THE WORK OF FIENDS

A Fast Fruit Train Derailed by Wreckers.

CROSSTIES SPIKED TO THE TRACK

Evans Is a Much-Wanted Man—Sontag Has an Internal Hemorrhage and May Die.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 15.—A fast fruit train on the Memphis, Kansas City & Birmingham railway was derailed by trainwreckers four miles from Carbon Hill, Ala., today, killing Engineer Simons and seriously injuring a fireman and two brakemen.

The fiends placed cross-ties on the track and spiked them down, and when the locomotive struck them the whole train went into the ditch. Bloodhounds have been placed on the trail of the wreckers.

All Are After Evans.

VISALIA, June 15.—Sontag has an internal hemorrhage. Physicians examined him this morning with the object of tapping him for a discharge of blood, but decided he was too weak for an operation.

When Evans was arrested a warrant was served on him by a Tulare sheriff for the murder of Oscar Beaver. Afterward Sheriff Scott served three warrants on him. Sheriff May, of Tulare, claims the prisoner, and will try to hold him. Deputy Sheriff Rapelje, of Fresno, is here, it is supposed after Evans, but can get him only after a contest.

Evans is improving since his arm was amputated yesterday. No change in Sontag's condition. About tomorrow will be his critical turn.

A PORTAGE RAILWAY.

The Boat Railway Project Given a Black Eye.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The board, consisting of engineers of the army and three engineers from civil life, appointed to examine and report upon the feasibility of a boat-railway or some other method of improved navigation at The Dalles, has submitted its report to the war department. Up to the present time the department has refused to make it public, because the report was ordered by congress, and it is claimed, must be made public in congress.

Enough is learned about it, however, to know that the boat railway proposition has received a black eye, also the canal, which, it is claimed, would cost too much money. The only scheme recommended by the board is said to be a portage railroad.

THE THEATER HORROR.

A New Inquest Begun by the Coroner Today.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—In accordance with the decision of Chief Justice Bingham yesterday, Dr. Patterson, coroner of the district, began a new inquest this morning over the remains of the victims of Friday's disaster.

There was a smaller attendance than the previous day at Willard's hall, where the inquest was held, because most of Colonel Ainsworth's uninjured subordinates were at their desks in the new quarters secured for them. Interest in the session of this morning centered in the belief that Colonel Ainsworth would be present to insist that he had a right to appear, but the crowd was disappointed. R. Ross Perry, Colonel Ainsworth's attorney, whose attempt to address the deputy coroner during the session on Monday precipitated the outbreak against his client, was in the hall a few minutes before the inquest began, but he withdrew before Coroner Patterson rapped the jury to order. Lieutenant Amis and a squad of policemen were present to preserve order. Mr. Thomas, attorney for the District of Columbia, sat to the left of the coroner to assist him in the examination of witnesses. As decided yesterday by Dr. Patterson, the old jury were summoned for the new inquest, and this morning the coroner and the six jurymen—Messrs. Warner, Harvey, Sibley, Schneider, Kellogg and Ayre—went to Glenwood cemetery and viewed the body of Frederick P. Loftis, one of the victims, whose body lies in the receiving vault there. The proceedings were devoid of sensational character, the evidence being directed exclusively to the causes of the building's collapse.

Colonel Ainsworth addressed a letter to Coroner Patterson today, complaining that the jury were prejudiced against him by the testimony of disaffected clerks and the riotous proceedings of the previous illegal inquiry, and urging his right to be present by counsel and to cross-examine witnesses. Coroner Patterson refused the request. Expert testimony as to the building was taken up to the recess at 1:20.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

man's years and won golden opinions on all hands. He spoke in a tearless tone of the evils of immigration and the danger threatening the republic thereby, citing in support of the claim the historic fact of the overthrow of the Roman empire by the invasion of the Gauls.

The dangerously rich and the dangerously poor was another fruitful theme under the magnetism of his language, from which he prophesied probable disaster. The fertility of invention, by means of which an infernal machine of small compass is capable of widespread injury, received attention, and our modern conveniences, like the gas mains of Chicago, may become an easy agent for wholesale destruction of life and property.

Miss Anna F. Taylor next read an essay upon "A Lesson from History." It was peculiarly appropriate to the Columbian year, speaking of Isabella as a generous patron to the arts and sciences, and showing what the world owed Isabella of Castile. Miss Taylor has a well-modulated voice of surpassing purity, which is also indoctrinated into her style of composition, being a modest recital in simple though concise language of the points of her text.

Miss Florence Lark then sang "My Love and I." The lady was in excellent voice and pleased the audience very much.

"It Might Have Been" was the title of an essay by Laura E. Thompson. The basis of the paper was "Maud Muller," and the writer happily interweaved the sentiment of the poem with matters appertaining to everyday life, moralizing upon events great and small, leading the audience by easy stages to a frame of mind that induces the formation of good resolutions.

An oration by Wm. C. Fredden, "Growth and Prospects of Our Country" was the next number, and for fifteen minutes the young gentleman held the undivided attention of the audience. His oration was in a more hopeful strain than that of his predecessor, and like Mr. Gates, showed a deep research into the present political aspect of the United States.

The piano solo by Miss Aimee Newman was a brilliant selection, rendered with that delicacy of touch of which the young lady is capable.

Miss Maybel Mack's essay, "After Graduation, What?" was a well-written paper, of a practical nature, dealing in the avenues of occupation open to young ladies after graduation. She pointed out as such means the medical profession as one for which she is fitted by nature and temperament. The law, literature and a multitude of other pursuits were adapted to women. The paper was a thoughtful one, and being different from the usual topic undertaken on such occasions, was well received.

Miss Evelyn Newman read an essay on "True Nobility." Beginning with the familiar quotation "How're it be, it seems to me 'tis only noble to be good; kind hearts are more than coronets and simple faith than Norman blood," she spoke of the noble characters of history. Her allusion to Lincoln brought forth the first applause, which was an interruption of the evening. Speaking in glowing terms of Gladstone, she said that although one of the grandest statesmen of our day, so little stress is placed upon titles in America that he is known to us by no appellation save Honorable. Speaking of philanthropists, and coming down to recent personages, she mentioned Geo. W. Childs, Carnegie, Leland Stanford and others, also men and women of her intimate acquaintance.

The presentation of diplomas was undertaken by Rev. O. D. Taylor, which was the most impressive scene of the evening, for here culminated the fruition of years of tireless effort and the severance of those ties which are strongest, because woven in youth. Dr. Taylor, before presentation of diplomas, gave a talk calculated to impress upon the audience the great work undertaken by Wasco Independent Academy, stating that it was the hope of the directors to make of this city a city which shall be known for its educational advantages.

A sonata for violin and piano by Prof. Birgfeld and Miss Newman concluded the evening's entertainment, after which the audience dispersed, and the class of '93 were released from the joys and sorrows of their years of school life.

The Marines did not Land.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, June 15.—United States Minister Baker and Senor Castillo, the Nicaraguan minister of war, in an interview today, deny the report that marines have been landed from the cruiser Atlanta at Greytown to protect citizens and interests. It is said there is no foundation for the story. News has been received that the disturbance was caused by a drunken mob in Leon, but was subdued by the police and the leaders arrested. It was a local affair. Everything is quiet there now, but the local authorities are accused of being disloyal to the new government. The government is returning to the owners the property confiscated by Sacasa.

After the Starr Gang.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., June 15.—Henry Starr, the notorious trainrobber and bankwrecker, is surrounded by deputy marshals and a sheriff's posse, at a point 20 miles from Nowata, the bandit's home. Unless the posse weakens, Starr will be taken either dead or alive. Some of the pursuers are Cherokee Indians, and if necessary they will meet Starr in the open field with Winchester. A reward of $15,000 is the incentive of the great activity of the officers. Starr has six men, while the posse numbers 20.

The Peary Exploring Expedition.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 15.—The steamer Falcon leaves here today for Philadelphia, where she will take on board the supplies for the Peary exploring expedition. The expedition will consist of sixteen persons, including Mrs. Peary, who again intends to face the Arctic regions. Twelve persons will remain in Greenland and the others will return.

Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure an ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.
