RACED FOR A WIFE

Novel Plan of a Georgia Belle to Choose a Husband.

NINETEEN MILES ON HORSEBACK

Her Suitors Raced for the License While the Maiden Waited to Greet the Victor.

AGUSTA, Ga., June 29.-Miss Annie Story, the beautiful daughter of Colonel H. F. Story, of Yorkville, had many admirers, but could not decide between McBrayer and Govan. Finally she sent for the minister and the two young men. She told the rivals that the one who would come back to her first with a marriage license should be her husband.

Both men to leave Yorkville at the same time and ride to Dallas, the county seat. The young men were well mounted, and the distance was 19 miles. The race was a hot one. McBrayer, the rich lover, reached the ordinary first and secured the license before Govan appeared.

The latter came a moment afterward and also secured a license. In a few moments he was also on his way back to Yorkville.

The race became sharp. Govan was desperate because his rival was the bet-mounted. Miss Story, her father and the minister waited on the piazza for the racing rivals.

McBrayer was seen first; he was excited, and far down the road it was noticed that his horse was nearly exhausted. The race was a most exciting one, and seemed his. He was nearing the gate, but in a moment Govan appeared in a by-path, 200 yards ahead of McBrayer.

He first reached the piazza and won the prize. He had taken a short cut through the woods. The ceremony was performed, and McBrayer gracefully acknowledged defeat and joined in the marriage festivities.

The Effect in This Country. WASHINGTON, June 28.-The Sun says the talk of radical silver men, since they have recovered from the first shock of the news from India, is rather defiant.

While admitting the demonization in India is a hard blow at bi-metalism at the present ratio, they speak of it as a conspiracy, and insist it is more than ever important that this country should stand by silver.

They say they intend to fight with all their might against the further degradation of silver. The more conservative men, however, regard this as whistling against the wind. Their best judgment is that many who howled for free coinage because of their constituents, will find in the present situation a reason for voting the Sherman law off the statute books, perhaps even without any sort of a substitute as a compromise.

Statue to the Queen. LONDON, June 28.-A statue of the queen, the work of Princess Beatrice, her majesty's youngest daughter, was unveiled in Kensington Gardens today by the queen in person, in the presence of a concourse of prominent people.

The Duke of York, who is not in the best of health, was absent.

Union Pacific to the Rescue. BOSTON, June 29.-The Union Pacific announces that it will today anticipate the payment of July interest. This includes all companies in the Union Pacific system. The payments will amount to $2,000,000.

BRAKEMAN FATALLY SHOT. He Attempted to Put Off a Tramp From a Passenger Train.

The officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company in Portland were informed yesterday that James T. Bruce, a brakeman on the Oregon & California express train had been mortally wounded at Gold Run, Placer county, Cal., by a tramp. Wednesday morning several tramps were stealing a ride on top of one of the cars, and Bruce, acting under instructions, tried to get them off.

While having a slight conflict with them, one drew a revolver and fired, the shot taking effect in Bruce's body. It was dark at the time, and the tramp, realizing what had happened, climbed off the cars and escaped, making his way to the hills near by. Bruce was unable to give an accurate description of the man who did the shooting, but managed to explain that he was tall and dressed in a dark suit. Officers at once started in a pursuit of the murderer, and it is supposed that he is making his way north.

The Southern Pacific has offered a reward of $300 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the man who fired the fatal shot.-Oregonian.

Laying in Supplies. CHARLESTON, S. C., June 29.-A most peculiar state of affairs exists in Charleston today. For 20 days or more the liquor dealers have been selling out their stock of wines and liquors to get rid of them before July 1st, when the state enters into a monopoly of the liquor business.

It is settled that there is to be no state dispensary for the sale of liquor in Charleston, and the people have therefore been preparing for a new state of things. Many thousands of gallons of liquors have been sold. So great has been the demand that the roads have been taxed to transport liquors to the city, the present stock having been long exhausted, and when the Evans law goes

TRAPS FOR THE UNWARY.

The Webs Which Washington Shysters Weave for Suckers.

There are plenty of shysters and shyllocks in the world who are perpetually laying traps to ensnare the unsuspecting, and it may be laid down as an axiom: Never let a stranger who is abnormally anxious to assist you, get hold of your money.

A homelier way of stating it is: Never bet on another man's game. Mr. C. D. Doyle of Dufur was shrewd enough to observe this point when he received a letter from an alleged law firm in Washington, D. C., and referred it to Senator Mitchell. Following are both letters: A careful perusal may save some settler $25:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12, 1892. C. D. Doyle, Esq.

DEAR SIR-We again address you relative to your claim for repayment of $1.25 per acre, arising from the forfeiture of the Northern Pacific grant from Waulula to Portland. We are certain that we can collect this amount for you by suit in the court of claims and as the claim is already old we urge you to send on the necessary authority without further delay.

We have found a way around the statute of limitations, but further delay will prejudice your case. We understand that there is an idea among those interested that congress will voluntarily make these repayments and that there is no necessity for employing an attorney. Being on the ground and familiar with congressional matters we know that such a thing is impossible; and we are willing to take your claim with the understanding that approved a bill be passed before we have secured final judgment in your favor we are to receive no fee whatever.

As payment is always made by draft to order of claimant you have the whole matter in your hands. Our fee will be 25 per cent, strictly contingent, and we will pay all the expenses. Very respectfully, HARVEY SPAULDING & SONS.

SENATOR MITCHELL'S REPLY. PORTLAND, Or., June 23, 1892. C. D. Doyle, Esq., Dufur, Wasco County, Or.

MY DEAR SIR-Yours of June 20th, received, inclosing one from Harvey Spaulding & Sons, Claim Agents, Washington, D. C.

I can only say in reply, I do not believe Mr. Spaulding or any other lawyer can collect from the government $1.25 per acre, in the even sections within the grant to the Northern Pacific company, unless congress first passes some law authorizing it.

Should you give Messrs. Spaulding & Sons any authority whatever in the matter, you had better retain for future reference their letter of June 12th, which I return to you. Very Respectfully, JOHN H. MITCHELL.

Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure an ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it and you will be surprised at the relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Six Hundred and Fifty Deaths. LONDON, June 29.-There were 650 deaths from cholera in Mecca yesterday.

Fresh Cases in France. PARIS, June 29.-Three fresh cases of cholera appeared today.

Some fancy the charms of a lily-white maid, Of ethereal form and languishing eye, Who faints in the sunshine and droops in the shade, And is always "just ready to die."

But give me the girl of the sunshiny face, The blood in whose veins course healthy and free, With the vigor of youth in her movements of grace, Oh, that is the maiden for me!

She is the girl to "tie to" for life. The sickly, complaining woman may be an object of love and pity, but she ceases to be a "thing of beauty" worn down by female weakness and disorders, subject to hysteria and a martyr to bearing-down pains. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure cure for these distressing complaints, and will transform the feeble, drooping sufferer into a healthy, happy, blooming woman. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

FOR RENT. Three nice furnished rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. Inquire at Mr. Lauer's store, Second street.
