CARLYLE HARRIS DEAD

Murderer of Helen Potts Electrocuted at Noon.

HIS LIPS SEALED TO THE LAST

Went to His Doom Without Making a Confession—A Statement for the Press.

SING SING, N. Y., May 8.—Carlyle W. Harris, the young medical student, whose trial and conviction in New York city for poisoning Helen Potts, to whom he had been secretly married, has attracted so much attention, was electrocuted in prison here today.

Harris had been told when the execution would take place. He retired early last night showing more evidences of excitement than usual, his heretofore strong nerves giving evidence of strain in the unusual quantity of cigarettes he smoked. He slept little during the night, rose early this morning and looked over a manuscript he had prepared to be given to the press after his death. He seemed cooler this morning, and ate a light breakfast at 8 o'clock. At 9 o'clock the medical witnesses began to arrive, and half an hour later the fires were started under the boilers which operate the engine which runs the dynamo furnishing the deadly agent of execution. His mother and brother had already taken a final leave of him, but occupied a room in a neighboring hotel, from the window of which the black flag could be seen when hoisted as a signal that his spirit had taken flight.

The death warrant was read at 8:30. The reading had no visible effect on the condemned man. Half an hour later the prison chaplain spent an hour with him, then one of the medical examiners visited him and found him showing some signs of nervousness, but nothing more. Harris did not ask for morphine or any stimulant, but wanted a couple of oranges, which were given him. He was shaved and had his hair cut at 10:30, and put on a new suit of clothes.

At 12:15 the witnesses were conducted to the execution chamber and the death flag placed in position to hoist. The witnesses numbered 27, consisting of seven physicians, ten newspaper men and ten state officials and friends of the warden, arrived in the execution chamber. The witnesses took seats in a semicircle around the death chair, and everything being in readiness two keepers brought Harris into the chamber, accompanied by the chaplain. He looked pale as he entered the room, paused an instant on the threshold and calmly surveyed the assembled witnesses. One of the keepers indicated the chair to him, and without even a glance of curiosity at the death-dealing machine he stepped forward and took a seat.

PROTESTED HIS INNOCENCE. As he did so he requested permission to speak. This was accorded him. He said, speaking as if every word cost him a great effort:

"I have no further reservation to make. I desire to say I am absolutely innocent." Then he settled back in his chair and the electrodes were quickly attached.

The signal was given, the lever clicked sharply, the form of the condemned man stiffened till the straps creaked, while 1760 volts passed through his frame. At the end of two seconds the current was reduced to 150 volts, which was continued 54 seconds longer, when Harris was pronounced dead. As the current was fully shut off the body dropped back limp. An examination showed no signs of life, and it was evident that death was instantaneous. The execution was most successful. His relatives will take the body away this afternoon.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

An English Journalist's Opinion of the Show.

Toronto, Ont., May 8.—Sir James Long, proprietor of the Sheffield (England) Telegraph, who visited the world's fair last week with a party of British journalists, has given his impressions of and the prospects of the fair. He said he considered the Chicago show the greatest ever held, the most extensive, the most costly, and architecturally the most imposing. It was a question of money and never before had so much money been contributed for such a purpose. The buildings were much ahead of those at Paris, but he was disappointed at the unready state of the exhibition. Strangely enough, the most backward exhibits were those which the Americans themselves were making. In his district in Sheffield, all but two manufacturers had practically boycotted the Chicago fair on account of the Mc-

Kinley act preventing them from selling goods in the United States. He approved this action at the time they decided it, but he now thought it was a mistake. Many British merchants were losing the opportunity of a life-time for advertising. If it had not been for the McKinley act, England's exhibit at Chicago would have been the best that country had ever made. He did not think the exhibition of paintings equal to that made at Vienna. He did not think it would be a financial success.

TWO BATTLES FOUGHT.

Nicaragua Revolutionists Are Again Victorious.

PANAMA, May 8.—With Santiago Morales at their head, the revolutionists of Nicaragua have established a provisional government over that republic, and are preparing to strike a crushing blow to President Sacass. This important news is contained in a special cable which has just been received from San Juan del Sur, on the Nicaraguan coast. Headquarters of the provisional government have been established at Granada, the city which first fell into the hands of the revolutionists. Santiago Morales is the provisional president, ex-President Zavala minister of war, and Eduardo Montiel general-in-chief of the revolutionary army. Around Granada have been concentrated the leading divisions of the revolutionary army, and from that point of course all operations are conducted. In addition to Granada and Masaya, which they captured on April 29th, the revolutionists have taken Rivas, Jinetepe and Chantales.

Gives Satisfaction.

ST. PAUL, May 8.—The nomination of William Lochren to the important post of commissioner of pensions, is received with greatest satisfaction in the north-west, where he is one of the most popular men. He is judge of the circuit court of Minnesota, having been appointed once by a republican governor. He retained the position for three terms.

Judge Lochren was born in Vermont in 1836. In 1857 he went to Minnesota and practiced law. He enlisted in the first Minnesota regiment and served with distinction throughout the war. He went into the famous charge at Gettysburg, which checked Pickett's onslaught, as a lieutenant, and came out in command of his regiment, every officer above his grade having been killed or wounded.

Henderson Sentenced for Life.

OREGON CITY, May 8.—This afternoon the case of the State vs. William Henderson was called in the circuit court on a rehearing ordered by the supreme court in reversing the decision of the lower court, and the prisoner was given an opportunity to enter another plea, which opportunity he took to plead guilty to murder in the second degree. Hon. Henry E. McGinnis appeared for the prisoner and C. H. Dye for the state, and in behalf of the prosecuting attorney his deputy accepted the plea rather than put the county to the expense of a new trial. Time was waived and Judge Mc Bride at once sentenced Henderson to be confined in the penitentiary for life.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store.

Square Up.

Charles L. Richmond, having disposed of his grocery and livery stable business in The Dalles, has placed all accounts in the hands of L. A. Esteb for collection. All parties are required to make settlement within thirty days.

Wants Hawaii.

Prince Albert, last of the Kamehamehas, lays claim to the throne of Hawaii. He says he is the son of Kamehameha I, and is, consequently the rightful king. Kamehameha V. always treated the prince with the consideration belonging to his rank, and when dying requested that one of the Kamehameha family should succeed him. His request was not complied with, and in consequence Prince Albert was compelled to live a life of comparative idleness. He is 43 years of age, is of magnificent physique and is regarded by some as the handsomest Hawaiian in Honolulu. The only time that he has appeared prominently in public life was in the legislative session of 1880.

Another French Scandal.

PARIS, May 8.—T. Turpin, the inventor of the new explosive, melinite, has involved many of the French government officials and high officers by the French army in another scandal, second only to the Panama scandal. About two years ago Turpin gave the secret of his explosive to the French government. Shortly after this he sold it to foreign governments, for which he was convicted of treason and sentenced to five years imprisonment. He was afterwards pardoned by President Carnot. Turpin now says that high officers have sold both melinite and its formula to foreign governments, and avows his intention of exposing the names of the guilty men.

AMERICAN BABIES.

They Are Claiming Much Attention and Valuable Time from Foreign Writers. It is now American babies who are commending themselves to foreign eyes. An Englishwoman visiting this country writes home for publication: "You could not imagine anything more quaintly delightful than American small children and babies. They, up to four, wear the dearest little close caps of all colors, but generally white—the queerest, prettiest clothes—all just touching the ground. It is easy to see where Kate Greenaway got her models for her quaint pictures; they are exactly here.

"Then the baby carriages—nothing approaching our clumsy perambulators. They are all of either bent wood or good wicker work, yellowish white, like bamboo, and openwork all around, on perfect springs, and most of them rock up and down when not being wheeled, and fixed large parasols overhead in all colors and pretty devices.

"Half lying under this bright shade is a round-faced, pale, very pretty, piquant baby, with unusually dark eyes, with an expression in them as if there was nothing they didn't know; a tiny white silk cap on its tiny head; rings secured to its wrists by a ribbon on its fat fingers; the daintiest white pillows, white fancy coverlets over its little body, and an air of cushions and coziness about it. Such is the American baby."

This is very delightful, even if it sounds as if the American baby were a species newly discovered by intrepid explorers.

The total recorded immigration to this country is 16,004,093, almost as many as the whole population of Spain.
