MAY MINORS.

Billed Newslets to Be Digested at the Supper Table.

Fourteen loads of wool were delivered at the Wasco warehouse today.

The river at Umatilla is 4 1/2 feet higher than it was last year at this time.

The Regulator will make a trip to the Cascades and return on Saturday.

The Spokane Review thinks Cleveland's idea of reciprocity is embodied in this sentence: "You put me in, I'll keep you out."

A bicyclist rode through the town last night from the east. He is agent for the Swift bicycle and is thus proving the merits of the machine.

The water has attained such a high in the river that the steam ferry boat lands without trouble at the foot of Washington street, near the Waldron stone building.

The recorder's court is running very light. There has been but two arrests so far in the month, one for drunkenness and the other a hobo, who was pulled in last night.

It may be that Fiske, who won the medal contest here, will be rejected on account of physical disabilities. If this is the case, his alternate, E. Neale Johnson will be selected.

A private letter from Salem verifies our report of a few days ago that the decision as to the location of the asylum will be withheld until the result is learned of the injunction suit of the Soldiers' Home.

Ripe strawberries were seen on sale today at Campbell Bros.' confectionery store, which were raised near Crater's point this season in open ground by A.
Field. These are the first of the season from this vicinity.

Mr. J. A. Gulliford of Dufur called on the Chronicle today. Mr. Gulliford was unfortunate enough to have a runaway on Monday last, while out on the farm. The horses took fright and ran with a harrow, which was attached to them, and was seriously injured.

The total amount paid by Morrow county this year as bounty for squirrel scalps is $1,845. In place of a bounty, Gilliam county invested in $200 worth of strychnine which was not enough to go around among the farmers.

The Chemical National Bank, to which was given the exclusive right to do business on the world's fair grounds, failed, carrying many deposits of foreign visitors and exhibitors. This is a shorter road to their pockets than the mere charging them for the shows within the show, and more net profits realized.

A beautiful gold medal was presented last night to William Scott for bravery.
On one side appears a reproduction of the Regulator, showing the swimmer in the water after the drowning boy, and on the other is neatly engraved the names of the donors.

Doc Sing, one of the most intelligent of our Chinamen here, called at the Chronicle's office today for information about the Chinese question. He was much surprised to learn that the Geary law had been declared constitutional.
Doc laughed at the idea of there being a war, though agreeing that if Chinese are deported Americans will undergo a similar experience in China. He is hopeful that the matter will be adjusted with the lapse of time, satisfactorily to all concerned.

Directory of Dalles City.

Mr. Frank Deye has perfected arrangements for the issue, June 20th, prox., of a Columbian Year Directory of Dalles City. Only two directories of the city have ever been issued—the first in 1883, by Mr. Thomas H. Ward, and the second, under his copyright, in 1884.
Mr. Ward has extended the privileges of his copyright to Mr. Deye, so that the work is fully fortified against infringement or interference.

The directory of this year will be incorporated in and become a part of the history of Oregon, as it will mark an era in the state's progress, and stand for reference and comparison from now till the next Columbian year. It will include portraits of prominent citizens and pictures of many of the elegant private residences of the city, cuts of public buildings, churches and business blocks, names and street directories, statistics, histories of Wasco county and Dalles City, and other valuable information, general and particular.

The publisher is an old newspaper man and an artist, and in the latter capacity will make a majority of the drawings.

This is an enterprise that besides giving us a directory, which time and changes have rendered an absolute necessity, will add to the importance of the city. It will be placed in the principal hotels of San Francisco, Portland, the Sound cities and Victoria, and will be on file at the Oregon club in Chicago and in the Oregon building in the world's fair grounds. The work on it will be done in the city, and as a home product will be a credit to all concerned—publisher, printers, patrons and people.

Good Job Printing.

If you have your job printing done at The Chronicle's you will have the advantage of having it done with the most modern and approved type, with which we keep continually supplied. All jobs under the direct supervision of one of the most successful and artistic printers in the Northwest.

Notice.

Owing to the present stage of water we have been compelled to discontinue through connection to Portland. Steamer Regulator will make a trip, Dalles to Cascades and return, every Saturday.
Through business will be resumed as soon as possible. D. P. & A. N. Co.

Go to N. Harris for fine prints; 20

PERSONAL MENTION.

Messrs. G. Blackerby of Wapinitia and L. Klingner of Dufur are in the city today.

W. S. Benham, of the widely-known and favorite house of Benham, Trum-bell & Co. of Chicago, came to The Dalles today. Mr. Benham's is a friendly face in the city, and his business and social friends will be glad to welcome him.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, near Dufur, May 17th, Mr. W. S.
Woodcock and Miss Annie L. Chase, both of Wasco county, by C. D. Doyle, justice of the peace.

Superiority of Foreign Productions.

A young man of The Dalles of German descent, recently married, has just had an experience which he acknowledges will serve as a lesson throughout all his after life. His name, for obvious reasons, is withheld, but we will vouch for the facts. Wishing to procure a meat cutter as good as that used by his mother in the old country, he sent to Germany for it, and in due time the machine came from across the ocean. After opening the box the first thing that struck his eye were the directions for using—in English and not in German, as he expected. But to cap the climax, a trade mark, neatly cast in the iron, read, manufactured in U. S. A. The machine had been imported to Germany and re-shipped across the ocean to Oregon, costing about twice as much as he would have to pay for it here.

The Lover's Lament.

Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I ween, in vain I pray, What power Death's cruel hand can stay?

Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, is unequalled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

World's Fair.

The Northern Pacific seems to be the favorite route to the world's fair. Their passenger equipment is excellent. The tourist sleeping cars have been upholstered and are very comfortable.
For rates and other information call at the Regulator office.

C. E. Allison's ice wagon is on the street every morning. Leave orders at Chas. Lauer's, which will be promptly attended to.

Money to Loan.

MOSIER MUSINGS.

Alex. Watt Dangerously Wounded With an Adz.

Hoeing weeds and doing some tardy planting is the order of the day.
Rev. Frank Ireland will deliver a sermon in district No. 52 next Sunday, giving the infidels a scoring and proving the benefit of Christian discipline.

A new store is to be started here in connection with the postoffice by J.
Mosier. A blacksmith shop is also to be erected near the depot soon.

Alex. Watt was dangerously wounded last week while using an adz. The tool slipped, entering the calf of his leg, entirely severing the large artery which communicates the blood to that member.
He was over a mile from home, and in attempting to reach there had proceeded but a short distance when he nearly fainted from the loss of blood. He raised an alarm and Rev. Mr. Stark hearing him, mounted a horse and went to the rescue. Mr. Watt was taken home, every thing done to staunch the flow of blood and a doctor summoned.
The wound proved to be a very dangerous one, but with proper nursing he will be about before long.

A. Daggett, while attempting to make the station in a new boat recently built, on Tuesday, came very near being capsized. Mr. Daggett is not much of a boatman, which fact he acknowledges, and while in the center of the river the wind came up, tossing his boat in a fearful manner. How he reached land he does not know, but he thanks his lucky stars that he got there, and declares that he prefers to enter the "pearly gates" by land.

POSTAGE STAMP COLLECTORS.

A Field Actively Covered by the "Philatelist."

"All the world's a stage"—at least in the eyes of the born dramatist. To the mind of the born "philatelist" it appears to present itself as a vast field for the exercise of the energies of the postage stamp collector. From the new monthly of the Philatelic society of London we gather that the vice president of that society, accompanied by the honorary secretary of the Brighton society and one other enthusiastic member of the latter body, is now on a tour around the world in quest of these cherished trifles and meeting with sympathizing souls in various parts.

Mr. Castle's latest letter descriptive of his mission is dated from Bombay, which has, it seems, a society of its own, and has left on the minds of Mr.
Castle and his companions "the most favorable philatelic impressions." Meanwhile numerous other philatelists, as will be seen, are "posting over land and ocean without rest," impelled by the same absorbing passion.

One chivalrously stands forth in defense of Prince Edward Island from the unmerited contempt of the indolent philatelist who have spoken dis-paragingly of its postage stamp productiveness; another takes Fiji in hand, while a gentleman who has examined the great work of Mr. Tiffany and his associates, just completed, on the subject of "The Stamped Envelopes and Wrappers of the United States," reports that the list includes no fewer than sixteen hundred and forty-three varieties.

Worried the Speaker.

It is the petty vexations of life that perplex and annoy Secretary Carlisle.
Big things disturb him but little.
While he was speaker it became necessary for him to appoint two elevator boys, and the worry entailed on him in his endeavor to select the fittest two out of fifty applicants upset him more than any other event of his whole term of office. "I wish that elevator would sink," he said one day, after running the gauntlet of a dozen beseeching mothers. "I never could understand the need of an elevator in the house, anyway."
