OUR BIRTHRIGHT.

At the time of the framing of the clause in the constitution that all state institutions should be located at Salem, the companion proviso was that the seat of government be located at Salem. The whole plan was originated and was engineered by wire pullers of Salem and its immediate vicinity to the end that Salem would thereby have a political and financial prestige assured. The measure is outrageously unjust and selfish and was so in the beginning. The fact that all the principals in this maneuver are now dead or, if living, have long survived their usefulness, does not tors. the less prove it an unjustice, and it is gleefully crack the whip as London now time that the vast section which cabmen; they are an ex-member of parhas since become populated east of the Cascades and south of the Calapoola balance of power to enforce it to decree that all state institutions should be located at Salem, but now that the birthright of Eastern and Southern Oregon is being unfairly taken, it is not fitting that they should calmly suffer the infliction. To regain our rights, then, a constitu. tional convention should be called in the near future, looking to a revision of all objectional features, and, independent of the present party lines, an issue made between Salem and the balance of the state whether it shall continue to hog everything or divide more fairly. Whether, indeed it would not be better for the state to locate the capital itself expense. They do say that soda is so at Portland.

A Gilliam county paper petitions its readers as follows:

"We respectfully ask all our readers to patronize only the business men whose advertisements appear in this paper. By not asking for the patronage through the local paper, it is proof that they do not want the trade, and are therefore not deserving of it."

A newspaper that will promulgate such narrow-mindedness as this deserves to have all of its patronage withdrawn. Let not such a paper ever pronounce upon the evil of trusts or the curtailment of liberty of any kind. A business house that does not advertise should be allowed to die peacably. But there may be reasons of a personal character for Oregon. not advertising which is no business of the general public, but whom this paper would make a catspaw to fulfil its petty spite. This is disgraceful, even for a country weekly.

Salem is the capital of Oregon, and, according to the constitution of the state, all public institutions must be located there. This rule has not been followed, and so Salem has taken steps to compel the location of such institu-tions at the seat of government. The people who pay the taxes and the voters of Oregon have some feelings in the mat-ter, and it is probable that Salem will find that it has made a very unwise move in attempting to stir up this subject. An injunction to prevent the loca-tion of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg is the first step taken. One to defeat the act of the legislature in locating a branch asylum in Eastern Oregon will follow. Then an attempt will probably be made on the Weston normal school, the Monmouth normal school, the state university, and the several charitable institutions scattered throughout the state. The result will be Salem will lose its state capital, and it will go to Port-land.—West Side.

We can assure the West Side, as well as all other sections of Oregon interested, that the people of this part of the state are being worked up to a white heat over the advantage taken of Roseburg by an antediluvian clause of the constitution, which is now as unjust as it is impolitic. Salem has started a leak that will engulf them. Mark the prophecy.

It is reported that the annexationists of Honolulu have considerately decided to subside for the present and awa it the action of the United States. 'Tis well. 'Twould be unseemly indeed for Hawaii to annex herself to the United States sans ceremonie, even as the impudent Jersey mosquito annexes himself to the neck of the lank Jerseyman.-Tribune.

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have you and you're disappointed. The results are not immediate. And did you expect the diseases of years to disappear in a week? Put a pinch of time in every dose. You would not call the milk poor because the cream doesn't rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sure to effect it, if given a fair trial. You get the one dollar it costs back again if it don't benefit or cure you. We wish we could give you the maker's confidence. They show it by giving the money back again, in all cases not benefitted, and it'd surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

The story is told that the late R. B. Haves had for a neighbor in Ohio a testy old fellow who ran a small truck farm. He was honest and upright and Mr. Hayes held him in high esteem, notwithstanding his lack of social amenities and respect for persons. On one of his visits to Ohio during the presidency, he passed the old man's farm and found him planting potatoes in a patch near the road. The president, being some-what of a farmer himself, noticed some peculiarity in his neighbor's style of Address all communication to "THE CHRON-ICLE," The Dalles, Oregon. man argued the point awhile.

"After all," concluded the president, "I don't think you are doing it as it should be done for the best results." The old farmer rested his arm on the fence and looked steadily at Mr. Hayes. "They ain't neither one of us," said, "above havin' fault found with us; but ef you jest go on presidentin' the United States your way, an' I go on plantin' pertaters my way, I guess we won't be no wuss off in the end."

Mr. Hayes accepted the suggestion pleasantly and passed on. - Boston Traveller
