school in district No. 48, the many friends of Mrs. Williams, the teacher, gave her a pleasant surprise by coming out to the school house, bringing their well-filled lunch baskets. At 11 o'clock the guests began to arrive, and by the noon hour the house was full to overflowing. The school room was then converted into a huge dining hall, and by the appearance of the well-filled tables it is evident that Juniper Flat ladies cannot be excelled in the culinary art. There were rich cakes, puddings and pies that fairly bewildered and dazzled our eyes.

After dinner the teacher and children came forward with a well arranged program, which reflected much credit on the school. "Jane's Conquest," by Sadie Crabtree, "A Legend of Bregenz," by Hattie Morris, "The Last Hymn," by Marcia Morris, "Our Boys," by Polly Crabtree, "The Dukite Snake," by Cora Dry Criss, "Miss Edith," by Anna Beittie, were all gems in their line. "Signing the Pledge" was well rendered. "When We are Men," by ten boys, was well spoken. All the little ones had their cor. Court and Second Sis.
"Speeches" well learned and recited The Balles, Oregon. them nicely. The teacher then treated the pupils and patrons to candy.

The board of directors then asked Mrs. Williams to take charge of the school next term, which she agreed to do, much to the gratification of her pupils.

Among those present we noticed Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crabtree, Mr. Moad, Mrs. Snodgrass, Mrs. M. Woodruff, Mrs. J. Confer, Mrs. R. Butz, Mrs. N. Crabtree, Miss E. Whitlock, Mrs. R. Beittie, Mrs. H. Criss, Mrs. W. G. Morris, Mr. C. L. Morris, Miss Marcia Morris, Mrs. M. Morris, Clark Doughton, Geo. Woodruff, Mrs. H. Kelley, Mrs. L.
