A WILLAMETTE PRAYER.

Rain, rain, go away! For heaven's sake, please do—and stay. We've hardly had a pleasant day in all this blooming month of May. You rained the first. And movers cursed. The condolee gas and almost burst. Town lots in duck ponds are immersed. For goodness sake get out of here. And if you must rain, rain us beer, Whisky, or anything to cheer.

Mr. C. W. Stone caught a fine seal in one of his fish wheels yesterday.

Messrs. Saltmarsh & Co. will ship two cars of fat cattle this evening to the Sound market from their stock yards.

The liberal offer of Pease & Mays in their new "ad." today, should certainly receive the attention of all ladies of The Dalles.

A fine lot of strawberries arrived from the Columbia River Fruit Co.'s ranch last night and will be shipped to Portland today.

Monday, June 6th, there will be given for the benefit of St. Paul's Sunday school, a magic lantern exhibition, with a short musical program.

M. D. Thomas plead guilty to a misdemeanor (obtaining money under false pretenses) and was fined $50, which he will serve out in the county jail.

The street superintendency has erected a bell tower and has put the great bell on its bearings, and it is ready for service at the Mt. Hood hose cart stall.

The Multnomah county court has offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and delivery of Burdette Wolf, the murderer of Birdie Morton, to the jailer of the county.

The Jones boys, who are engaged in mining in the foot hills south of Camp Watson, recently cleaned up $40 in four days' run, four men being engaged in the work.

P. J. White plead guilty to the charges of burglary and petty larceny before Judge Bradshaw and was sentenced to three years for one crime and thirty days for the other.

Hon. D. P. Thompson arrived in Washington yesterday from Turkey, and will remain at the national capitol for several days, and render an account of his stewardship while in official capacity in the Ottoman Empire.

The telegraph and electric light poles are used by bill posters to advertise Dr. Fake's Catarrh Cure, etc., etc, which misuse should be prohibited by the city authorities. They would look far more attractive and genteel with a coat of clean white paint, instead of baking powder, tobacco and kindred tin and wooden tags which deface them.

A very pretty photograph is that of the school girls in Japanese costume, taken by E. C. Drews. The picture is designated "protection," from the attitude of the young ladies. It was taken in the school yard, with the rocks for a background.

A curiosity is to be seen at Windom's barber shop in the shape of a double-headed lamb, which has been stuffed for preservation. The lamb came from Antelope. The backbone separates near the shoulder, into two sets of vertebrae, making perfect connection with the bones of the head in the usual way.

Lecture.

Among the arrivals in town yesterday was Mr. Ralph O. Bates, who has acquired a national reputation as a lecturer. Mr. Bates is one of the heroes of the story of "From Andersonville Prison to the White House," and is the original of the "Billy" of that thrilling story. The main features of the lecture have been incorporated in the history of the United States, but it is seldom an opportunity presents itself to hear the narration of personal experiences of one who survived the dreadful treatment received by the inmates of a Southern prison in war time. The story is a most interesting one, and "Billy" will tell it from his own lips Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

"Poverty Party."

A very pleasant evening was spent by those who attended the poverty party last evening. The following program proved most entertaining:

Song..... Mrs. Grace Condon Recitation..... Jennie Russell Music, Harmonica and Guitar..... H. Esping Recitation..... George Sampson Solo..... Mrs. Boyer "John Chinaman's Lament"..... By Six Boys Recitation..... Mabel Riddell Reading..... Rose Mitchell

The people at the World's Dispensary of Buffalo, N. Y., have a stock-taking time once a year, and what do you think they do? Count the number of bottles that've been returned by the men and women who say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery or Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription didn't do what they said it would.

And how many do you think they have to count? One in ten? Not one in five hundred!

Here are two remedies—one the "Golden Medical Discovery," for regulating and invigorating the liver and purifying the blood; the other, the hope of weakly womanhood. They've been sold for years, sold by the million bottles; sold under a positive guarantee, and not one in five hundred can say: "It was not the medicine for me!" And—is there any reason why you should be the one? And—supposing you are, what do you lose? Absolutely nothing!

NOMINATED AUDITOR.

Ivan Humason on a Trip to the Interior Recalled in Hot Haste.

Ivan Humason of the firm of Streiber & Humason, druggists, Portland, was in the city last night and went to Portland on the early morning train. Mr. Humason has just been nominated auditor by the democrats of Portland, but at the time that gentleman was en route to Lake county with 106 head of blooded stock to be placed on the stock ranch, and in blissful ignorance of the honor thrust upon him.

A messenger was at once dispatched from Portland to notify him of his nomination and overtook him at Button Springs sixty miles southwest of Prineville. At Prineville the messenger was besieged with questions as to what he wanted of Humason and he was forced to tell them, or fancied he was, that he had just been appointed collector of customs in place of Lotan. The excitement among the Prineville people was intense.

Mr. Humason says that the farmers are jubilant all over that country over the exceptionally fine prospects for crops. The desert is covered with a rank growth of grass and water is plentiful. Grass is so abundant in all parts of the country that stock eat all they want and lie down for long intervals. Last Saturday a heavy snow fell south of Prineville and a bucket of milk froze solid over night.

State Grange.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Grange opened at 1:30 p. m., and after disposing of a few resolutions, listened to an excellent address by Hon. John M. Bloss, who is president of the Oregon Agricultural College, and also director of the Oregon Experiment Station. Prof. Bloss explained the workings of the college and station and told how each is supported. Several questions were asked by different ones and answered by Mr. Bloss.

Some resolutions were then offered by Dr. Casto of Clackamas county.

As the eyes and noses were called considerable time was consumed in voting on several propositions.

Report of by-laws committee was referred back to committee.

Time for selecting place of meeting for next year was made a special order of business for tomorrow at 10 o'clock a. m.

Hilliary presented a resolution favoring United States ownership and control of the Nicaragua canal.

Motion to reconsider a vote on one of the proposed amendments to by laws was not sustained.

The Wednesday evening's session was very short owing to the fact that other parties wished the use of the hall.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Grange opened at 9 o'clock. Roll call showed nearly all members in their seats. Call for the report of standing committees.

P. P. Underwood of Wasco county made the report for the committee on transportation. Said report favored government ownership and control of railroads, etc., and called forth several eloquent speeches.

The principal speakers being Hon. H. E. Hayes, P. P. Underwood, Judge R. P. Boise and Deputy Ludy of Umatilla county.

The ice cream and entertainment social will be at the Fraternity Hall instead of the Wingate Hall.

All the speakers thought that the public highways should be controlled by the state for the benefit of the citizens.

All were satisfied that the government should not dally any more with the Union and Central Pacific railroads.

In Australia the government owns and controls the transportation lines.

Remarks were made on the same subject by Froman of Linn county, McMullan of Sherman county, and others. The whole discussion was very instructive to the members of the Grange and was enjoyed by all.

Sherman county farmers should not have to pay 11 cents per bushel for shipping grain 108 miles. The report of the committee was adopted.

Some amendments were offered to by-laws, and after thorough ventilation, were adopted.

Eugene, Oregon City, McMinnville and Corvallis were put in nomination for place of holding next State Grange.

Three ballots were taken, resulting in the choice of Eugene.

The claims of Eugene were presented by J. C. Jennings and Sister Spores; those of Corvallis by John M. Bloss and John Whittaker; those of Oregon City by J. Casto and F. A. Clark; and those of McMinnville by J. T. Jolly and Henry Black.

After selecting place of meeting, the Grange took a recess for noon.

Strayed.
