Recognized a Murderer's Voice After Twenty-Four Years.

KILLED A FRIEND IN A QUARREL

And Fled the Country--- Upon His Return the Old Lady Heard His Voice.

MOBILE, Als., June 14.-Twenty-four years ago George Morris was shot and killed at Wholerville, this county, by his friend, Robert Hudson. The slaver fled the country, but ventured to return last month. He was known to no one, having greatly changed; but his voice was recognized by an aged blind woman, Amelia Chatham, and the sons of the man swore out a warrant for him. Today Hudson was indicted by the grand jury. The sheriff has gone to Scranton, Miss., where Hudson now is, and will bring him to Mobile. EXECUTIVE OFFICE. Springfield, Ill., June 13, 1893.

To ALL OFFICERS OF THE LAW: Being reliably advised that a longdistance horse race, from Chadron, Neb., to Chicago, Ill., a distance of over 700 miles, is about to take place, and that a similar race in Europe a year ago for only half this distance resulted in the death of the horses used, and was productive of such barbaric cruelty to animals as to shock humanity, and having reason to believe that this proposed race will be accompanied by equal or even greater cruelty and barbarity, which will be in violation of the laws of this state for the prevention of cruelty to animals. I hereby call upon all officers upon whom devolves the execution of law, as well as upon all good citizens, to see to it that no violation of the law takes place, and that any one guilty of it shall be promptly brought to justice. We will welcome the so-called cowboys their glory and have a thoroughly enjoyable time with us, but we cannot per-JOHN P. ALTGELD.

Mr. Fishback was born in Jeffersonton, Culpepper county, Va., sixty-one years ago, and was educated at the University of Virginia and then read law at Richmond, Va. In 1858 he went to Fort Smith, Arkansas, and in 1861 was elected, as a union man, to the convention which seceded. Three years later he was elected to the United States senate, but owing to the confused condition of public affairs at that time was not seated, but has been a member of several subsequent legislatures. Despite the fact that he made no effort to secure the nomination for governor previous to the convention, and that his opponents canvassed the state, urging his record against him, of the 628 votes he received all but 88.

MARKET REPORT.

THURSDAY, June 15th .- The week of trade just passed has revealed nothing of interest, other than the general tone has been of a more satisfactory character. The volume of business has been greater than that of former weeks of the the season. Money seems to be easier, and it is more noticeable in transactions of all kinds. The markets have undergone no material change that is of importance. There has been a slight advance of 1/4 cent on coffee, but other staples remain steady on quotations. Produce and provisions are in good supply, with a good demand for home consumption and export.

The egg market is noted for larger receipts, with a downward tendency. Butter continues to arrive, and prices remain unchanged from former quotations.

New potatoes are taking the place of old and are on the market at 5 cents per Massachusetts Democratic State Com- lb. Green peas are abundant, and 6
