Run on Chicago Banks.

CHICAGO, June 6 .- In spite of the fact that the Illinois Trust & Savings bank remained open until 3 o'clock this morning to give anxious depositors a chance to draw funds, a new line began to form before 8 o'clock this morning. and at 10, the hour of opening, between 1,200 and 1,500 people were waiting at the doors with their savings books. The crowd was several times larger than at any time yesterday. The bank is considered absolutely sound. The assets are figured up at over $28,000,000 and its stockholders are estimated to be worth fully $150,000,000. At the other savings banks the runs which began yesterday seem to have increased in
