Fifth and Point Paragraphs by Our

Man's a fool:
When it's hot, he wants it cool,
When it's cool, he wants it hot,
Never satisfied with his lot.
Man's a fool.

Children's day at the churches tomorrow.

Hint to the farmer: Celery will pay better than frogs in that swamp of yours.

The rose of sturgeon is said to be much used in the manufacture for a local article of whisky.

An average of four cars per day of California fruit, principally oranges, are sent to Europe.

Where is Eastern Oregon to celebrate the Fourth? The Dalles has neither received nor extended any invitation as yet.

A Methodist camp meeting will be held at Summit Prairie, Wash., eleven miles from The Dalles, commencing next Thursday.

At the last meeting of the board of water commissioners Dr. Logan was elected a commissioner in place of Dr.
Hollister, resigned.

Kerr & Buckley of Sherman county shipped 5,000 head of sheep across the river at this point this morning. They will be driven into the mountains.

The finest strawberries that have yet reached the Oregon markets are the delicious ones raised at The Dalles. They were retailed last week at thirty-five cents.—Pacific Farmer.

Strawberries will probably not be as cheap this year as last on account of the demand for canning to take the place of cherries and peaches which will be a short crop.—Pacific Farmer.

There are anthracite coal fields in western Colorado of which investigations are being made by the Union Pacific company. If the deposit proves to be of sufficient magnitude the company will build extensions.

The appointment of Colonel John Lane is a victory for Fred Flood, who has been working industriously for the colonel for some time. While Murphy did not oppose Lane to any great extent, he did not do very much for him.

The steamer Regulator will convey the members and delegates and friends to the State Grange at White Salmon on Monday next. This is a fine opportunity for those who desire to visit that historic spot. The Grangers have made provision for the accommodation of all guests in a very generous and thoughtful manner.

In the case of Thomas A. Holden, Secretary Hoke Smith yesterday held that all lands within the limits of the grant to the Oregon Central Railroad Company were reduced to $1.25 per acre by the forfeiture act of January 31, 1886, and this could not except lands falling within the conflicting limits of the Oregon Central and Northern Pacific roads.

The children were treated yesterday afternoon to a phonograph concert. A horn attachment intensified the sound, so that the reproduction of the pieces could be heard in all parts of the hall.
These pieces comprise difficult band music, comic selections, late vocal songs by prominent singers, speeches, etc.
The Edison phonograph is a wonderful invention.

W. D. Richards, a thrifty farmer of Fairfield, near 8-Mile, brought in a roll of Jersey butter for our inspection which is certainly as excellent as it is possible for butter to be. An example of the benefit of handling blooded stock is to be found in the case of Mr. Richards, who from only five Jersey cows, sells 40 pounds weekly from them, including what milk and butter are used by his family. This butter commands the highest market price.

Royally Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Phillips entertained a number of friends royally last evening at their elegant residence on Eighth street. Part of the time was occupied in progressive whist, which was enjoyed very much by those present.
At the close of the score, the count revealed the fact that Mrs. L. C. Ainsworth was entitled to the first honor, and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, the second.
Judge Geo. C. Blakeley was successful in getting the first honor for gentlemen, and Mr. S. L. Brooks the second, a turtle on a half shell. Afterwards a delicate lunch of strawberries and cream with inland cake and lemonade were served. During the lunch a guest was requested to render the piece "The Broken Pitcher" and responded with a broken plate to the great amusement of the guests.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Judge and Mrs. Bennett, Judge and Mrs. G. C. Blakeley, Judge and Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. C.

The Inland Star broke loose from her about two miles down the river, caught in Hansen's fish net, where it was firmly held.

FOUND DEAD.

The Body of Wm. Murphy Discovered Near His Cabin.

L. Francesco Saturday morning found the dead body of Wm. M. Murphy, about a quarter of a mile from the latter's cabin. The body was lying by a log and, from appearances death had taken place nearly a week before. Justice Knox of Baldwin precinct held the inquest on the body Sunday, with the following jury: Dave Wishart, D. R.
Cooper, George Perkins, George Wishart, Thomas A. Connor and Frank Reis. The body was badly decomposed, and an examination disclosed a bruise three or four inches in diameter on the top of the head with the skin broken in several places. All around the body were horse tracks, and marks of a dragging rope. The evidence of Mr. Francesco was that several days before he had walked a short distance with deceased who was then going toward the place where the body was found, for the purpose of catching his horse. The jury found that his death was caused by the horse kicking him. Deceased had received some $600, recently, from the government in payment of Indian de-redation claim, and had deposited it in The Dalles National bank. His check book showed that it had all been paid, or loaned out to different parties. Murphy was a pioneer, and was, we understand, in the battle with the Indians at the Lower Cascades.—Hood River Glacier.

Card Party.

The first of a series of Columbian whist and luncheon parties, so we are informed, was given last evening by Mrs. E. C. Pease, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Wallace Bradford, of San Francisco.
After the guests had all put in an appearance score cards for whist were distributed and ten games played, resulting in Mr. W. H. Hobson being presented with the first prize—one of those beautiful baskets at Pease & Mays, inside of which was a very mysterious looking package with a card attached on which were words only adding to the mystery, "I never saw a prize." After much persuasion the package was opened and a lovely bologna sausage was brought to light. Mrs. J. M. Patterson received the bottle with the injunction to be a little sharper next time, but as they were told the bottle contained vinegar, they felt there was no danger of her taking to hard drink even if she did get the booby prize. The guests were then invited to the dining room, where the covers were laid for sixteen. The lunch, as well as the table decorations, were of an unusual order and indeed very unique. The center-piece was presented to the hostess and her sister by Dr. Doane, and was certainly a rare exotic, imported, so 'twas said, from Cork. There were several other bouquets that deserve special mention, but to do them justice one should be a first-class botanist.

At a late hour the guests departed, having spent a very jolly evening.
Those participating were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pease, Mrs. W. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cushing, Dr. and Mrs. O. D.
Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bayley, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs.
Hobson, Mrs. Geo. P. Morgan.

lowing were invited:

Mattie Cushing. The first gentleman's seph Stadelman.

The Roslyn Bank Robbery—Evidence From the District Where They Were Captured.

Fossil, Oregon, Dec. 2, 1892.
O. W. R. Mfg. Co., Portland, Oregon:
Dear Sir—Your Congo oil is the boss medicine. I was recently kicked by a horse on the leg, and was hobbling around on crutches. I was induced to try a bottle of Congo oil, and after applying freely for one day I threw away my crutches. It works like lightning.
Yours Truly, J. A. HARRISON, City Marshal, Fossil, Oregon.

It is a well-deserved victory for them.
The way they throw their entire stock before the public, they cannot help but sell lots of goods, as we saw with our own eyes goods going out at 50 per cent. less than they can be bought elsewhere.
We have learned that there is no less than 20 cases on the way of assorted
