"The Regulator Line" HURLED TO ETERNITY
Terrible Disaster This Morning in Washington City.
FORD'S OLD THEATER COLLAPSED
Was Filled With Department Clerks at the Time—Large Number of Lives Lost.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—9:15—Ford's opera house on Tenth street, in which President Lincoln was assassinated, has just fallen in. About 400 government clerks were in the building at the time, and a great loss of life is feared.
The first floor collapsed through weakness caused by excavating the cellar, and in its fall carried down three floors, and with them the hundreds of clerks. The dead and wounded are being taken out rapidly by the firemen and police. All the ambulances in the city have been summoned, and the rescued are being conveyed to the hospitals. It is feared 100 people have been killed. The scenes are terrible. Some jumped from the third floor. The walls are still standing, but every floor is down and every window is blown out. The building has been condemned as unsafe for some time, but sentiment kept it unchanged. The floors were heavily loaded with records of the record and pension divisions of the war department. The clerks employed there were all men. Corrected accounts as to the cause of the accident are now partially obtainable. The excavations which were the immediate cause of the collapse were being made at the instance of the war department for the purpose of putting in an electric light plant. As already stated, the insecurity of the building has been repeatedly reported for a long time past. Whenever a heavily loaded wagon has gone by the building seemed to sway backward and forward, as clerks describe the sensation. When the first rumbling warning of the collapse came, the clerks on the third floor, to the number of 80 or 100, rushed to the windows and jumped for the roofs of the small buildings adjoining on the northwest side. Many escaped in this way.
One of the workmen, a colored man, who was employed in excavating the cellar, and who escaped with only slight cuts, said: "I told them yesterday that the archway would fall, for every time any one walked over the floor it would bend. I tell you I was scared, and got out just as quickly as I could. There were 20 men at work with me, and I don't know what became of them."

FINANCIAL TROUBLES.
Vice-President Stevenson's Opinion on the Subject.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 8.—Vice-President Stevenson, who was in this city on business, said yesterday in answer to a question as to what he thought of the financial aspect of recent numerous bank failures throughout the country: "I do not think there is any occasion whatever for alarm in legitimate business circles over these assignments. A great majority of these defunct institutions were not on a firm foundation, and, of course, went down when the storm came. I believe the standard banks of the country are as safe as they ever were, and that is as safe as they can be. These suspensions will have no permanent effect on the finances of the country or its business men. After this strain is over the nation will be in a much better condition, for the weak concerns will have been weeded out."

Mrs. Frank Leslie's Divorce.
NEWBURG, N. Y., June 9.—It is likely that Mrs. Frank Leslie will soon be legally free from her husband, Willie Wilde. She gave her testimony before Referee Grant E. Taylor in New York May 26. The charges made of acts in this country are chiefly of drunkenness and utter worthlessness. Mrs. Leslie charged that Willie had violated his marriage vows in London, the woman in the case being Teresa La Bruche, better known in London as Mme. Carmen and testified that Willie had been intimate with her. This is the evidence that will give to Mrs. Leslie her divorce. Referee Taylor recommends that she be granted an absolute divorce from her husband.
Mrs. Wilde is of French descent, and married at an early age in New Orleans. At the death of her husband she took up Mr. Leslie's work and not only paid his debts, but made her own fortune besides.

Dr. McGlynn Goes to Rome.
NEW YORK, June 9.—Dr. McGlynn will probably be in Rome Saturday or Sunday. He goes to the Eternal city in obedience to the order of the papal legate, Monsignore Satolli, who reinstated him in his priestly office. Mr. Stephens said; "Dr. McGlynn goes to Rome. He simply obeys the order of the pope's representative. He will come back, we firmly believe, fully and absolutely vindicated in his course, so far as the land question and politics are concerned. The known leaning of Leo XIII to democracy, strengthened by the attitude his holiness has assumed toward William II of Germany, makes us confident in that respect."

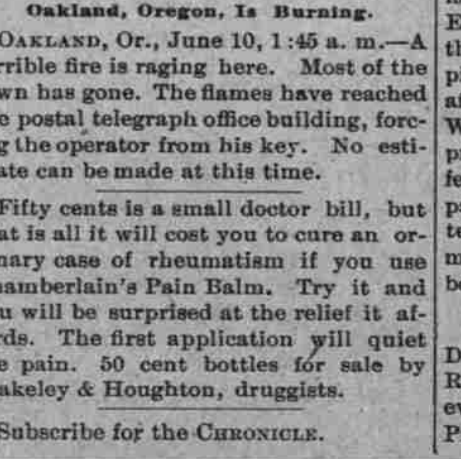

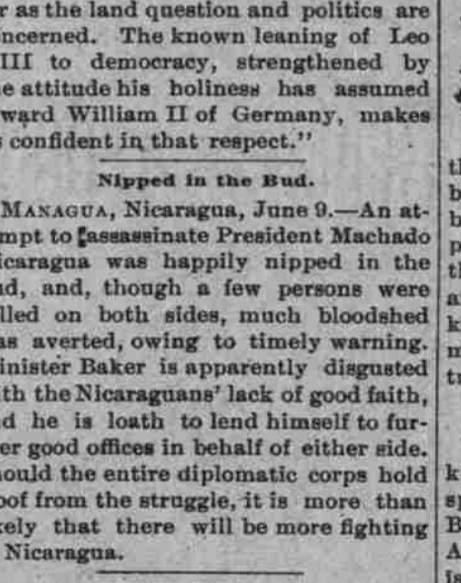

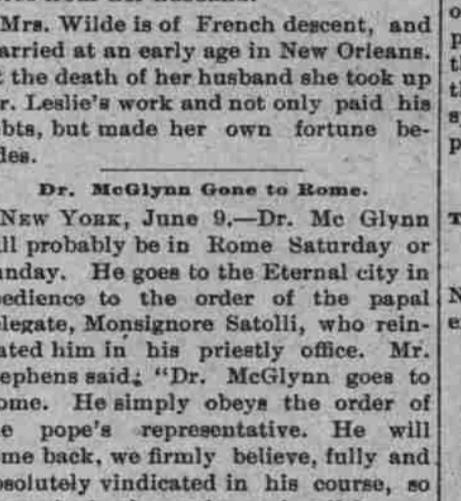

Nipped in the Bud.
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, June 9.—An attempt to assassinate President Machado Nicaragua was happily nipped in the bud, and, though a few persons were killed on both sides, much bloodshed was averted, owing to timely warning. Minister Baker is apparently disgusted with the Nicaraguans' lack of good faith, and he is loath to lend himself to further good offices in behalf of either side. Should the entire diplomatic corps hold aloof from the struggle, it is more than likely that there will be more fighting in Nicaragua.

Oakland, Oregon, Is Burning.
OAKLAND, Or., June 10, 1:45 a. m.—A terrible fire is raging here. Most of the town has gone. The flames have reached the postal telegraph office building, forcing the operator from his key. No estimate can be made at this time.
Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure an ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it and you will be surprised at the relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Another Challenge From Roberts.
LONDON, June 9.—Roberts, the British billiard champion, has challenged Ives, the American, to another contest of 6000 or 12,000 points with the same table and the conditions as before, except that in case where the balls are jammed, they shall be spotted and the player continue to play from the balk line.

COURT IN GRANT.
The Grant County Murderer Will Hang—Other Court News.
W. F. Gallin, jointly indicted with Lina Shaw for the murder of A. W. Shaw, her husband, has been tried and convicted of murder in the first degree at the Grant county term of circuit court before Judge James A. Fee. In speaking of the trial the Baker City Democrat says: "The prisoner is a large, well-built, muscular man, of powerful physique, but a glance is sufficient to satisfy one of his brutal nature and [animal] instincts. Throughout the entire trial, as damning evidence of his guilt was adduced by the state, he sat with apparent, stoic indifference as to the result, and seemed to be satisfied if he could only save his neck from the halter. But his nerve deserted him when Judge Fee sentenced him to expiate his crime on the gallows on Friday, the 14th day of July. He broke down completely. While in the court room he kept his face buried in his hands and handkerchief, sobbing like a child, and between his sobs his heavy breathing and inhalation of gasps for breath could be distinctly heard over the entire court room.
The trial of Lina Shaw, the accomplice and paramour of Gallin, was taken up on Friday. The evidence directly charging her with being an accomplice in the crime was that of Gallin, but as there was no other corroborating evidence the jury, after a brief deliberation, brought in a verdict of not guilty. It is the general belief, however, that the woman is just as guilty as the man.
ELLENSBURGH BANK CLOSED.
Suspended Through a Run on the Roslyn Branch.
ELLENSBURGH, Wash., June 9.—A notice was posted on the doors of the banking house of Benjamin A. Snipes & Co. this morning that the bank had temporarily suspended owing to a heavy withdrawal of deposits and the inability to realize on securities amply sufficient to pay $5 for $1 of indebtedness. A run on the branch bank at Roslyn yesterday precipitated the closing of the parent in this city. There is no excitement over the suspension, and the bank has the sympathy and confidence of the entire public.
NICARAGUA'S EX-PRESIDENT.
The Fallen Chief Talks About His Country.
NEW YORK, June 9.—The World's Nicaraguan correspondent interviewed ex-President Sacasa at Leon. The fallen chief, after reasserting that he had not been deposed, but had withdrawn for the good of his country, and expressing the belief that the new government would carry out all of its pledges, said: "It is my opinion that the canal will eventually be built, and by Americans. The canal, when it is built, will make Nicaragua the most prosperous Latin-American country on this continent." Sacasa refused to say anything about a protectorate of any kind, though he admitted that a change must take place in the status of all Central America.
