THE GRANGE.

The twentieth session of the State Grange, held at The Dalles, is numbered with the events of the past, and the members, in framing the customary resolutions, were kind enough to thank the people of The Dalles, for considerate treatment. Incidentally, the CHRONICLE was especially thanked for the attention given them in its columns. The Grange is a young institution, but is making a steady rather than a phenomenal growth, and is already a power in the land with promise of attaining all legitimate objects for which they are contending through education of its members. As was said last evening at the court house by a speaker, they are not a partisan organization, restricting no member in their right of suffrage. Believing nevertheless that they can best attain their aims through the ballot, they exercise a certain moral suasion that, as far as practical results are concerned, is equivalent to a pledge. The hope of securing alleviative legislation by any given class has almost always proved elusive of attainment, but the farmers, if any, can accomplish this end. Among the labor classes their Joshuas prove recreant to their trust, if elected, and the political leaders of any class, it has almost invariably been shown, when once inducted into politics, are readily contimated with the desire for pelf and influence. The agriculturists of the country, if any, ought to be able to choose men from among them who will not betray their interests and since Mr. Hayes, the lecturer of the State Grange, has said that the nation cannot survive the present conditions of centralization of capital twenty years, many of us will live, if his statement is true, to see how the change is to be accomplished.

The Hood River Glacier says: Oregon has outgrown its constitution, and needs a new one. It was made to suit the wants of 20,000 people, and is not large enough for 400,000. The middle over the Soldiers' Home emphasizes this. That the constitution says that all state buildings should be located at the state capitol, is beyond question; and that the locating of any state building away from the state capitol is unconstitutional is an undeniable sequence. The constitution has been trampled upon and ignored so often that it has lost respect and force. The people have acquiesced in this treatment of it. There is scarcely a county in the state but that has had a debt in direct violation of the constitution, and we believe Marion county is in that condition. Salem cares little for the Soldiers' Home being located elsewhere, and the suit was brought not to prevent the location of the Soldiers' Home, but to prevent the locating of the branch insane asylum in Eastern Oregon. It will not work. The matter may be delayed, but Salem has started a conflagration that is now beyond her control and the matter is going to be settled, and settled right, even though it requires a change of both constitution and capitol to do it.

It is said Dr. Keely has amassed a fortune of $20,000,000 from his liquor cure. This shows how earnest is the desire of drunks and their friends to rid themselves of the liquor habit, and is a tacit admission of its great evil.

The Irish spend $11 per capita, the Scotch $15.14 per capita and the English $19.16 per capita for liquors annually. These statistics are given by Rev. Dr. Dawson Burns, of London, who is a standard authority on temperance questions.

"This bump," said the phrenologist, "indicates that you are of a combative disposition." "No," said the subject. "It indicates that my wife is of a combative disposition. That's where she hit me with a hair brush this morning."—Harper's Bazar.

MR. ALLISON, the newly-appointed commissioner of agriculture for Tennessee, is about sixty years of age and is a graduate of the Western Reserve college of Ohio. During the war he was on the staff of Gen. Forrest.

OLD-FASHIONED rings, with precious stones in straight lines over the top, are much liked.

Memorial Services.

HDQTRS. J. W. NESMITH POST, G. A. R.,
DEPARTMENT OF OREGON,
The Dalles, Or., May 15, 1893.
GENERAL ORDER
No. 1.

I. The approach of our annual memorial day again reminds us of the ceaseless thinning of our ranks, which is increasing more rapidly each year. The lessening of our numbers should strengthen our fraternal feelings, and we should be the more firmly bound together in our soldierly relations and kindly remembrance of our fallen comrades, over whose graves we delight to strew fresh flowers, ever keeping green in our vivid recollections their deeds of valor and stalwart bravery.

II. J. W. Nesmith Post No. 32, G. A. R., will assemble at Post Headquarters Sunday evening, May 28, at 7 o'clock, and proceed from there, in procession, to the M. E. Church, where the memorial sermon will be preached by Comrade Rev. J. Whisler. W. R. C. No. 17, are requested to accompany the Post in all memorial services.

III. J. W. Nesmith Post No. 32, G. A. R., will assemble at Post Headquarters at 1 o'clock P. M., Tuesday, May 30, 1893, and proceed from there to the G. A. R. Cemetery, where the memorial services will be conducted.

IV. Canby Post No. 16, of Hood River, and W. R. Sherman Post No. 4, of Wasco, and the W. R. C. for those Posts, and all honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, and Mexican and Indian War veterans, are earnestly and cordially invited to participate with us in memorial services, and will be assigned place in the procession by reporting to the Officer of the Day at the Post Hall. Special invitation is also extended to "A" Co., 3d Regt., O. N. G., to the several civic societies of the city, and to our citizens in general, to join the procession and take part in decorating the graves of our dead.

By order,
J. M. PATTERSON,

Kept up for years—the offer that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's addressed to you, if you have Catarrh. It's a reward of $500, if they can't cure you, no matter how bad your case, or of how long standing—an offer that's made in good faith by responsible men.

Think what it means! Absolute confidence in their Remedy, or they couldn't afford to take the risk. A long record of perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases—or they couldn't have faith in it. It means no more catarrh—or $500. If you fail to be cured, you won't fail to be paid.

But perhaps you won't believe it. Then there's another reason for trying it. Show that you can't be cured, and you'll get $500. It's a plain business offer. The makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay you that amount if they can't cure you. They know that they can—you think that they can't. If they're wrong, you get the cash. If you're wrong, you're rid of catarrh.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.

See me on the ground, or address me at Hood River, Wasco County, Oregon.
