EULALIA ON A TEAR.

Was not the Princess, but a Circus Elephant.
CHICAGO, June 24.—Eulalia, an elephant belonging to the Harris circus combination, created a panic in the streets of Englewood yesterday. The circus started to move in the morning. The regular trainer was not about and James O'Rourke, a canvas man, got on the beast's back. He was too free with his gaff and Eulalia parted company with him, shaking him off, and before he could escape the animal stepped on him, crushing two ribs. The elephant then trotted down the street. O'Rourke was sent to the county hospital, while the manager and a crowd of spectators started after the elephant. Then began the chase through Englewood, up one street and down another. When a good portion of the suburb had been traversed and trampled upon, Eulalia was brought up with a round turn and submitted to the dictation of her captors.

The Victoria Wreck.

LONDON, June 24.—It is not believed the full story can be obtained until the arrival at Malta of the Camperdown or some other vessel conveying the survivors from Victoria. Crowds of people remained all night before the admiralty office in the hopes of getting definite information in regard to the fate of relatives on board the ill-fated battle-ship Victoria. At 6 o'clock this morning the list of the saved was received, and the latter was posted on the bulletin boards in front of the office. When the list was read to the crowd, many touching scenes resulted. Some, overwhelmed by the strain of anxiety, fainted with joy when the name of a loved one was mentioned among the saved; others were overcome with grief when the list was completed and the missing one's name was not mentioned, and swooned and fell to the ground.
It is stated this morning that no attempt will be made to recover the bodies of those who went down in the Victoria. The vessel lies in 460 feet of water, and it would be almost an impossible task to recover them. It is probable that in the course of a few days a number of the bodies will float out from the hull, and these will be watched for and given burial on land.

Choynski and Fitzsimmons.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Articles for a contest between Bob Fitzsimmons and Joe Choynski, for a purse of $15,000, have been signed by the latter's manager, and it only remains for Fitzsimmons' consent to consummate the match. Judge Newton, of the Coney Island Club, secured Choynski's name to articles of agreement today, after a warm argument with "Parson" Davies, Joe's manager, about the size of the purse. In speaking of the proposed battle, "Parson" Davies said today that if the purse did not suit Fitzsimmons, he will agree to wager $5,000 on the outside that Choynski will defeat him.

United Workmen Elect Officers.

TORONTO, June 24.—The supreme lodge of the Ancient Order United Workmen selected San Francisco as the place to hold the next convention. The following officers were elected:
Supreme master workman, Dr. D. F. Shields, Hannibal, Mo.; supreme foreman, Lewis Troy, Chicago; supreme recorder, M. W. Sackett, Meadville, Pa.; supreme receiver, J. J. Acker, Albany, N. Y.; supreme overseer, Joseph Riggs, Kansas; supreme guide, John Milne, Essex, Ontario; supreme watchman, B. J. Geimer, Detroit; supreme medical examiner, William C. Richardson, St. Louis.

Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Davis Meet.

WEST POINT, June 24.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis arrived here this afternoon, and was taken to Cranston's hotel, where she was assigned to rooms nearly opposite those occupied by Mrs. U. S. Grant. Immediately upon learning of Mrs. Davis' presence in the hotel, Mrs. Grant left her room and stepping out into the hall, met Mrs. Davis as the latter was leaving the elevator. Mrs. Grant grasped her hand and said with much feeling: "I am very glad to see you." The two ladies then went into Mrs. Davis' apartments and had a long talk.

The Passenger Rate War.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—The transcontinental rate war, begun by the Great Northern a week ago, promises to be the bitterest in the history of railroads in the West. It is learned from General Passenger Agent Korr that the extension is finished. The connection with the Canadian Pacific will be made at Estevan, 14 miles north of the Canadian line. Upon the completion, the Canadian Pacific train will run to St. Paul, and thence to the main line at Sault Ste. Marie. It is rumored again tonight that the Great Northern will make a rate of $20 from St. Paul to the Northwest.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

The coast defense ship Monterey is on her way to Seattle.
The lesson taught by the Ford's theater collapse is that the government should own its own buildings. Annual rentals are now paid of $182,000.

The San Bernardino bank, the First National of San Diego, and the Washington National of Spokane have asked permission to resume. The East Side bank of Los Angeles opened its doors Saturday.

Governor McConnell of Idaho and president of the trans-Mississippi congress, appointed Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, to act with Senator Stewart, of Nevada, as a committee to present the free-coinage resolutions adopted by the congress of the United States senate.

The Post says Senator Dolph and family expect to leave on the 30th inst. for a tour of the lakes, after first having visited Chicago and the exposition. A month will be spent at Lakes Mackinaw and Cayuga en route to the North, returning to Washington in the autumn in time to place the children in school.

Harvey Wilmer Hudson, a 7-year-old boy living with his parents on Raleigh street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, Portland, was drowned off the docks at the foot of Everett street, on the west side of the Willamette river, at 3:10 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The alarm was given almost immediately, but he drowned before assistance reached him.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Statue of Gladstone Unveiled.

CHICAGO, June 25.—A colossal statue of William Ewart Gladstone was unveiled in the banquet hall of Dublin Castle, in the Irish village in the Midway plaisance, this afternoon. The statue, which is nine feet in height and stands on a 12-foot pedestal, is a facsimile of the one unveiled in 1882 in front of Bow street church, London, by Lord Carlisle, and by the same sculptor (Bruce J. Jay, of London), who was present today and who was introduced to the audience.

The Oregonian Correspondent.

"I am very sorry to know that some of the democrats of Oregon take their politics from the Oregonian," said Dan Murphy to a Telegram reporter, who saw him upon his return. "The dispatches sent here by the Oregonian correspondent in Washington are for the sole purpose of creating discord in the ranks of the democracy of Oregon. When the article published in the Oregonian stating I had no more influence with the administration reached Washington, I asked Mr. Dun why he sent such dispatches. He replied that he was a consistent republican, and that if he could get the democrats to fighting it would be better for the republican party in Oregon. I imagine that many other dispatches were sent for like purpose. The contests for the offices coming to Oregon, in the main, were gentlemanly, and I think after the appointments have been made the defeated candidates will accept the situation gracefully."

A New Treaty With China.

LONDON, June 25.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Standard says Li Hung Chang, the Chinese premier has intimated that a new treaty between China and the United States will be necessary in view of the present condition of the immigration question. Probably the new ministry will be charged with the task.
