A GREAT EXCITEMENT IN PARIS

De Lesseps and the Other Defendants Set Free.

PARIS, June 15.—Considerable excitement has been caused by the decision of the court of cassation on the appeal of Charles de Lesseps and the other defendants, convicted of fraud in connection with the Panama canal. The court handed down a decision today quashing the sentences on the ground that the statute of limitation covered the offenses charged, and that the indictments on which the prisoners were tried were irregular. In consequence of the decision, M. Eiffel was at once liberated from prison. Charles de Lesseps, who is now in the St. Louis hospital suffering from acute dyspepsia, was informed he was free, but he was too ill to leave the hospital. Following were those convicted: Ferdinand de Lesseps, his son Charles, Marius Fontane, Henry Cottu and Gustav Eiffel. Ferdinand de Lesseps was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and to pay a fine.

Shiloh's cure, the Great Cough and Croup Cure, is for sale by Snipes & Kinersly. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

I will furnish ice to any and all patrons at 25 cents per 100 pounds. Leave orders at C. F. Lauer's, or on the wagon. C. E. ALLISON.

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, Oregon,
The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.
It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.
The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.
The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

ITS WEALTH.
It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon. Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these
