To keep it on at that;

There was quite an arrival of wool today at the warehouses.

The river has raised 2.6 feet in the 24 hours ending at 9 o'clock this morning.

Mr. I. W. Childers of Columbus marked 385 lambs from 380 ewes. A pretty good increase.

The Dufur public school closed a successful year under the superintendence of Prof. Frazier yesterday.

A sturgeon nine feet long was caught last night in Davis' fish wheel. Nearly two bushels of eggs was taken from it.

The river gauge indicates $4.3 at 3 o'clock p. m. today. The rise is steady at one inch an hour since Wednesday morning.

Meers. Geo. W. Miller and E. Schanno have been drawn as grand jurors for the U. S. district court which convenes on the 31st inst.

Eight head of horses have been purchased in Sherman county for use at the Hood River mills. The horses left here this morning.

The exercises at the public schools this afternoon passed off very pleasantly, and it is said they were the most successful of all former events of this kind.

Dr. O. D. Doane was elected grand representative of Oregon by the grand lodge of Oregon, and is entitled to sit in the sovereign encampment of the grand lodge of the United States.

The Moore property on Alford avenue will be offered for sale tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the Court house. It is a desirable piece of property and here is a chance for a good investment.

It is rumored that the Union Pacific proposes to station a boat's crew at The Dalles for the summer to man the D. S. Baker for service in case of interrupted travel by rail from fire or high water.

Senator Matlock learns from Henry Chappell that for the small amount of money expended Oregon makes a first-class showing in comparison with her sister states. The fruit exhibit, it is thought, will without doubt be awarded the premium.

The law of the last legislature goes into effect today, making it unlawful to sell, offer for sale, or have in possession for sale, except during the months of September and October, any of the various kinds of trout. If you want trout any time between now and September let you must go forth and catch them.

Too Much Rain.

For the first time in twenty years Crook county ranchers are complaining of too much rain. Many of them have not finished their spring seeding, and for the past three weeks the ground having been too wet to cultivate they are desirous of a little dry weather. Lee Wigle was over from Warm Springs during the week. He says the Indians' grain on the agency is looking fine—far in advance of the grain here—but the crickets are again making their appearance in that section, and it is feared they will destroy the crops.—Ochoco Review.

When you buy your ice of Chas. Allison you don't get ice that was cut in the mouth of Mill creek, over the city sewer. And I am not a Portland company.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. John End of Wamic called on the CHRONICLE office this morning.

Mrs. Jas. Eglin of Corvallis is visiting with Mrs. H. Chrisman of this city.

Mr. D. Malarky of Portland was in city last evening, returning on the morning train.

Mr. B. E. Snipes of Seattle arrived in the city today and will remain among old friends several days.

Mrs. I. V. Howland is lying dangerously ill at her residence on 3-Mile with little prospect of recovery.

Mr. J. Jacobs of the Oregon City Woolen mills, came up on the noon passenger today, and is visiting the wool stock in store at the warehouses in this city.

Geo. M. Patterson and wife of Berea, Ky., arrived in the city yesterday and made the CHRONICLE a pleasant call. Mr. Patterson is a brother of Samuel Patterson, who died at Wapinitia recently. He is looking after the estate and will return to Kentucky in a few days.

A Problem.

A young lady yesterday asked Postmaster Hare for a dollar's worth of postage stamps. "Give me," she said, "twice as many twos as ones, and the remainder in threes." It took the obliging postmaster some time to figure out the correct number of stamps wanted of each denomination, but he finally succeeded in properly dividing them.—Astorian.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our little child. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. L. SKIBBE.

World's Fair.

The Northern Pacific seems to be the favorite route to the world's fair. Their passenger equipment is excellent. The tourist sleeping cars have been upholstered and are very comfortable. For rates and other information call at the Regulator office. 2tdewtf.

An Extraordinary Offer.

To All Wanting Employment—We want live, energetic and capable agents in every county in the United States and Canada, to sell a patent article of great merit, on its merits. An article having a large sale, paying over 100 per cent. profit, having no competition, and on which the agent is protected in the exclusive sale of a deed given for each and every county he may secure from us. With all these advantages to our agents and the fact that it is an article that can be sold to every house owner, it might not be necessary to make an "extraordinary offer" to secure good agents at once, but we have concluded to make it show, not only our confidence in the merits of our invention, but in its salability by any agent that will handle it with energy. Our agents now at work are making from $150 to $600 a month clear and this fact makes it safe for us to make our offer to all who are out of employment. Any agent that will give our business a thirty days' trial and fail to clear at least $100 in this time, above all expenses, can return all goods unsold to us and we will refund the money paid for them. Any agent or general agent who would like ten or more counties and work them through sub-agents for ninety days and fail to clear at least $750 above all expenses, can return all unsold and get their money back. No other employer or agents ever dared to make such offers, nor would we if we did not know that we have agents now making more than double the amount we guaranteed; and but two sales a day would give a profit of over $125 a month, and that one of our agents took eighteen orders in one day. Our large descriptive circulars explain our offer fully, and these we wish to send to everyone out of employment who will send us three one cent stamps for postage. Send at once and secure the agency in time for the boom, and go to work on the terms named in our extraordinary offer. We would like to have the address of all the agents, sewing machine solicitors and carpenters in the country, and ask any reader of this paper who reads this offer, to send us at once the name and address of all such they know. Address at once, or you will lose the best chance ever offered to those out of employment to make money.

An 8-Mile Melee.

A trial is going on before Justice Davis this afternoon concerning a row at 8-Mile last Saturday night. Alfred Hewitt, aged 13, Rufus Ryan, aged 13, and Waffler Ryan, aged 15, were arrested for assault upon Mrs. Wagner and her two boys. The lady was struck in the altercation, and at the instance of herself and husband the former-named were arrested. The trouble occurred while going home from church. A considerable attendance was in court, but up to the hour of going to press no decision had been made.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

A later report from Starbuck places the damage at not more than $25,000, as it is said the locomotives were only slightly damaged.

The execution of the Hebrews, Rosenzweig and Blank, took place today near Wilkesbarre, Pa. These were the first Hebrews to suffer the death penalty, not only in the United States, but in North America. They murdered Jacob Marks, a peddler, on Dutch mountain, in March, 1892. The executed men were also peddlers.

Beans and Brains.

One day during the period when Henry Cabot Lodge—now Senator Lodge—was a member of the house, a countryman and his wife were watching the proceedings on the floor from the gallery, one of the features being a speech by Mr. L. The old fellow had his eye on Mr. Lodge, in evident admiration, and at last he turned to the man next to him for information.

"Who is that down there in the aisle talking to the boys?" he asked. "Congressman Lodge," was the reply. "Where's he from?" "Massachusetts—Boston." "Boston, did you say?" queried the countryman.

"Yes, Boston." The old chap turned to his wife, who had been listening. "There, Mary," he exclaimed, "just see what beans and brains will do for a man that ain't half as big as a haystack."—Boston Traveller.

Not Tested Yet.

Laura—What a quiet young man Mr. Timpkins is.

Flora—Have you invited him to dinner?

Laura—No, not yet. Flora—Then do, and get him to go with us to Harlan's and get him to order a soda fountain of Chapman & Co., Madison, Ind. I see them advertised in the CHRONICLE. We can then draw him out while we drink delicious soda at his expense. They do say that soda is so good that it really makes young men who pay for it pleasant and talkative. 2t-daw
