today.

The output of strawberries will be enormous this year in Wasco county.

M. McInnis has been appointed a notary public for the county of Wasco.

Pease & Mays center window is beautifully decorated in honor of Memorial day.

A stone wall is being laid to support the sidewalk on the lot adjoining the Cosmopolitan hotel.

The contract for raising the Lyle bridge was awarded to G. W. French of Hartland, his bid of $550 being the only one offered.

Henry Yeager was arrested today for assault upon Mr. Dalrymple of the Corson place. The trial will occur at 2 o'clock.

A varied docket was on hand for Recorder Menefee Saturday, consisting of a drunk, a hobo and a pugilist. The lat-

The biggest contract ever let in Crook county is the Prineville Irrigation Co.'s

The police court was in short session this morning and disposed of three cases, one for vagrancy, and the other two for fighting and disturbing the quietude of the Sabbath.

Ervin Taylor, who shot at Lai Tai, an Antelope Chinaman, was captured Thursday at Button Springs, south of Prineville, and returned to Antelope.
He will be tried at The Dalles.

The Ladies Relief Corps are very anxious to get flowers for the decoration services, and persons having any to spare will oblige them by leaving their gifts at Fraternity hall tomorrow.

Rev. O. D. Taylor brought in a peach branch with 27 sets upon it, which he says is a sample of all the fruit grown on the farms in which he is interested. He said that on all trees which were not allowed to overbear last year there is a good setting of fruit.

The backwardness of the season has been more of an injury to strawberry raisers than any other class. If the usual number of days of bright warm sunshine had been a feature of the present year, berries would have been in the markets nearly a month ago, for which the highest prices are given. As it is not more than 15 cents a box gross will be received.

They Enjoy the Telephone.

Indians are fast falling into the ways of their white brothers. The latest evidence of that fact is given by the Tekoa Blade, which says: "The siwash around Tekoa are good patrons of the telephone. Nearly every day an Indian calls at the telephone office and wants to talk to 'siwash at Spokane.' They care not to whom they talk so long as they get to use the 'phone, and cheerfully pay the 50 cents charged for a conversation. Some time ago one called at the office and wanted to talk to an Indian at Spokane. It was after 7 p. m. and no Indian could be found in that city. The noble red man was bent on talking, however, and the operator at Spokane entertained him for a few minutes, when he paid his fine and departed, wearing a broad grin of satisfaction."

A New Pest.

A new fruit pest has appeared along the Columbia in the vicinity of Una-tilla. State Fruit Inspector Jesse says of it: "From the knowledge I could obtain I am inclined to believe it is a blossom moth. It is about the size of a house fly, but without wings, and is the most hideous-looking insect I ever saw.
It works in the buds on apple trees, and seems to touch nothing else. Just shake a tree slightly and thousands of them will fall to the ground. Over 300 trees, it is reported, have been killed in that section this season by this pest.
It is something that has never before appeared in this section."

Memorial Day.

Tomorrow is memorial day, and will be fittingly observed by the G. A. R. post of this city, who will hold the usual memorial services. The post will assemble at their hall at 1 p. m. and the procession will form on Second street, right resting on Court and move at 1:30 under escort of A. Co. Third Regiment, O. N. G. Citizens are cordially invited to join the procession and participate in the memorial services. Business houses are expected to close at 12 o'clock and remain closed during the balance of the day.

Billy and Dick.

R. O. Bates on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings will tell the thrilling story of his escape from Andersonville prison.
Every man, woman and child who can do so should hear it. It is a story of self-sacrifice, patriotism and endurance, which in fiction would be designated incredible. But truth is stranger than fiction, and "Billy" carries with him all necessary documents to show that he is one of the two men who went through the rebel prisons, was reduced from 165 pounds to 59½, actually weighed by Abraham Lincoln, was shot three times by the commander of the prison, and kept a promise to see him hung. Billy is not a dead hero, having in this respect the advantage claimed by the living coward, and the story is told from his own lips in a modest manner, with its wealth of patriotism, pathos and happy ending, which keeps the audience laughing and crying by turns.
"Dick" traveled with him for seven years, but is now in Vineland, N. J., having suffered the loss of a leg and an arm through his experiences. An affection exists between these two men which is perhaps unequalled on the earth.

Mr. Bates always gives 35 per cent of the receipts to some deserving organization of the town. People should come in for miles to hear this remarkable and historic lecture.

Anthracite Coal.

A dispatch from Olympia, Wash., relates a discovery, which, if true, means unbounded prosperity to this coast. It is as follows:

"William Packwood has arrived in this city, bringing with him samples of anthracite coal. It was as hard and bright as new metal. The vein, from the outcroppings of which the specimens were taken, is 23 feet thick, with three veins above and two below it, each vein being separated with a ledge of sandstone from 20 to 40 feet in thickness.
The land on which the coal was discovered is within the reservation recently made by the government at the base of Mount Ranier. It is in Lewis county, just southeast of the mountain, and the railroad now building to South Bend will pass within a mile of the coal lands."

MARKS OF FRIENDSHIP.

The Grange Have a Right to Thank Whom They Please.

The CHRONICLE, without the customary aid of the proper committee, to whom is delegated the duty of informing the people, through the newspapers, of the coming meeting of the Grange, secured from other sources all the information concerning same that was needful, and hired and paid a competent reporter among the Grangers to report the proceedings, printing and distributing among them gratuitously fifty copies each night of the session. For these valuable services a resolution was drawn up especially thanking THE CHRONICLE. The resolution passed in this form and if it does not appear on the records has been eliminated without authority. We further believe that the Grangers are fully competent to pronounce upon who render them the best services, and we certainly believe they have the right to especially thank those whom they consider worthy of such especial mark of friendship. Nor have they anything to be ashamed of by such action. They should not be expected to lie about it, or thank anybody who has done nothing for them. As a matter of fact they did thank the Mountaineer, but especially thanked THE CHRONICLE. This was fitting. The secretary of the Grange furnished the minutes of the meeting to the Mountaineer without trouble or cost to that paper, avoiding the other offices without good reason. THE CHRONICLE then hired a Grange reporter, paying him for such services, and furnishing fifty papers free nightly. The Grange, considering these facts, could scarcely do less than mark THE CHRONICLE for especial favor, and we do not believe they will suffer us to be given the lie.

A Great Sermon.

The sermon of Rev. Whisler at the Methodist church last night was the finest effort of the kind ever made in The Dalles. It was more than a sermon, having all the fascination of a delightful lecture, the superior kind of delight found in grand thoughts clothed in beautiful language. The flag was brought up and Mr. Whisler gave a eulogy which stirred the fires of patriotism in every heart present capable of understanding language. He discussed the questions of the day in a masterly manner riveting the attention of a large audience from the beginning to the end.
Nothing like it was ever approached here, was the universal verdict. Present on the stand were R. O. Bates, Rev.
Clapp of Portland, Rev. Curtis, and Rev. Taylor.
