Opinion of Naval Officers on the Geary Law.

CHINA WILL SURELY RETALIATE

Senator Mitchell Gives His Views on the Subject--The Law Should Be Enforced.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The outlook for a war with China is now regarded in naval circles as not unfavorable. It is believed the emperor will resent the conclusion reached by the supreme court, and will issue a decree enforcing strict rules against the entry of any more Americans in China, and probably ordering the removal of our missionaries out of his territory, under the pain of forcible deportation. Meanwhile there is danger of insurrection of Chinese against white immigrants which the imperial authorities will be unable to check. These, taken together with the outbreak which an attempt to enforce the Geary law on our West coast will bring about, it is thought will put the two nations on such a footing as to make war inevitable. The decision is a great blow to the Chinese legation here, where it had been hoped down to the last moment that the act would be declared unconstitutional.

SEATTLE CAPERS. Chinese Not Excited--Freak of a Fire Engine--Brainard Bruised.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 17.—[Special.]—News of the decision of the supreme court of the United States declaring the Geary law constitutional, has created but little excitement here among the Chinese. It is generally believed that the order issued by the secretary of the treasury will not be repealed until congress meets and has an opportunity to repeal it. The order of the secretary of the treasury directs that no action be taken by any custom house officer until further orders, and it is thought these further orders will not be forthcoming.

The city of Seattle was loser $5000.00 yesterday evening when a new fire engine which had been purchased for the city unfortunately ran backward into the Sound off the wharf. It will be recovered, however.

Editor Brainard, of the Evening Press-Times, was assailed last evening and pummeled with a cane, wielded by Mr. Andrew Blackstone, ex-comptroller of the city, whose character has been assailed by the evening paper at various times. Mr. Brainard's skull was pretty badly bruised, and the skin covering it was laid open.

Sunday School Convention. NEWBERG, Or., May 17.—[Special.]—The eighth annual convention of the Oregon Sunday School association opened with a fair attendance. The afternoon session yesterday opened with prayer by Rev. D. V. Poling of Independence. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Thos. C. Brown of Newberg, and response by Rev. T. E. Clapp of Portland. The enrollment showed a gratifying increase in membership over last year. Interesting speeches were made, showing the relation of the church, the teachers, the officers, and the pupils to the Sunday school successively by Rev. Hoberg of McMinnville, Rev. Poling of Lafayette, Rev. Dougherty of Portland and Rev. Denton of McMinnville. In the evening the best topic discussed was "The Sunday and Missions" by Rev. Strange of Ashland. The speaker reviewed the work of Protestant missions in foreign lands, reciting the trials of missionaries and the increase of conversions during the last year especially.

SENATOR MITCHELL'S VIEWS. He Thinks President Cleveland's Action is Reprehensible.

PORTLAND, May 16.—Senator Mitchell was very decided in his convictions that the Geary registration law should be immediately and firmly enforced, as he expressed them in an interview with a Telegram reporter this afternoon. In regard to the action of the supreme court the senator said:

"The action of the supreme court in sustaining the constitutionality of the Geary law was in accordance with the clearest precepts of law, and most proper and commendable. The authority of congress to pass such laws is unquestionable. The great mistake was made by the present administration in creating the impression that the law was unconstitutional, and that there would be no occasion for enforcing it. The action of President Cleveland in this respect is most reprehensible. He certainly gave the Chinese minister at Washington reason to believe that the law was not constitutional, and that the Chinese of this country need not be at all alarmed. The Chinese minister thereupon informed the Six companies to that effect, and they, in turn, instructed the Chinese throughout the country not to register.

IT INSPIRED CONFIDENCE. "I believe that the hesitancy of the president, and his manifest intention not to enforce the law, and his open contempt of the constitutionality of the Geary act, inspired the Chinamen in this country with confidence and boldness. Had he allowed it to be understood that he would enforce the laws, as he should have done, the Chinamen would have all been registered by the time required. You cannot quote me too strongly on this point," continued the senator, "that I think the administration has entirely exceeded its authority in suspending the law so far, and that it should be censured if it continues to do so."

Ferd W. Peck. Ferd W. Peck, recently elected first vice president of the world's Columbian exposition, was born in Chicago, in 1841. He was one of the first graduates of the Chicago high school. After completing his public school course he studied law, and received his degree from the college before he had attained his majority. He never practiced, however, but utilized his legal knowledge in the management of his immense estate. Mr. Peck has also contributed his knowledge in the handling of large affairs to other big enterprises, more public a character. Much of the uncommon success of the Chicago auditorium is due to Mr. Peck's energetic management.

Their Anxiety Explained. WASHINGTON, May 16.—President and Mrs. Cleveland have moved out to their country home. The Star says the members of the family are looking forward to an interesting event, to occur, it is stated, in July. The expected event explains why President and Mrs. Cleveland have been somewhat anxious to get into their own country home for the summer.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

The president appointed Benjamin H. Moore of New York collector of customs for Alaska; vice Edwin T. Hatch, removed.

A body was found in the Hudson river off Sing Sing yesterday and has been identified as that of Pallister, the murderer of Policeman Kane.

John W. Mackay, the California millionaire, is in Chicago for a fortnight's sightseeing at the fair. It is said Mrs. Mackay has rented a mansion and will entertain here during the fair.

While Mrs. Hannah Hogan, a lady 60 years of age, was walking past a brick building, which was being erected on Market street, San Francisco, she was struck by a falling iron girder which had been improperly braced, and was instantly killed.

Sir Charles Russell, continuing his argument in the Behring sea controversy yesterday, said that the original rights of Russia could not be transferred to the United States, since at the time it was questioned by the United States and Great Britain whether she had any rights to the exclusive jurisdiction of the waters of Behring sea.

A remarkable suicide on Sunday was that of Aristide M. Ary, the most wealthy and one of the best-known colored men of Louisiana. He was a native of New Orleans, but was educated in Paris. He first came into notice by being appointed alderman of the city by General P. H. Sheridan, when he displaced the Monroe council in 1867. He was for many years treasurer of the state committee, and was several times a presidential elector. The best of property on Canal street was his, and his realties could not be worth less than $250,000.

SEVERAL AMENDMENTS Proposed in the House of Commons. London, May 16.—The commons resumed consideration of the Irish home-rule bill in committee today. Hon. St. John Roderick moved to amend the bill so as to empower the crown, in response to an address by the imperial parliament, to restrain the Irish parliament. Prime Minister Gladstone opposed the amendment. He said that just as the acts of the British legislature were subject to restraint through the intervention of the crown, so the acts of the Irish legislature would be subject to restraint on intervention of the viceroy. Balfour suggested that the final decision of the point be deferred until a latter stage in the bill. Sir Henry James moved an amendment that the supreme power of the imperial parliament remain undiminished by any proviso of the home-rule bill. Gladstone declined to consider the amendment, but eventually agreed to accept it on condition that its place in the bill be determined by the government. The amendment was then approved.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The Chinese question occupied the entire attention of the cabinet at its meeting today. Before the cabinet meeting, Chief Justice Fuller, who dissented from the decision of the supreme court, called at the white house and had a brief talk with the president. Subsequently the chief justice had an interview with Secretary Gresham. It is understood the conclusion reached by the cabinet was that the law could not be enforced, for the reason that there was no money available for the purpose. The act only carries an appropriation of $100,000. Secretary Carlisle showed that not more than $16,000 of that sum remained. It is estimated that it would cost, to deport all the Chinese now in the country who have not complied with the law more than $8,000,000.
