DEATH ON THE ROCKS
Sad Ending of the Gladstone Celebration.
MOTHER AND HER BABE KILLED
Three Other Children Were Probably Fatally Injured—Family Recently Came From Washington.

OREGON CITY, July 5.—The celebration at Gladstone yesterday was marred at its close by a terrible and fatal accident, which resulted in the immediate death of Mrs. M. P. Bradley, followed by the death this morning of her infant child, while the three other children were so severely injured that their lives are despaired of. As M. P. Bradley and family, who live on a farm two miles south of this city, were returning from the celebration in a buggy and had just reached the motor line coming from the west, one of the traces became unhitched and the team got frightened and started to run. The driver was unable to control them and they ran to the verge of the river, which comes close to the road at this place and makes a sharp curve, so that the road leads directly up to the brink. When the team found itself at the edge of the steep bank it swerved short off, throwing the buggy with great force over the precipice, which is here a rocky bluff 40 feet high. As the buggy went over Mr. Bradley jumped, and with the assistance of the lines, to which he was still clinging, saved himself from going over; but Mrs. Bradley with the four children were hurled on the sharp rocks below. Bradley immediately slid down the bluff to their assistance, and his shouts brought Dr. Locke, of Portland, and another gentleman, who were fishing just below the scene of the accident, to their assistance. Procuring ropes, they drew them up into the road, where it was found that all had sustained severe injuries, from which the 18-months-old baby died this morning. The other children are in a critical condition, but are expected to live.

After the accident Mrs. Bradley could not be found, and it was correctly surmised that she had fallen into the river and had been carried down stream by the current, which is very rapid at this point. Boats were procured at once, and by means of lanterns the river was thoroughly searched. An hour later Charles Smith and Philo Tatro found the body thrown upon the rocks at the dam 200 yards below the scene of the accident, life being quite extinct when found. The body was carried at once to the Gladstone depot, where an examination showed an abrasion and bruise over the right eye and temple, and a terrible wound on the top of the head, where the skull had been laid bare over a space not less than four inches square. The afflicted family has lived in this community since last winter, having moved here from some place in Washington.

Kansas Farmers Suffering.
TOPEKA, Kan., July 5.—The gravity of the condition of the farmers of western Kansas continues to grow more serious. Unless they are soon provided with substantial aid the country will be deserted by those able to get away, while those compelled to remain will suffer for the necessities of life. A call has been made for a convention of representatives throughout the stricken counties to meet at Leoti, Wichita county, to discuss some plan for providing seed wheat.
Governor Lowelling has been impetioned to call an extra session of the legislature to take action for the relief of the farmers of the western part of the state, who have no seed wheat on account of drought. He says the exigencies of the case are not great enough to warrant such a course. While there is a wheat failure, the corn prospect was never better.

TROUBLE AT HAWAII.
Claus Spreckels in Danger of Assassination.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Advices from Honolulu up to June 25th are as follows: Three arrests for conspiracy and the promises of more. Claus Spreckels threatened with assassination, the organization of a murder society within the Annexation Club, and finally the news of the appointment of Judge Sneed, of Tennessee, as minister to Hawaii to succeed Mr. Blount, have been the developments of the past six days, and no end of excitement and gossip has been the result. Claus Spreckels started the fun by discovering early on the morning of June 23d the following placard, ornamented with a skull and crossbones, posted on the gate of his residence, "Gold and silver will not stop lead." This statement, in view of his opposition to the provincial government, seemed very significant to Mr. Spreckels and he immediately carried the placard to Minister Blount. The American minister took Spreckels' statement down and sent it to President Dole without comment. Mr. Spreckels' home is now guarded by a stalwart native policeman. The government, as well as members of the Annexation Club, deeply regret the occurrence and look upon the posting of the placard as the work of practical jokers, or some crank who has taken it into his head to warn Spreckels. The victim of the alleged joke, however, has no hesitation in saying that he believes his enemies here are trying to scare him off and that there are men here desperate enough to attempt to kill him. The sugar king's combative nature is now thoroughly aroused, and he is using means to discover the author of the threat.

ARRESTED FOR CONSPIRACY.
The Spreckels incident was still fresh when Friday afternoon the arrests already predicted in these dispatches were made. T. B. Walker, E. C. Crick and Archibald Sinclair were taken into custody, on a charge of conspiring to overthrow the government by force of arms.

MARKET REPORT.
THURSDAY, July 6.—The week just passed being the holiday week has been comparatively quiet in business circles. The stock of merchandise is well kept up, except in stock salt, of which the market is quite bare. In groceries and provisions there is a moderate demand, amounting to a hand to mouth business. Prices continue steady without any notable change.
The produce market is steady and is well stocked. Eggs, butter and poultry remain on former quotations. In small fruits—strawberries, raspberries and cherries, the market is in full supply and prices are nominal. Vegetables are plentiful and prices favor the buyer.
The grain market is still depressed. Eastern and foreign markets are even more discouraging than our own. The report of a great difficulty in breadstuffs product throughout the old world has not been fully confirmed, but from the tenor of European quotations one is led to believe that a feeling prevails that there will be a moderate average yield. As we said a week ago, the United States will not more than make up the estimate of product which is less than that of 1892.

The wool situation is unchanged, as will be seen by the following from the Boston Advertiser of the 30th ult:
A special report on wools and woollens in the United States has just been sent to the printer by Major Brock, the chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the treasury department. The report brings down to date the report of the same character prepared by Colonel Switzer when he was chief of the bureau in 1888, and adds many interesting facts which have come to light in the course of Major Brock's investigations. It appears that the number of sheep in the United States, as estimated by the department of agriculture, was 44,938,365, valued at $116,121,290 on January 1, 1892, and that the figures have advanced to 47,273,553 sheep valued at $125,999,264 in 1893. This is an increase of 5.20 per cent in the number and 8.43 per cent in the value during the year. The wool product of 1892 is stated at 294,000,000 lbs. The amount of pulled wool for the year 1892 is estimated by the department of agriculture at 46,000,000 lbs., which with the fleeces wool makes a total product of domestic wool in the United States in 1892 of 340,000,000 lbs.

The number of woolen establishments in the country in 1890 is shown by the census bureau to have been 2,489, with an invested capital of $286,491,481, employing 219,132 hands, paying wages of $76,666,742, and using 372,797,413 lbs. of wool, which cost $98,510,480. The cost of all materials used was $202,815,842, and the value of the product was $337,768,524.
The United States consumes more domestic in proportion to imported wool in domestic manufactures than either of the other leading manufacturing countries.

HAZERS UNDER ARREST
For Marking the Faces of Several Fellow Students with Caustic.

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 5.—The recent hazing of students at Delaware College has resulted in suits for damages in the common pleas court of Delaware county. On April 20th several of the students were caught by older boys, taken to a room, and there bound with cords. Some kind of corrosive or caustic was used with which to tattoo the faces. Lines were drawn which made the boys look like Fiji Islanders or American savages. The marks can never be effaced. Those who were charged with having performed the outrages were arrested for assault and battery. After the cases were gotten ready for trial a settlement was effected, the defendants to pay the costs and attorney fees. The fees have not been paid, and the attorneys have begun to get anxious for their pay. The hazers would not pay it, and the victims said they must, or stand trial for damages for $10,000 each.

The result is that four suits have been filed for that amount, each entitled as follows: Percival H. Wilson versus Ralph Harrold, Pete Adams, Holway Ferrar, Wilber B. Moorman, William H. Innis, Harry D. Belt, Walter B. Evans, Charles W. Perellis and Calvin S. Welch; Joseph B. Rogers versus same; Orland C. Harn versus same, and Milton W. Brown versus same. The petitions allege that the victims are forever disfigured, that they will forever be sick, sore and lame, and add that the hazers ended the cruelty by spanking them with red-hot shovels.

One Way of Celebrating.
DENVER, July 4.—At Cripple Creek, and in some of the other mining camps of Colorado, flags were at half-mast today as an expression of the feeling of the inhabitants on account of the determination of the administration to demonetize silver.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied by a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Drug-gists.

Talking Through His Hat.
FRIDAY, O., July 5.—Rev J. W. Hill, a noted anti-Mormon worker of Utah, now in this city, has disclosed a scheme of the Mormons to buy the next congress to give them statehood. One million dollars, he says, has been raised for the purpose.

Greece's King Has Not Abdicated.
LONDON, July 5.—It is reported from the United States that King George of Greece has abdicated and a republic has been proclaimed. The Greek consul-general here pronounces the report preposterous.
"Peter Piper Picked a Peck of Pickled Peppers," was a line of alliterative nonsense, that the children used to say. Nowadays they can practice on the Perfect, Painless, Powerful Properties of Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. It will impress a fact which will be useful to know. These Pellets cure sick headache, bilious attacks, indigestion, constipation and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They are tiny, sugar-coated pills, easy to take, and, as a laxative, one is sufficient for a dose. No more groans and gripes from the old drastic remedies! Pierce's Purgative Pellets are as painless as they are perfect in their effects.
