LIZZIE BORDEN FREE

The Jury Bring in a Verdict of Acquittal.

OUT ONE HOUR, TWENTY MINUTES

The Defendant Declined to Speak to the Jury, Only Saying She Was Innocent.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 20.—At the opening of the Borden trial this morning District Attorney Knowlton resumed his argument in behalf of the commonwealth.

He addressed himself to the motive for the murder. He pointed out the enmity of Lizzie toward her stepmother as a sufficient motive for her murder.

The speaker continued, arguing that the silk dress produced by the defendant was not the dress worn at the time of the murder.

The two versions of the burning of defendant's dress were irreconcilable. He discussed defendant's conduct since the murder.

He declared the story of the quarrel, told by Matron Rogan and afterward denied by her, about a quarrel between the Borden sisters was true.

He said the production of the hatchet was no part of the government's case. He closed with an eloquent appeal to the jury.

The court then took a recess. On reassembling the defendant was given an opportunity to speak.

She said: "I am innocent, but I will leave my case in your hands and with my counsel."

Justice Dewey then charged the jury. He defined the different degrees of murder, and stated the presumption of innocence was increased by defendant's character.

The judge further charged the jury to weigh the evidence to see whether the defendant's permanent state of mind showed a motive for the crime.

Every material allegation in the indictment must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt; that is, to a moral certainty.

He compared the direct and circumstantial evidence. He said the failure to prove an essential fact would be fatal.

He said they must be satisfied they were false. Every fact proved must be reasonably consistent with guilt.

The government did not show that anybody else had an opportunity to commit the crime, but must prove the defendant committed it.

The jury must reason as to the effect of the defendant's conduct and statements. They were not to conclude by expert testimony, but were to apply to it a reasonable judgment.

The jury was out an hour and twenty minutes.

BANK FAILURE AT ELLENSBURG.

A Statement Made Showing that the Resources Exceed the Liabilities.

The depositors of the bank of Ben E. Snipes & Co. held a meeting recently and through Attorney H. J. Sneyley a statement was submitted, showing the resources to be $278,191, and the liabilities $210,784.

The excess of resources above liabilities is $67,410. In addition, a detailed statement was presented, in which Ben Snipes' individual standing is fully set forth.

This showed that he owns improved realty of the value of $500,000, $383,000 worth of which is unencumbered.

Snipes expressed the desire and intention to reorganize and resume. He asked the creditors to appoint a committee to investigate the books and securities of the bank, and to put a man in.

If no obstructions were offered, he hoped the resumption to take place inside of 30 days.

Every creditor will be paid in full, with interest from the date of closing.

meeting adjourned. Before adjourning, however, several prominent business men announced that they would accept checks on this bank at face value.

The committee also decided not to entertain the blanket deed proposition, but to stand by Snipes and see him on his feet without security.

After Kid, the Apache.

PHOENIX, A. T., June 20.—Governor Hughes today received a letter from R. C. Bramlett, a Colorado deputy marshal, offering to bring a pack of trained bloodhounds to hunt Kid, the renegade Apache.

Bramlett has a large number of bloodhounds trained to hunt fugitives, and within the past five years has captured 26 men in this way in Colorado and New Mexico.

He is confident he can capture the renegade, but asks in the event of failure a guarantee of expenses.

The governor answered that, while he was anxious that Bramlett shall make the attempt, he himself is unable to make such a guarantee, but thinks the $5,000 reward offered for the Kid's capture ought to be sufficient inducement.

The Cowboy Race.

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 20.—Gillespie and Rattlesnake Pete, of the cowboy racers, spent the night here.

They started at 6 a. m. Gillespie's horse is in fine trim; Pete's buckskin looks rather groggy.

Doc Middleton arrived last night and is still in town. It is said the owners of his horse refused to allow him to go farther.

Albright, Smith and Berry crossed the river this morning and left at 10, after shoeing their horses.

The Home-Rule Bill.

LONDON, June 20.—The Pall Mall Gazette, the organ of the conservative party, says the government will abandon the financial clause of the home-rule bill, and substitute one empowering the Irish legislature to frame its own budget to the amount of £5,000,000, subject to ratification by the imperial parliament.

A HUGE CONSPIRACY.

Opium and Chinese Brought in By Wholesale.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The official heads of Patrick H. Winston, United States attorney; Thomas R. Brown, United States marshal; Andrew Watson, United States collector of Port Townsend; C. J. Mulkey, United States special agent, and six special inspectors of customs in the Puget Sound district, all in the state of Washington, have fallen into the official hopper, as the result of reports made to Secretary Carlisle by Special Agents Wood and Lewis.

These reports are numerous and circumstantial as to detail, and tell the story of one of the most extensive and successful conspiracies ever formed to smuggle Chinese and opium into the United States across the far northwest boundary.

There has been hardly a day for the past two months that reports or telegrams have not been received at the department from Agents Wood and Lewis, and on these reports the officials of the treasury department have been summarily dismissed.

The last batch of dismissals of customs inspectors was made on Saturday, but Secretary Carlisle thinks the end of justice may be defeated by making public their names.

These officials, it is charged by the reports received, have been doing a wholesale business for several years in connection with private parties in Victoria, B. C., in smuggling in Chinese by means of fraudulent certificates and in permitting opium smuggling, either by connivance or otherwise.

The new men appointed in place of those removed were James M. Saunders, collector at Port Townsend; James C. Drake, United States marshal; W. H. Brinker, United States attorney. Other removals are yet to come in the due course of time and the matter will wind up in the courts.

DIED IN HIS SLEEP.

Senator Stanford Peacefully Passes Away This Morning.

MENLO PARK, Cal., June 21.—Senator Stanford died at 1:20 o'clock this morning. He passed away peacefully in his sleep at his residence at Palo Alto.

It has been evident for some time that the senator's demise was a question of but a short time. His symptoms were apoplectic and his weight was increasing alarmingly.

There was a stiffness about his limbs that made locomotion an exceedingly difficult task. His body was fast becoming too heavy for his limbs to support.

He could take only the slightest exercise. Six months ago the senator sent for Dr. Curtis, of San Francisco. The doctor prescribed heroic treatment, but the senator was not ready to undergo drastic methods for the reduction of flesh and restoration of waning strength.

His apoplectic symptoms increased and his situation became such as to create serious alarm. About six weeks ago it was found necessary to impose a severely plain diet upon him, and since that time his sole food has consisted of fried hashed meat with hot water as the only liquid accompaniment.

He rigidly adhered to the severe requirements of the physician, and it seemed for a time that the results were most beneficial and might possibly effect a permanent cure.

The senator expressed himself as much encouraged and looked forward hopefully to the time when he could devote himself with renewed energy to public affairs and to the completion of certain educational and other benevolent enterprises that were very near to his heart; but his strength was not sufficiently great to respond to demands upon it.

Its fundamental weakness suddenly manifested itself and he passed quietly away. He retired soon after 10 o'clock, and at 1:20 his valet, going into the senator's bedroom, discovered that he was dead.

A Royal Visitor.

George, duke of York, is contemplating a visit to the United States. He is the second son of the Prince of Wales, born in 1865 and is now 28 years of age.

He has been educated for the sea, he and his elder brother, the Duke of Clarence, entering the navy as cadets in 1877.

They spent two years on the training ship Britannia and then started for a three years' tour of the world on the Bacchante. In May, 1883, Prince George was made midshipman to the Canada, then stationed on the North American coast, and two years later was made Lieutenant.

In 1891 he was made commander of the gunboat Thrush, on the West Indian coast. He took his seat in the House of Lords, June 28, 1892. He will be escorted by a squadron of battle ships, and will probably visit the world's fair. His rumored engagement to Princess May, his dead brother's betrothed, has lately been a topic of general interest.

Still Another Cut.

CHICAGO, June 20.—The Great Northern put the knife into the transcontinental rates again today by announcing a rate of $51 first class and $33 second class from St. Paul to San Francisco.

This will drag the Union Pacific into the fight, unless that road is prepared to sacrifice its Portland business. The Atchison today announced it would put into effect at once a round-trip rate of one and one-third fare from Texas points to Chicago and return.
