MANY WERE DROWNED

Mexican Town Visited by a Raging Flood.

CAUSED BY RECENT HEAVY RAINS

The Dalton Gang Again At Work—Suicide of an Ex-United States Consul.

PUEBLO, Mex., June 30.—The town of Jalapa has been visited by a terrible calamity. Heavy rains caused the Seco river, which flows through the place, suddenly to overflow its banks, and nearly one-half of the houses in the town were swept away.

Several people unable to escape from the raging flood were drowned. The rich valley of the river is inundated, and the loss of crops and stock is heavy.

THE DALTON GANG.

WICHITA, Kan., June 30.—The highwayman who attempted to rob the Santa Fe train at Wharton yesterday is now in jail here. He is a boy only 16. He says the Dalton gang, headed by Bill Dalton, forced him to stop the train under penalty of death. They told him to stop the train near Blackburn creek June 30 and they would do the rest. He mistook the day. The officers have gone to the scene in hopes of capturing the gang.

Now a Revolution in Peru.

PANAMA, June 30.—Pierola has landed at Chuda, Peru, and gone on to Arequipa. He is said to be preparing to head a revolution designed to put him in the presidential chair. This alternative of civil war has been decided upon according to current report, because Hieria would have no chance of being elected if he merely appealed to the suffrages of the people, as the government in power could control the polls. Hostile operations are expected to begin soon.

THE OLD SYSTEM PUNCTURED.

Selling Whisky to Indians Brought Up With a Jerk By Judge Bellinger.

Portland Dispatch.

Judge Bellinger this morning threw a keen poniard through the vicious system that has been in vogue with deputy United States marshals in the matter of the violation of the intercourse law, and it is very probable that there will be less cases of whisky to Indians now than there has been for many years.

John Heart, who has been among the Umatilla Indians for a long time, was fined $25 for selling them liquor. Newton Barnhill, colored, and Peter Peterson, a Swede, were fined $1 each for giving liquor to Indians at the Dalles.

These cases called out the censure of the court, which indicated future purpose. A few minutes after they had arrived at The Dalles they were importuned by Indians to get some whisky for them, for which they were paid about 25 cents for their trouble.

Five minutes afterwards Deputy United States Marshal Jameson pounced upon them and put them under arrest. The two offenses were committed on separate days, but close together. Judge Bellinger saw at once that the defendants were the victims of collusion between the wily marshal and the foxy Indians, and he asked District Attorney Mays if there was no way to cut off this man Jameson; that the practice had become abominable. Mr. Mays said he believed that there was jobbery in the matter, and that Officer Jameson's functions would be cut off on the 1st of the month.

It transpired that when Peterson was put in jail in this county, he had a small amount of money and when he appeared in court he did not have a cent.

Mr. Mays called the attention of the court to the system of kangarooing a new prisoner in the county jail and taking what money he had, as a fine in a mock trial, and suggested that some means ought to be employed to put a stop to it.

Judge Bellinger intimated that if the county authorities had the matter brought before their attention the practice might be stopped. The fact, he said, was intended to prevent crime, but it seems to be employed to perpetuate it.

Judge Bellinger might have stopped at this point had he not asked if there was anything else to come up. District Attorney Mays then brought in a fee bill for approval, and the judge took occasion to ventilate the intercourse matter a little more. A bill for $9 was presented by J. C. Appiewhite, U. S. commissioner at Corvallis. This was for a case where a man gave an Indian a bottle of whisky, within the knowledge of the commissioner. The man was fined $5. This was only one case. Judge Bellinger said that only yesterday, he, with Judge Gilbert, had appointed Appiewhite as commissioner, and he was sorry that he did not know that he was the man who put in the bill. He then began cutting down the bills. District Attorney Mays agreed that the bills were too large. This is notice that the United States court is hereafter to be run for something beside fat fees for officers, schemers and lazy Indians.

Some fancy the charms of a lily-white maid, Of ethereal form and languishing eye, Who faints in the sunshine and droops in the shade, And is always "just ready to die."

But give me the girl of the sunny face, The blood in whose veins course healthy and free, With the vigor of youth in her movements of life, Oh, that is the maiden for me!

She is the girl to "tie to" for life, The sickly, complaining woman may be an object of love and pity, but she ceases to be a "thing of beauty" worn down by female weakness and disorders, subject to hysteria and a martyr to bearing-down pains. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure cure for these distressing complaints, and will transform the feeble, drooping sufferer into a healthy, happy, blooming woman. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for sappedness, torpid liver, yellow skin or kidney trouble. It is guaranteed to give you satisfaction. Price 75c. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

THE CALL IS ISSUED

President Cleveland Has Summoned Congress in Extra Session.

THE SEVENTH DAY OF AUGUST

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The president this evening issued the following proclamation:
