"The Regulator Line" WHAT WILL IT DO?

The Question Now That Congress Has Been Called Together.

A CORRESPONDENT SPECULATION

The House Expected to Repeal the Sherman Law, but the Action of the Senate Doubtful.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—A special from Washington to an evening paper says: Now that the president has called congress together the all-important question is, "What will it do?" As a matter of fact nobody can tell. The house, which is always more amenable to the executive than the senate, will probably repeal the Sherman law, but not without a fight. Bland and the other free-silver men will exhaust every privilege allowed them under the rules to delay action, and will filibuster just as long as they are permitted. But it is virtually settled by the democrats that the rules of the next house will partake somewhat of the nature of the Reed rules. Filibustering will be reduced to a minimum. Indeed, it is no secret that the democrats of the house intend to follow very closely upon the Reed rules in some respects. The house will be organized in a hurry, under pressure from the president. Crisp will be re-elected speaker without opposition. He will arrange the committee expeditiously, and in the meantime the committee on rules, which will be appointed first, will proceed to prepare a code of rules. There will be certain provisions deliberately designed to prevent the friends of silver from delaying a vote on the repeal of the Sherman act, and in the south end of the capital, at least, the president's programme will be carried out.

The opposition in the senate will be more effective. Senators Stewart and Jones of Nevada, together with other silver advocates, will make a determined fight. They will oppose the repeal of the Sherman law unless legislation more favorable to silver shall be offered as a substitute. That will not be conceded. The republicans and democrats who demand the repeal of the Sherman act, will insist upon its unconditional repeal. There will be no previous question in the senate; no way whatever of curtailing debate, except by fixing the hour for the final vote, and then making it a question of physical endurance. Senator Stewart is a long and enduring talker himself, and could consume a week at least. There is no way of changing the senate rules so as to cut off debate. That would not be tolerated. It would be contrary to established usages. The president himself has entertained doubts as to whether the majority of the senate would vote to repeal the Sherman act. He is not yet entirely convinced that the majority will promptly show up on that side.

Supr. Porter Resigns.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Robert P. Porter has resigned as superintendent of the census. His resignation is to take effect right away. James H. Wardle, a democrat, who is now chief clerk of the office, will be designated to act as superintendent, and if Porter's place is to be filled will be appointed superintendent. Mr. Porter has purchased the New York Press, and will assume the management at an early date. Wardle was connected with the census office before Porter was made superintendent.

Richardson Found Guilty.

ROSEMBO, Or., July 1.—Guilty as charged in the indictment, was the verdict of the jury in the trial of George L. Richardson, for attempting to wreck the north-bound overland passenger train last March. The defense called no witnesses, relying on the weakness of the prosecution for acquittal. The evidence was purely circumstantial, and not nearly so strong as at the preliminary examination. Richardson will appear for sentence next Monday.

DeLesseps Searing Death.

LEON, July 1.—Charles DeLesseps was taken from the prison hospital to visit his father at La Chesnaye yesterday. He was returned last evening to his hospital quarters, where he will remain for the next two months. Ferdinand DeLesseps is very near death. He seemed yesterday to be moribund. His utterance is almost unintelligible and his mind has virtually ceased working. His physicians think he will hardly live through next week.

An Exodus of Miners.

TEKOA, Wash., July 2.—The exodus from the Coeur d'Alene mining region amounts to a veritable stampede. This evening's Union Pacific train from Wallace was crowded, the baggage car steps and aisles being taken up with miners, merchants and all classes who are leaving that country. James Kirk, a hotel-keeper at Wardner, said he had closed his hotel and half the stores would be closed inside of two weeks. That country is practically killed. He says fully 5000 persons will leave the Coeur d'Alene so soon as they can get away. There is no prospect of better times before next spring. Many have only money enough to live on a few weeks, when he predicts suffering will result.

"A Talented Editor."

During the coming months, or the heated period, those who are traveling or contemplating a trip away from home should read the following letter from a brilliant and well known editor and provide themselves against attacks of headache and dizziness:

GENTLEMEN: I had occasion to use several boxes of Kinross' Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. I have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable. Yours respectfully,

ON THE SIDE OF SCIENCE.

FOURTEEN minor planets were discovered during April, bringing the total number of small planets known to 375.

Prof. DOLBEAR says a powerful search light could project a beam to Mars in four minutes which could be seen and responded to if they have the apparatus we have.

SIR JOHN HERSCHEL says that if a solid cylinder of ice, 45 miles in diameter and 200,000 miles long, were plunged end first into the sun, it would melt in a second of time.

SCIENTISTS have succeeded in measuring the thickness of soapy water in a bubble. When showing the shade of violet, it was one-fourth the thickness of a violet wave of light, that is, about 1-240,000 of an inch.

The position of the lamprey eels has been reviewed by Prof. Howes, who thinks that instead of being primitive forms, they are aberrant fish-like forms, which have lost their lower jaw, their sucking mouth having been secondarily acquired.

MISSING LINKS.

All animals whose habitat is the arctic regions turn white in winter.

Over a hundred new telegraph offices were opened in India during the first three months of this year.

A FORTUNE was missed by Henry Munson, who died recently in New Haven, Conn. He invented the device by which gun-barrels are bored, but neglected to patent it.

TRAMPS rarely visit Edmore, Mich., more than once. When they are caught in that town, the marshal puts them in the jail reception-room, builds a roaring fire for their comfort, and then sprinkles pepper on the stove.

SOMEONE of a curiously mathematical turn has calculated that a pound of spider's webbing unwound would be long enough to reach round the world, with enough left over to reach from New York to San Francisco.

POSTAL NOTES.

About 138,000,000 envelopes are used in this country annually.

In 1892 there were 447,591 miles of post routes in this country.

More than 60,000 stamps are said to be found every year loose in the letter boxes of the United Kingdom.

A new postage stamp was issued by the Italian post office on the silver wedding day of the king and queen, bearing portraits of the king and queen.

The sum of twelve cents has been received by the United States treasurer, to be placed to the credit of the conscience fund, from a man who says he violated the postal law in using postage stamps twice.

"Peter Piper Picked a Peck of Pickled Peppers," was a line of alliterative nonsense, that the children used to say. Nowadays they can practice on the Perfect, Painless, Powerful Properties of Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. It will impress a fact which will be useful to know. These Pellets cure sick headache, bilious attacks, indigestion, constipation and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They are tiny, sugar-coated pills, easy to take, and, as a laxative, one is sufficient for a dose. No more groans and gripes from the old drastic remedies!
