old and a native of Massachusetts and the representative of a distinguished family, whose history has always been connected with that of the nation since the foundation of the government. Mr. Quincy is a lawyer by profession, a graduate of Harvard college, and a man of great ability and force of character. He was originally a republican, but in recent years has been a democrat. Eight years ago Mr. Quincy entered into public life. He was elected secretary of the then newly organized Massachusetts Tariff Reform league. Since this time he has been very active in the democratic party of his state. He has served three terms in the legislature as representative of the city of Quincy and he ran as a candidate for congress in 1888. He became prominent in national politics during the last campaign as chairman of the committee on campaign literature at national democratic headquarters.

On the Railroads.

There is an army of men employed upon the railroads of the United States, an army of 784,000. They are not engaged in idle maneuvers, dress parades, barrack drills or preparations for warfare, but by their diligence, energy and toil contribute immensely to the wealth, well-being and development of the country, the interchange of its products, the diffusion of information and the prompt transportation of vast numbers of passengers with a remarkably low percentage of casualties. The number of passengers carried last year was 530,000,000. The number of passengers killed was 298.

decided to make him a full-fledged minister as soon as his work was completed. There are several reasons, however, why this outcome now seems less likely than it did a month ago. Notwithstanding the fact that Commissioner Blount's actions have been approved by the administration, the president is not blind to the fact that certain things he has done, notably the hauling down of the flag, have been received in this country with disfavor. The president realizes also that a commissioner appointed to assist in settling a controversy between two parties in a foreign nation can hardly hope to be persona grata to all factions, after the settlement is effected.

A DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE. An Old Man Kills His Wife and Daughter in La Grande.

LA GRANDE, Or., April 28.—Word has just reached this city that Ed R. Bunnell, a prominent farmer of Wallowa county, has killed his wife and daughter and then hanged himself. Bunnell was a man upwards of 50 years of age, and was one of Wallowa's most extensive ranchers, his farm being on Front creek. It seems that his wife had been granted a divorce at last week's session of the circuit court at Enterprise, the grounds of the complaint being cruel and inhuman treatment. They had not been living together for several months, Mrs. Bunnell and a grown daughter living on a ranch several miles from her husband's home. A neighbor, calling at her home yesterday morning, found both women lying dead on the floor, with bullet holes through their heads. A further investigation revealed
