OREGON AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The following is a list of the superintendents of the different departments of the world's fair commission. Anyone who has anything to exhibit should correspond with the proper officer, one of the following:
W. F. MATHLOCK, department of agriculture, forestry and forest products, and live stock; Pendleton.
C. W. AYERS, department of mines, mining and metallurgy; Ashland.
DR. J. R. CARDWELL, department of horticulture, including floriculture and viticulture; Portland.
GEO. T. MYERS, department of fishing and fishing apparatus, manufactures, electrical and mechanical inventions; Portland.
MRS. M. PATTON, Salem, (until July 1, 1893) and MRS. E. W. ALLEN, Portland, (after July 1, 1893), department of woman's work, comprising the fine arts, home hold economy and products thereof.
E. B. McELROY, department of education, including educational exhibits, literary, special, general, music, etc.; Salem.
GEO. W. McBRIDE, department of civil government, including state and county; Salem.

An article in a Salem paper would show how the Salem insane asylum relates to in case of fire. The enterprising Doctor Rowland has inaugurated a regular weekly fire drill, the alarm is given and the patients hustled out in very quick order. The doctor is wise in inaugurating this drill, as it might mean the saving of hundreds of lives in case of a fire. We have read of insane asylum holocausts in the last year or two where more than 90 per cent. of the inmates were burned to death. It is one of the most difficult things in the world to do to save the lives of insane patients on the sudden outbreaking of a fire. The numberless doors are all locked, and with the babel of excitement of patients, and the alarm natural to the feminine attendants, the chances are in favor of almost a total death rate of the patients. In a late test, however, the patients eye in the violent ward were turned out in the yard at dead of midnight, and a hose dragged through the halls within two minutes of the giving of the alarm.

One notable particular wherein the World's Columbian exposition differs from the previous world's fair is the prominence of women in its management. There will be no separate exhibit of woman's work, the board having decided that to be inexpedient; but in the woman's building, which is designed for administrative and other purposes, will be a showing of such things as women are particularly and vitally interested in, and which do not properly belong to the general competitive classification. The lady managers have invited the women of all countries to participate in the exposition. Numerous foreign committees, comprised of women, have already been formed, and are now in successful co-operation with the official board.

The mile or more of road beyond Mill creek bridge, made under the direction of Mr. Staniels, reveals a good deal, and is a better argument for good roads than all the newspapers may say. Every farmer should take an active interest in this most important work, for the reason that the farmers, above all other classes, suffer loss because of bad roads. Everybody knows that the best time to sell farm products is during the winter season. Then is when such products are in demand, and then is when they bring the best prices. But just then is when they cannot be hauled to market because of bad roads; hence the farmer living some distance from his home market or shipping point, is compelled to wait for better roads and poorer prices.

A good deal has been said about Oregon being such a slow state, but the fact is she has spent many thousands of dollars in advertising for immigration, and has been measurably successful: If as much attention was paid to them upon their arrival as is paid in endeavoring to get them here, the per cent of stayers would be much larger. The Dominion government has set an example, judging from the following letter of a Palouse farmer who has removed to Alberta, B. C.: "This government certainly does more for their immigrants and is more attentive to their wants than any of your people could think of. Even lights and wood are furnished, and all preparations are being made to furnish temporary shelter and accommodations."

The crank's bullet has lately sought Gladstone as a target, and it seems only failed of its mission on account of a sudden weakening of the intention of the crank. Gladstone has lived to be an octogenarian and has world-wide credit for a life of self-sacrifice for the interest of others and sad indeed would be his death by violent means.
Shiloh's cure, the Great Cough and Croup Cure, is for sale by Snipes & Kinerly. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

The Scotch Clergyman and His Snuff.
A Scotch clergyman, much addicted to snuff, resolved to abandon the habit and preached a sermon against it. Some little time afterward, during the course of a sermon on another subject, one of the elders, sitting immediately under the pulpit and within reach of the preacher, took a comfortable pinch, which so sorely tried the minister's self denial that he stretched out his hand and, seizing the box, thus addressed the astonished elder: "After the sermon that I so lately preached against the vice of snuffing, how can you venture, sir, to do this (tapping on the lid), and this (opening the box), and this (taking a copious pinch)?" and then handed back the box to its owner.

Always open—the offer made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's a reward of $500 cash for an incurable case of catarrh, no matter how bad, or of how long standing. They'll carry it out, too. It's one thing to make the offer. It's a very different thing to make it good. It couldn't be done, except with an extraordinary medicine. But that's what they have. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. It doesn't simply palliate for a time, or drive the disease to the lungs. It produces a perfect and permanent cure. Try it and see.
If you can't be cured, you'll be paid.
The only question is—are you willing to make the test, if the makers are willing to take the risk?
If so, the rest is easy. You pay your druggist fifty cents and the trial begins.
If you're wanting the $500 you'll get something better—a cure!

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when your first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Stedman & Friedman, druggists, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The Eighth.
Cleveland is the eighth president who has been elected to the office for a second term, his predecessors in this distinction having been Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and Grant.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Weight of the Blood.
The average weight of the circulating blood in the body is about twenty-eight pounds.

It Should Be in Every House
J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinerly's. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.
