A Western Girl's Idea.

A very clever young western girl, who came to New York with the desire to work and make money, and who has heretofore failed in that attempt, has sent out cards to wealthy housekeepers to the effect that she will make contracts to sweep, dust and clean their apartments so many times a week for so much. In the advent of a sudden loss of servants she believes she will be able to take up a great many orders. "It is a genuine fact," says she, "that the general run of servants in New York are too saucy, ignorant and slovenly to know how to set a room to rights neatly and artistically as well. They are always breaking precious bric-a-brac, tearing exquisite silken picture scarfs and tidies, or scrubbing the dust and grime into elegant portieres. I believe some women ought to make a profession of house-cleaning."

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "la grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Impoverished Nobility.

The way the world wags is illustrated in the case of a waiter in a New York restaurant, who, having applied for a divorce, was compelled to reveal his real identity. He claims to be Count Alexander Sajonskowski, born in Russian Poland of noble, but impoverished, parents. There are supposed to be a large number of these wrecks of nobility in restaurants or on ranches in America beginning life anew under assumed names.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

We'll write it down till everybody sees it

Till everybody is sick of seeing it
Till everybody knows it without seeing it—

That Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of chronic catarrh in the head, catarrhal headache, and "cold in the head." In perfect faith, its makers, the World's Dispensary Medical Association of Buffalo, N. Y., offers to pay $500 to any one suffering from chronic catarrh in the head whom they cannot cure.

Now if the conditions were reversed—they asked you to pay $500 for a positive you might hesitate. Here are reputable men, with years of honorable dealing; thousands of dollars and a great name back of them, and they say—"We can cure you because we've cured thousands of others like you—if we can't we will pay you $500 for the knowledge that there's one whom we can't cure." They believe in themselves. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

Jews in Jerusalem.

Within ten years the number of Jews in Jerusalem has trebled, half the present population being of that race. Colonization societies in southern Russia and Roumania have moved many families on to farms in Palestine, buying agricultural implements for them so that it is estimated by a member of the Palestine exploration company there are now two thousand Jews tilling the soil where there was not one ten years ago. It is strange to hear of electric lights and telephone factories and water works in Jerusalem.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Wanted to Be Dissuaded.

An American paper published in Paris recently contained the following unique advertisement: "A young man of agreeable presence and desirous of getting married would like to make the acquaintance of an aged and experienced gentleman who could dissuade him from taking the fatal step."

While Mr. T. J. Richey of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. 1m
