CHICAGO'S NEW MAYOR.

Carter H. Harrison Elected for the Fifth Time.

A Condensed Biography of the Newly-Made Chief Executive of the World's Fair City—A Few Words About His Opponent.

Carter Henry Harrison, who has just been elected mayor of the city of Chicago for the fifth time, was born in Fayette county, Ky., February 15, 1825. He was graduated at Yale in 1845, read law, engaged in farming, traveled for two years in foreign countries, and, after receiving his degree from Transylvania law school, Lexington, Ky., settled in Chicago, where he engaged in real estate speculations and acquired a fortune. After the great fire of 1871 he served as county commissioner for three years. After returning from a second journey through Europe, in 1874, he was elector to congress, as a democrat, by a close vote. He was reelected, and when his second term was ended, in 1879, was chosen mayor of Chicago, in which office he was continued for four biennial terms. After settling up his private affairs he started for a journey around the world, returning to Chicago just in time to run as an independent democratic candidate against DeWitt C. Crogier, the regular nominee, in 1891. He was defeated, but dragged his opponent down with him. A few months ago Harrison again became a candidate for mayor, received the regular democratic nomination, and was elected for the fifth time to rule the destinies of the greatest city in the west during the period of the world's fair.

Mr. Harrison's principal opponent during the recent campaign was Samuel Waters Allerton, the republican and citizens' candidate, who received almost 95,000 votes to Mr. Harrison's 115,000. Mr. Allerton was born in Armenia, Dutchess county, New York, sixty-four years ago come May. His stock is the sturdy stock of an old New England family founded by an emigrant—one Isaac Allerton who came over here in the Mayflower. Mr. Allerton spent his boyhood in the country, and when he was only thirteen years of age began to develop the remarkable talents which has made his name known throughout two continents. He first attracted world-wide attention by openly charging that the gun-makers who supplied the German army with rifles had grossly swindled the government and that the fighting weapons of the army were absolutely useless.

These statements caused a profound sensation, but Allerton was unable to sustain his position and was convicted of libel and imprisoned. A few days ago he again made himself conspicuous by declaring in the reichstag, of which he is a member, that large sums of money belonging to the government had been dishonestly paid to certain Hebrew speculators during Bismarck's occupancy of the chancellorship. The explosion of this bombshell fairly shook the German empire, but Allerton again failed to sustain his rash statements and was laughed and hissed out of the reichstag. In the judgment of many the man is slightly unbalanced.

While Mr. T. J. Richey of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. 1m

There are two or three grass crops in Switzerland every year, the first in the beginning of May, the second at the end of July and a third often at the end of October.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton. 1m
