CAUSE OF HARD TIMES.

In a country like the United States, where famine is never known and good crops are the rule; where no standing army, to speak of, is maintained at an immense cost to the taxpayers; where the per cent of crime is small; where resources are unparalleled and wages are uniformly good, it is a matter of surprise that such widespread hard times can exist. The causes are difficult to assign, being almost as varied as there are exponents to assign them. The republicans say the universal stringency is due to the anticipated lowering of the tariff, while the democrats as persistently claim that the tariff as it now exists, has brought the present troubles upon us; the labor leader assures us that the centralization of capital is alone responsible; the religious bigot that Jesus-its are a tremendously disturbing cause. No condition, fancied or real, escapes the reasoning of some men as being directly responsible for the present stringency. The silver lining to the dark cloud is found in the fact that its sudden appearance may be as quickly dispelled. If the Sherman act is unwise, as it now seems to be almost universally conceded, it will not take long to repeal it, as congress meets again in September. Our resources are so vast and varied that a few millions one way or the other cut no figure in a national sense. The next congress will certainly legislate in a manner to ease the existing condition of affairs. If they legislate at all they will do so. The uncertainty as to just what they will do is the most palpable cause of alarm, on the principle that it is the unknown which terrifies. It is not likely that the new congress will do anything nearly so sweeping as the democratic platform, taken literally, would require. Most men, even among the democrats, do not favor free trade to the extent as there stated. There will yet be ample protection on all commodities that need it.

Locally, the money market is easier than it was a month ago; collections are better and a general convalescent tone is noted. The lessons taught in the east will prove beneficial to our local merchants, and they will restrict the practice of giving credit upon insufficient security. They will stick closer to the cash system, while curtailing and hedging in all reasonable ways. The greatest cause for the congestion here lies in the fact that the wool is tied up on account of an indisposition to sell. At this season of the year a million and a half of dollars are usually disbursed.

The last number of the Goldendale Sentinel bears no comparison to its immediate predecessors. The adolescent youth who has been promoted to the less arduous duties of the composing room fired his parting shot at the directors of the paper upon which he was working in the last issue of May, and Hugh Gourlay, well known in Wasco county, as a man of education and discernment, and with an incisive writer, took charge of the tripod. The Sentinel has acquired at a single leap all it could gain in twenty years by the slow process of educating its youthful editor through the fiery ordeal of competitive comment.

While our neighboring state across the river is suffering financial reverses, and the closing of banks are a daily occurrence, no bank failure will be reported from Oregon. From dispatches it has been learned that Portland banks are thoroughly sound and can stand any draft, sudden or long-continued, and the same can be said of all banks throughout the state. Oregon today is better prepared with ready cash than any other state in the union.

MORO NEWS.

The Field, as Covered by Our Special Correspondent.

Mr. Edinburgh was buried at Wasco last Friday.

Mr. Munro Flora has rented the Farmers' Hotel.

Mr. Flora's brother-in-law, Mr. Slater of Lebanon, has moved to Moro.

The east wind has been blowing for three or four days, but the grain is looking fine.

Mr. E. D. Fowle, the wide awake life insurance agent from Seattle, is spending a few days in Moro.

Mr. Earnes Moore gave the band boys an oyster supper at his father's house Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Thompson's sister, who has been visiting with her for two or three weeks, started for her home in the east last Friday.

Mr. Frank Peddicord and family from Emigrant Springs, visited his brother W. J. Peddicord and attended camp meeting Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Davenport, our genial dentist, has purchased two lots in Moore's addition, opposite the Baptist church, and intends to build a neat dwelling house and find a nice housekeeper, we presume.

Camp meeting closed Sunday evening with a large attendance. There were no conversions that I heard of. Mrs. Golden of Goldendale was in attendance, also quite a number from different parts of the country.

Mr. Lonis Hulbert is quite sick and was moved last week to the residence of Mr. Smith, where he can be sure of good care and medical attendance. By the way, Dr. Smith is putting up a good barn, and to judge from the numerous calls (not professional) that he makes to a certain house on the hill, we think he will soon build a residence as well.

Mr. S. E. Lindsey of Salem is stopping in Moro for a few days. He is selling trees for the State Capitol Nursery. Mr. J. B. Mowry gave him an order for one thousand prune trees. Mr. Lindsey also invested in one of Mr. Mowry's large town lots just north of E. M. Leslie's. We like to see men from other parts of the state come to Moro to buy town property. It shows that they have confidence in its future growth and prosperity. There is room for more.

Every one is in excellent spirits over the late decision of Mr. Hoke Smith in regard to the military land. Messrs. Messenger, Mowry, and others have gone to The Dalles to attend to the filing on theirs. More anon. Don.

"Golden Medical Discovery" cures those diseases which comes from blood impurities—scrofula and skin diseases' sores and swellings.

But does it? It's put up by the thousands of gallons, and sold to hundreds of thousands. Can it cure as well as though it had been compounded just for you?

Its makers say that thousands of people who have had tetter and salt-rheum, eczema and erysipelas, carbuncles and sore eyes, thick neck and enlarged glands, are well today because they used it.

Suppose that this is so. Suppose that a quick-witted man was far-seeing enough to know that to cleanse the blood was to cleanse the life. Suppose that by many experiments, and after many failures, he discovered this golden key to health and that his faith in it for you is so strong that you can go to your druggist, buy a bottle, and if it doesn't help you, you can get your money returned—cheerfully. Will you try it?

The remedy to have faith in, is the remedy the makers themselves have faith in.

Married a Rich Widow.
 CHICAGO, June 6.—Mrs. Henry Field, widow of a wealthy capitalist of this city, was quietly married at noon today to Thomas Nelson Page, the well-known Southern writer, at the residence of Hon. T. B. Bryan, at Elmhurst. Their future residence is Washington.

While Mr. T. J. Richey of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. 1m

CHILDLESS HOME.

Smith and his wife have every luxury that money can buy, but there is one thing lacking to their happiness. Both are fond of children, but no little voices prattle, no little feet patter in their beautiful home. "I would give ten years of my life if I could have one healthy, living child of my own," Smith often says to himself. No woman can be the mother of healthy offspring unless she herself is in good health. If she suffers from female weakness, general debility, bearing-down pains and functional derangements, her physical condition is such that she cannot hope to have healthy children. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign and guaranteed remedy for all these ailments.

Worn-out, "run-down," feeble women, need Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It builds them up. It's a powerful, restorative tonic, or strength-giver—free from alcohol and injurious drugs. The entire system is renewed and invigorated. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, gives refreshing sleep, and restores flesh and strength. It's the only guaranteed medicine for women, sold by druggists.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 30 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and water-falls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.

See me on the ground, or address me at Hood River, Wasco County, Oregon.
