A paper of Kansas tells of a young business man down there who employs his mother-in-law as his stenographer. It takes a courageous man to dictate to his mother-in-law even during business hours.

C. C. Chase, the supposed tramp who lost his life in the wreck near Clarnie by riding on the mail car truck, was in Pendleton a week or more. He worked a few days and was discharged for drinking. Chase came from Kansas and was working his way economically toward Alaska. He is described as being a bright young fellow and a druggist by occupation.

The fourth of July celebration at Rose-land farm promises to be exceptionally interesting. Dr. Sanders will read the declaration of independence, John Mitchell will deliver an oration, and after dinner five minute speeches will be delivered by prominent citizens. Various sports will be indulged, for which suitable prizes will be given. All that is asked to make the fourth a glowing success is a fair field and no bad weather.

Anita won the mile and one-sixteenth race at the Portland race track yesterday. The mile was trotted in 2:35. In nine races, all which have been trotted thus far, some Dalles horse has won either first, second or third money. Mowitza won the 3/4 mile dash yesterday, also a Dalles horse. The other Dalles horses present, who have won in one race or another of the nine races are Seretta, Rockland Boy, Ruby, Black Prince, Nehalem and Des Chutes.

Political Resolutions.

NANSSEN, June 26, 1893. The following resolutions were passed at the first annual session of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, held on 3-Mile June 23d and 24th:

1. We demand that all public officers, from the president to the road supervisor inclusive, be elected by direct vote of the people.
2. We demand the system of direct legislation by the people, known as the initiative and referendum.
3. We demand the abolition of the specific contract law and that all notes be made payable in lawful money of the United States.
4. Resolved that, since England so generally dictated the financial system of this country, we demand of congress that it immediately open our mints to the free coinage of silver on the rates of sixteen to one.
5. Resolved that we demand the graduated property tax.
6. We demand that the compensation of jurors acting in all courts be paid in lawful money at the expiration of their services.
7. We demand the right of woman's suffrage.
8. We hereby extend our thanks to the sisters of 3-Mile Alliance who have so kindly graced our hall with their presence and contributed so liberally to our entertainment.

L. HENRY, President, POLK BUTLER, Vice President, H. P. MOORE, Secretary.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

Majority of the Board in Favor of a Portage Road at The Dalles.

Oregonian. Senator Dolph, who has seen the report of the board of engineers upon the improvement of the Columbia at The Dalles, says the two most experienced engineers upon the board, Colonel Mendell and Mr. Alexander, adhere to the plan reported by the former board of a boat railway, changing the location to the Oregon side of the river. He says, further, that a majority of the board reports in favor of a portage road as a temporary expedient, submitting two estimates of cost. One of the roads is built so that the roadbed can be utilized in the construction of a boat railway, and one for a road built without reference to the permanent improvement. Any improvement is to be located on the Oregon side. The majority of the board recommends a canal for a permanent improvement, but both the majority and minority report that a boat railway is practicable. They greatly reduce the estimated cost of a boat railway, fixing it at about $2,200,000, nearly three-quarters of a million less than the former board.

Dodges for Trout.

A correspondent of the Fishing Gazette (English) informs it that some Irish anglers always impale a worm on a small hook just above the minnow's nose, and find it invaluable to stimulate trout in an indifferent mood. Another dodge practiced in Ireland is as follows: Tie a fly with pretty large wings, something like a March Brown; put one shot on the line a few inches above the fly; thread on the hook a caddis drawn from the case (the larvae of the down or roofed winged flies), and going cautiously to some deep pool, drop in your lure, letting it sink to the bottom and stay there a second or two; then draw up steadily, and the big trout, taking it for a new-born insect rising to the surface, dash at it savagely. Both these hints are valuable.

Mays is in town today. In the Antelope section of country he states that spring grain will not amount to more than half a crop. Lee Evans is quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Powers are in Portland on business and pleasure bent. Strawberries are falling so rapidly as to find a lodgment neth the poor man's vest.

A dance at Jeff Mosier's Tuesday night was largely attended and the usual good time had by all.

It is a matter to be regretted that the U. P. system is so embarrassed as to have cut off their agent at this place. Mosier is now virtually a flag station.

The difference between Merchant Flaherty and Job is that the former refuses to be comforted. Jim will bet a silver dollar as a side issue that Job never had a carbuncle that'd compare with the one he at present carries on his wrist.

Work is being pushed by the Mosier Flume Company, and in about thirty days the flume will be completed. This will open up quite a strawberry ranch on the farm of Milton Harlan, which will be very accessible to the station.

Miss Myra Rowland has returned home for Salem, where she has been attending school for quite a period. A big ball was given in her honor at the Rowland residence, on the Washington side, Friday evening, at which a number of Oregonians were present.

Considerable petty thieving has been going on here for some time past and is rapidly developing itself to a larger scale. Last week Frank LaPiere lost a half sack of sugar while a Mr. Fredericksen had a yearling calf killed and the hind quarters taken from it. A hypodermic injection of cold lead from a 44 Colts, or one of those little digger liver pills would prove a very efficient medicine and one which the thief will doubtless get soon.

Fizz! bang! boom! Mosier will unfurl the stars and stripes on the nation's birthday. The program has not yet been fully completed but we'll stick to it as far as she goes and then celebrate without a program. We know one thing for certain—there's going to be a big ball at night and the 5th day of July will be several hours old before she's recognized. Bring your best girl, if you're not married, and your wife and children if you are. Bring your dog, the boys will need his tail to decorate with fire crackers. In fact bring everything that's loose to see the fun and we'll show them how to honor the birthday of the grandest nation on the earth. Sun.

"The weakest must go to the wall;" except that in an exhibition of paintings the strongest go to the wall; though in some exhibitions the rule apparently still holds.—Pack.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to travelling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
