SATURDAY, - - - MAY 6, 1893

No savage gloating over the death agonies of a tortured victim is more diabolically vindictive than the Telegram on receipt of the news that Carlyle Harris was to be electrocuted. "Good news for justice! Good news for pure womanhood! Good news for honest manhood! Carlyle Harris will be electrocuted!" shouts the Telegram, and personified we can see that paper circling around the flaming fagots of a funeral pyre, armed with a club and hideously painted. This is not the proper spirit to be shown by people claiming any pretension to the civilization of this age. The murder by Harris was deplorable, and his premeditated death by law, with a set number of days in which to live, is an event foreign to joy. Carlyle's life was not given to him by man, but by the Creator. By killing him man takes upon himself the fearful responsibility of destroying that which he cannot restore, and though we do not argue against the law of Moses, we claim that it is not fitting to exult in spasmodic sentences and riotous joy over the death of any human being.

The lightest attendance any day at the Centennial exposition in Philadelphia was 70,000 people, and the highest number was 285,000. These figures will not begin to be reached at Chicago. The lowest so far reported shows the meagre attendance to have been but 3,000. What is responsible for the great difference? We need not go far to find a solution. It is because of the innate hogghishness of the denizens of Chicago. On the first day of the rush grocers doubled the prices of their commodities. Coffee rose to 10 cents a cup, and any move made by a visitor was eagerly watched for a chance to charge for it. At Philadelphia, the admission fee was good to enter any building and see the arts, industries and exhibits of any nation. At Chicago everything costs money to see it. What is to be seen inside the gates for the admission is a disappointment. This way of conducting a fair cannot win and unless the Chicago hog uses a little more diplomacy the fair will be a failure. The Chicago press are already howling for reform.

William Inglehart writes in the April Lippincott on "What the Publicity Department Did for the Columbian Exposition," and tells of the good work that the energetic Major Moses P. Handy and his myrmidons have done to remove the trash from the light of the world's fair. The bureau spent $20,000 for a lithographed bird's eye view of the exhibit buildings. For a few days the postage alone on these views amounted to one thousand dollars a day, and some conservative men on the directory became nervous at the seemingly enormous and useless expense. When the returns began to come in a Boston man said the pictures reached everywhere, and when an American traveling in the Sahara wrote to one of the Chicago newspapers saying he had found a bird's eye view hung up in an Arab tent on the edge of the desert, that there was no longer any question as to the value of the expenditure in his mind.

Eastern Oregon seems to be a country of surprises. During the past winter it is reported that the warm springs near Prineville froze over, much to the dismay of the owner. The News of that city now reports that the largest spring is once more boiling away, hotter than ever, and says: "Early the other morning the people of the ranch felt a distinct trembling of the earth and a subterranean rumbling. A few moments later one of the men who was out at the barn saw a jet of water and vapor shoot from the spring to a height of 50 feet, and since that time the hot spring has flowed with old-time vigor. Perhaps it became clogged by the walls caving in, and the accumulated gas in the interior of the earth just blew the obstructions out."

The fortune of war has gone adversely to The Chronicle in the matter of the publication of County Clerk Crossen's semi-annual statement, having been so decided at the recent session of the commissioner's court. The county clerk's action is thus vindicated, as regards the letter of the law. That he has violated its spirit we still believe. This for the reason that the law contemplates publishing its notices in the paper having the largest circulation, believing that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well.

After Penoyer's four years are up he ought to apply to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., for a position as an original advertisement writer. He has secured more advertising in a six-word dispatch than the sixty thousand dollars appropriated

RUDOLPH VIRCHOW.

Progressive Ideas Advanced by the New Rector of Berlin University.
Prof. Rudolph Virchow, the eminent German scientist, who has just assumed the rectorship of Berlin university, evidently believes in scientific rather than classical studies for young men. "Grammatical schooling is no longer the aid to progressive development necessary to our youth or which generates the love of learning that is the first condition to independent development," said Prof. Virchow in a recent address. "There are now other fields of learning whose methods are so far carried out that they are perfectly able to fulfill what is necessary: there are mathematics, philosophy and the natural sciences; they afford the young mind such a secure foundation that it can easily make itself at home in any faculty. On the development of these three sciences rests the whole of our western culture, a culture which ripened a Christopher Columbus, to whose genius and energy allow me to pay a deserved tribute. The university is not merely an institution for acquiring knowledge, but also one for examination and exploration." Prof. Virchow is among the anti-Darwinian scientists. He says that, in spite of statements to the contrary, no traces of the "missing link" between man and the lower animals has been discovered either in the physical organization of modern savages or in the most ancient of human skulls.

Wanted a Book on Courting.

The requests made to editors are curious at times. One of the frankest ever made public was addressed to the Scotsman recently, the envelope bearing a request that the letter should be handed to any bookseller in Edinburgh. The letter ran: "The kind of book that I want is a Courting book—a book that will tell me how to talk to the lass that I love, a book that will tell me the words to say to her and the words to ask her when I be courting her is the sort of book that I want. No matter how few or little the words may be."

ERIE MEDICAL CO.

It isn't the usual way—it's just the reverse—to pay a patient when you can't cure him. Nevertheless, that's what's done by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They promise to pay you $500 if they can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad the case. It isn't mere talk—it's business. You can satisfy yourself of it, if you're interested. And you ought to be, if you have catarrh. It's faith in their medicine that's behind the offer. It has cured thousands of the worst cases, where everything else failed. You can be cured, too. If you can't, you get the money. They're willing to take the risk—you ought to be glad to take the medicine.
It's the cheapest medicine you can buy, because it's guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?
That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,
Dufur, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours,
Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.

WINANS
THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large eighty lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
See me on the ground, or address me at Hood River, Wasco County, Oregon.
