THE EMPEROR SPEAKS

Determined to Carry Through the German Army Bill.

HE WAS SERIOUSLY DISAPPOINTED

Attendance at the World's Fair—Yesterday Was Catholic's Day. Minor Mention.

BERLIN, May 9.—While reviewing the troops in the field at Templehof today the German emperor ordered the principal officers of the imperial guards to gather around him, and addressed them as follows:

"I have been seriously disappointed in the patriotism of the late reichstag. I hope the coming reichstag will adopt the military bill, but if it should refuse to adopt it I am determined to carry the bill into effect despite the unpatriotic opposition."

The speech is causing enormous excitement among the people.

Catholics Day at the Fair.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The attendance today promises to be the largest since the opening day. The programme for the day includes exercises by the Catholic Knights of America, this being their day at the fair. Cardinal Gibbons, who will take a prominent part, was born at Baltimore, Md., and is about 59 years old.

At a very early age he went to Ireland, where he received his early education. After his return to the United States he entered St. Charles College, Howard county, Md., from which he graduated in 1858. Later he studied theology in St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and in 1861 was ordained a priest. His zeal and untiring labor in the ministry, rather than any marked intellectual qualities, caused his rapid promotion in the Catholic church. He succeeded Archbishop Bayley as Archbishop of Baltimore in 1877.

Inscription on the Coffin. SING SING, N. Y., May 8.—At 3 o'clock Undertaker Kipp drove up to the prison grounds. He procured the prison physician's certificate of the cause of Harris' death, and then drove into the prison grounds. In his wagon was a highly polished oak casket, which was carried into the death chamber where the body of Harris, dressed in a dark suit of prison-made goods, reposed on a table. The body was placed in the casket. The undertaker refused to disclose his plans for the disposition of the body. The silver plate upon the cover of the casket contained this inscription:

"Carlyle W. Harris, Murdered May 8, 1893, Aged 23 years, 7 months 15 days. We would not if we had known." There was a very impressive scene at the Ambler house in the afternoon, when Mrs. Harris saw the reporters. The remarkable woman stood calm and passive. Facing them with dry eyes and a firm voice, she said: "It has been said that Carlyle was guilty because he shed no tears when Helen Potts died. I shed no tears and God knows I loved Carlyle Harris. My boy is innocent. You men who saw him die know he went to the chair an innocent man. With his last words he declared his innocence, and yet he has been killed. He has been judicially murdered. His last statement was to have been given so soon as he was dead, and I have not received it yet. I do not think I shall ever see it, at least not as my boy wrote it. It was my boy's last wish that it should be given out today, but I am powerless to carry it out."

Warden Dunston was asked for Carlyle Harris' statement, which it was understood, was prepared for the press. Dunston promised to turn this statement over to Mrs. Harris, but this afternoon he said he thought it best to submit it to the superintendent of prisons first and he mailed it to that official this evening.

HARRIS DIED A CATHOLIC.

He Was Received Into the Church Last Friday.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The Rev. Father Van Rensselaer, of St. Francis Xavier's college, visited Carlyle Harris frequently in the Tombs, but he was not present at the execution. Father Van Rensselaer said to a Sun reporter yesterday:

"Carlyle Harris became a Catholic before he died. I called on him at the Tombs at his own request. About ten days ago I received a letter from him asking me to call on him if his appeal was adversely settled. In answer to his request, I went to see him last Friday at Sing Sing. He expressed a desire to become a Roman Catholic and to die in the faith. I accordingly baptized him conditionally, as he had been previously baptized in the Episcopal faith. I also heard his confession and granted him absolution. I have never at any time believed Harris guilty, and I do not now."

Cuban Revolutionary Party.

KEY WEST, Fla., May 9.—Owing to the illness of Jose Marti, the manifesto of the Cuban revolutionary party will not be issued until tomorrow. Senor Marti has been confined to his bed since Saturday night, but is not seriously ill. Bands of Cubans have been in the habit of drilling once or twice a week and always on Sunday since the opening of the year. Formerly they drilled near the first mantello tower on the south beach, but yesterday they retired entirely out of the sight of the curious, as they thought, in the salt ponds property, a mile or more beyond the limits of the town. The council, composed of the presidents of the revolutionary clubs in this city, is in secret session tonight with Senor Marti.

Against Locating it at Roseburg.

SALEM, May 8.—In the circuit court of Linn county D. C. Sherman has brought proceedings against the trustees of the Oregon soldiers' home, enjoining them from locating the soldiers' home at Roseburg, contrary to the provisions of the state constitution. A temporary injunction was granted and the defendants cited to appear at Salem May 23d and show cause why permanent injunction should not issue as prayed for.

Republicans in Council.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—[Special.]—Hon. John L. Wilson of Spokane is in the city and will be in attendance at the meeting of the national republican committee, the Tariff League and the Lincoln League, which opens today. He was joined at St. Paul by Hon. T. H. Carter of Helena, chairman of the national committee. Mr. Wilson expects to return about May 15th.

Cut in Rates on the Union Pacific.

OMAHA, May 9.—The Union Pacific today took a hand in the Colorado rate war by issuing an order to sell tickets from Utah common points to Colorado common points for $13, round trip $26. The prevailing rates have been $25 and $35.

Lincoln's Private Secretary.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—News from Martinsburg, W. Va., of the death of Colonel Ward H. Lamon, President Lincoln's private secretary and author of the life of the martyred president, was received here today.

Dowager Duchess of Sutherland.

It is reported the Dowager Duchess of Sutherland, who has been sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment in Holloway jail, for contempt of court, is too ill to undergo the sentence. The offense of which the Dowager Duchess is guilty is the burning of a paper given her for inspection, which stood in evidence in a will case made by the duke who died in 1892. It is also said that the paper had reference to the mysterious death of her first husband. The will referred to was very favorable to the Dowager Duchess, and was contested by the Marquis of Safford, who is a son of the duke's first wife. Her imprisonment in a common jail must be a shock to all nobility worshippers, and would tend to show that royalty is rather descending than ascending.

United Brethren in Christ. DAYTON, O., May 9.—The general conference of the Church of United Brethren in Christ will convene here Thursday. For the first time in the history of the church laymen have a voice in the body. Ministers and laymen are arriving from all parts of the United States. Five bishops of the church are already here.

Crop-Weather Bulletin.

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather—Saturday the 6th was the first spring day of the season. The total precipitation amounted to over one inch in the Willamette valley north of Lane county and about Ashland; while in Lane, Douglas, Josephine and northern Jackson counties it ranged from 0.50 to 0.70 of an inch. No frosts are reported. Crops—Fall-sown wheat on low lands is somewhat injured. It was slightly scalded by the hot sun of the 6th. Barley is in head in parts of Marion and Linn counties. Corn planting has been greatly delayed; the acreage of corn will be increased over that of last year. Hops are in places growing rapidly. The hop acreage is expected to be considerably larger than last year. Garden work is very late. Grass has a fine growth and is very luxuriant. In the interior valley fruit is generally in full bloom. Present prospects are favorable to a successful and bounteous harvest notwithstanding the cold, rainy and backward season.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather—Continued cold weather, save the 6th, when it was warmer and pleasant. The rains have been frequent and on the night of the 7th very heavy rain fell. Snow fell in the interior counties, especially Grant, on the 3rd and 5th. Sleights are yet used over the mountains from McEwen, Baker county.

Crops—In the Columbia river valley by another week most of the seeding will be done. Wire worms are doing damage to the wheat in parts of Sherman county; in parts of Morrow county the ground squirrel is very destructive. The wheat acreage is being increased, especially in Morrow, Gilliam and Lake counties. Fruit trees are generally in full bloom and leaf throughout the Columbia river valley, while in the interior the buds are swelling and are almost ready to burst forth. Peaches have been injured about Milton. While the seeding is late, the present prospects indicate an excellent wheat harvest. The cold season has been injurious to the lamb crop. In some of the interior counties the loss in young lambs has been 35 per cent. Sheep shearing is in full blast in many localities. Poplars are in leaf in the Columbia river valley. The grass has excellent growth and stock are improving.

Rivers—It is an undeniable fact that there is more snow now in the mountains than there has been at this season of the year for many years past. A continuation of the present cool weather will allow the snow to gradually melt and not cause such a great flood in the Columbia river and its tributaries as it would should the snow melt rapidly under the influence of a sudden warm period. Precautions should be taken by all liable to be affected by a flood in the Columbia. From June 15th to 30th is usually the period of the highest water in Columbia river.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. ## General Gonzales Dead.

CITY OF MEXICO, (via Galveston), May 8.—General Manuel Gonzales, ex-president of the republic and governor of the state of Guanajuato, died this afternoon.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes &amp; Kinerly's druggists.
