THURSDAY, - - - JUNE 8, 1893

As an illustration of the accuracy with which the new fast trains between Chicago and New York keep to the figures of time card, a writer in the Chicago Herald tells of the meeting of the two exposition trains on the Lake Shore railroad in the course of the first run: "At 11:55 o'clock Sunday night, when No. 10 had just flashed past Ripley Crossing exactly on time, Western Passenger Agent Wilber of the Lake Shore quietly remarked: 'Gentlemen, we pass No. 41 in exactly two minutes. Won't you step to the back platform and see it?' With every nerve strained, the members of the party huddled into the rear vestibule. 'We pass her in thirty seconds,' said Mr. Wilber, stop watch in hand. The confidence of the man was sublime. He had received no word from No. 41, not even that it had started from New York. 'In twenty seconds,' said Mr. Wilber, as calmly as if merely in Ohio and Pennsylvania, and some reading his watch-dial. Not a man in the party doubted the statement. 'In ten seconds,' spoke the prophetic voice, and that tingling, hair-lifting sensation which the patriot feels when listening to martial music electrified the group. *Five seconds-four-three-two-oneshe's due.' Whirr, crash, three times three and a tiger. Both trains exactly on time. It was the apotheosis of railroading. Astronomical exactness applied to a time card. 'Good night, gentlemen; I am going to bed,' said Mr. Wilber."

MARKET REPORT.

THURSDAY, June 8 .- The tone of business for the past week has been quiet. Operations in most departments of the merchandise market has been more of a hand to mouth character than for some time. Prices have been maintained throughout all lines. Money has been firm, although is easier in tone than reported a week ago. Collections were more satisfactory and deposits larger. Business, while somewhat quiet, is conducted on a more satisfactory basis. The credit system has been, to a large degree, curtailed, and consequently a healthier condition prevails in all circles. The produce market is quite steady. Strawberries are coming in mand for home use.

The wool market is full stocked with fine grades of wool and is lifeless. Buyers and sellers are apart on prices, offerings range from .09 to .13 cents. Some few sellers are disposing. Eastern markets are still weak. The Boston Advertiser, of the 2nd, says: "Fine fleeces are duil and almost entirely nominal. Some old lots might be picked up at quotations, but no one believes that new wools will command any such figures as are now quoted. Shearing is going on idea of what the new wools are worth will be known soon. Medium clothing and combing wools are dull and nominal in price. Delaine fleeces appear to be closely sold out and quotations are nominal. Unwashed and unmerchantable fleeces are dull, and sales ruling are mostly at inside quotations. For 1/4 and 38 blood fleeces the demand is quiet, with spot lots moving in a slow way at about 22@23c for choice parcels. Sales to arrive of Southern graded wools are noted below these figures, offers as low as 20@21c for Missouri wools laid down here being made, with buyers still holdarrive in these wools, but buyers are M.A.GUNST&CO.

steady. Strawberries are coming in freely, and with a good demand for export, prices range from 10 to 12 cents per box crated. Gooseberries are in fair supply at 25 cents per gallon. New potatoes and green peas are in fair supply. Other garden vegetables are plentiful and prices are nominal.

There is no change in the egg and butter market, other than a tone of light daily receipts.

The condition of the cereal market on the coast is without change. Eastern and foreign markets are more or less unsatisfactory; reports from the grain districts of Europe and Asia indicate fair crops and a prospect of the usual average for export.

Our home market is quiet. Some Klickitat Valley wheat is coming to the Diamond Mills and .52 to .55 per bushel is paid. Oats and barley are fine at former quotations and have a fair demand for home use.

HE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, sightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparallelee as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufactories will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
