JUNE JOTTINGS.

Fifth and Point Paragraphed by Our Pencil Pushers.

The melodious mosquito now both haunts the nights of June and never a critic says of him: That he plays a pointless tune.

Mr. Ralph Rowland will represent the CHRONICLE on collection day.

An Adventist camp meeting now in progress at Milton is reported to be the largest ever held in that part of the country, hundreds being in attendance.

The Spokane & Portland Telephone Co. recently shipped two carloads of telephone poles to Hood River to be used on the line which passes through here.

Casberg and Guinther finished shearing J. B. Morton's sheep yesterday and their average fleece is ten pounds. The band throughout are the best they have seen this season.

In the circuit court today is being heard the trial of Emil Beck for larceny. There is a second indictment charging him with forgery. It is alleged that about the middle of February he purloined seven railroad tickets from the office at the Umatilla house, besides cash, aggregating in value altogether $476.

State Printer Frank C. Baker has placed the CHRONICLE under obligations for copies of the road and fish and game laws, which have just been issued from the press. In a note Mr. Baker says: "You may say in your journal that any of your readers may obtain from this office a copy of the road laws or fish and game laws, or both. A 2-cent stamp is respectfully requested."

Mr. John Klint, who lives near the city, favored this office with a box of Sharpless strawberries which are a marvel for size and beauty. Some of them are so large that they almost lose their identity as strawberries. Mr. Klint informs us he has the finest prospects for berries he ever has had. With a few warm days they will ripen fast enough to supply a large trade. They will be on sale at Kirbys' and Chrisman & Corsons.

Cut Flowers for Sale.

I have all styles of wires, including Odd Fellows, K. of P., and Masonic designs. Everything for floral decorations furnished on short notice. Prices reasonable. Mrs. A. C. STUBLING. 614 Cor. Eighth and Liberty.

Go to N. Harris for fine prints; 20 yards for $1.

STORY HAPPY.

And So Will Many Others Be When They Hear the News.

J. L. Story, an attorney of this city was one of the happiest men we have met for some time last night, and the reason of it was, that the register of the land office had notified Mr. Story that he had just received decisions in fourteen cases that Mr. Story had appealed to the general land office some two years ago in which there had been adverse claims by the Northern Pacific railroad company, and the settlers on the land. Mr. Story appearing for the settlers and appealed the cases on the following grounds:

First—That the land applied for, is land that was covered by the Northern Pacific railroad company's grant which was forfeited, and restored to public domain and rendered subject to settlement or purchase.

Second—That The Dalles military road grant never included any odd sections within the Northern Pacific railroad company's grant forfeited as aforesaid.

Third—That the land covered by these applications never was selected or withdrawn by The Dalles Military road company as provided by law, and they never acquired any rights thereto.

This settles a question that will give many farmers in Sherman county a title to their homes, and it seems to be a just decision.

MODERN MAXIMS.

Some Sage and Witty Sayings by a Celebrated Writer.

"It is part of the sage to make maxims. I have for some time suspected that I have arrived at the period of life when the sage is at his best, and I have now therefore tried my hand at a few useful maxims. Here they are—a mixed and miscellaneous lot. Of course, the sage at this time must be cynical in order to be popular. I hope some of these are cynical enough. Those on riches seem—to a partial parent—to be maxims really worthy of the most eastern—the most Himalayan—of sages.

"Out of ten men nine are born to work for the tenth. Resolve to be the tenth.

"Without tramping the cleverest cannot get rich.

"Dives is never an example, because nobody considers himself really rich.

"If you cannot become rich, remember the many miseries of the rich.

"The consolation of those who fail is to depreciate those who succeed.

"He who foresees never acts.

"The greatest things are done by the greatest fools.

"Wise men never attempt anything.

"When you lose a leg begin at once to practice with a wooden one.

"Men's motives are mercifully hidden by their shirt fronts.

"Observe moderation in all things—especially in virtues.

"The best way to make a man honest is to make him ashamed of being found out.

"There may be pride even in confessing mistakes.

"Everybody says that gentle birth is an accident, and everybody treats it as an achievement.

"The most charming attribute of friendship is the right of candor.

"Cheerfulness may be an admirable cloak."—Walter Besant, in London, Queen.

An Explanation.

THE DALLES, JUNE 1, 1893. EDITOR CHRONICLE:—In the CHRONICLE last evening I noticed an article condemning a company on account of its failure to turn out as escort to the G. A. R. and classing them as "graceless scamps." For the benefit of the eleven men who did report for duty and were ready and willing to go on parade, few as they were, let me say that our failure to show up all rests on one man, our commander, whom we are sworn to obey. As it was, we were marched down Second street long after the procession had left and were of course made the laughing stock of the town. Out of between fifty and sixty men eleven men is about all we can ever get out to a drill, and no interest whatever is taken in the company and never will be so long as we are officered by men who have no influence and cannot command the respect of their men, which the present incumbents are unable to do. M. I. TIAMAN.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Joseph Howard, one of Crook county's commissioners, arrived today from Portland and will return home in the morning.

Mr. W. K. Corson went to Portland on yesterday afternoon's passenger. He expects to take the Northern for Chicago.

Mrs. A. M. Williams and Misses Maie and Grace Williams, accompanied by Miss Tillie Hollister, leave tonight for the White City.

The family of W. H. Condgon arrived from Umatilla yesterday to permanently reside, which will be gratifying news to their many friends.

Mrs. A. M. Williams and daughters, Misses May and Grace, accompanied by Miss Matilda Hollister, left on the afternoon train for Portland where they will take the Northern Pacific for Chicago.

J. T. Mullen, who has been stenographer for Attorney Bennett for three years, leaves for Portland on the afternoon train to permanently reside. He will pursue his art among the Portland courts. Before going away he went to the Cello fishery for the afternoon, in company with Walter Kludt.

Mr. M. M. Waterman of 8-Mile called on the CHRONICLE today. He reports grain in excellent condition and that winter wheat on his ranch is heading and is standing first-class on the ground and promises a heavy yield per acre. His spring grain is doing well and is a good sight. The ground is not in need of rain, as it is wet enough at present. A good rain will be beneficial later on.

Meers, J. W. and Smith French returned from their trip to the Gilman & Co. ranchers in Morrow and Grant counties last night. They report the country as looking fine, grass everywhere of luxurious growth and grain in fine condition through the several sections in which they passed. They found the ground very wet near the foot of the Blue mountains and the farmers backward with their spring work. Warm weather was needed and marvelous growth would be the result.

MOSIER MUSINGS.

Sub. Could Do as Well as Evans if He Wasn't So Tired.

F. Zirka has purchased a team. Some fine teams are being caught in the streams about here now.

Geo. Davenport had the misfortune to have one of his fine horses, recently purchased of Mr. Mosier, break a fore leg while lariatied.

A. M. Creed has begun shipping berries from his place. He has six squaws picking for him and will increase the force as the berries increase.

The frost season has passed and no damage has been done to fruit. The fruit is already forming and a big yield of everything but peaches is booked for this place.

A big brown bear showed up in the "Missouri settlement" last week, but noticing the many improvements going on there, made tracks for the tall timber farther back.

An ice cream social at the residence of J. Mosier was largely patronized by our good people last Thursday evening. The proceeds were given for the benefit of the Sunday school in district Fifty-two.

It is not always the biggest bundles that give the most joy, as was evidenced at the home of Frank Wiedner on May 26th. An eight-pound boy registered there on that date and from indications has come to stay, a fact which Mr. and Mrs. Wiedner both seem to enjoy.

A large panther disputed the path with Night Watch Hugh Waters on one of the trestles below here last week, and Hugh commenced cawfishing. The wild animal suddenly made a weighty bound—far into the night. The night watch said the trestle was about eighty feet high where the animal went over, and remarked the panther was about nineteen feet long. Mr. Waters hair also "riz" about two feet.

The picnic on the ball grounds May 30th was quite a success socially, as was intended. The ball game between the Mosier X's and the Washington Roustabouts did not come off. The latter club probably realizing they would not be in it, failed to put in an appearance. A few old spavined, broken down players—among them your humble servant—agreed to play the boys, and after a closely contested game, limped off the diamond, wearing the laurels viz, a score of 11 to 15.

When we see a hard-laboring, successful business man, one who has made a record through the fruits of his efforts, we like to say "puf'er there, old boy; if we weren't so blamed tired all the time, we could do as well as you." Lee Evans, one of our most successful farmers, deserves special praise from the fact that he has as fine a young orchard as there is in the state of Oregon. Mr. Evans has only been here six years, and it is indeed astonishing to see the work he has accomplished in that short time. If any one feels disheartened with their ranch, better take a look at Mr. Evans' place and then go home and swing the mattock with renewed vigor.

"He that hath a horn to toot let the same by him be tooted." While [we do not relish this sort of a thing as a steady diet, still we do like to blow our own bugle once in a while. People here are complaining because the "Mosier Musings" are not more regular. Of course such talk as this makes us feel good all the way up and then back down again. Yet we cannot muse unless we have something to muse over. Good people, get to doing something; shoot your neighbor's hog, or poison his chickens. "We'll do the rest." S. W.

It is a well-deserved victory for them. The way they throw their entire stock before the public, they cannot help but sell lots of goods, as we saw with our own eyes goods going out at 50 per cent. less than they can be bought elsewhere. We have learned that there is no less than 20 cases on the way of assorted
