Fonda, Ia., July 7.—One of the most dreadful calamities in the history of this state visited this section last evening. A cyclone started southeast of here about 7 o'clock last evening and swept almost due east, leveling everything in its path for a width of 1,000 yards, killing and mauling the inhabitants in the towns and thickly populated farming districts.

At the approach of the storm, which imparted a greenish tint, followed by darkness and what appeared to be a column of smoke, many sought shelter in their cellars, and others mounted horses to flee from the path of destruction.

HANGED INSTEAD OF BURNED. St. Louis, July 7.—The ravisher and murderer, Miller, was hanged instead of burned at Bardwell, Ky., at 3:40 p. m.

Ignored Satoli's Orders. NEW YORK, July 7.—The Herald says Archbishop Corrigan has practically defied the authority to Monsignore Satoli. Monsignore Satoli directed the archbishop to restore Dr. Richard L. Dursell to the church of the Epiphany, from which he was transferred three years ago to Rondout, N. Y., for defending Dr. McGlynn, or appoint him to a parish in this city equally important as the Epiphany, but the archbishop, instead of following the apostolic delegate's instruction, referred the matter to the propaganda in Rome.

A Negro Friend Hanged. BARDWELL, Ky., July 7.—The name given by the ravisher and murderer of the two innocent girls is Charles Miller, but it is believed he is the negro who has been in the habit of giving glass-cutting entertainments in various parts of the country. The negro says he has not been in Kentucky recently, but a coat found at the scene of the crimes fits him, and rings found on him were identified as stolen Sunday night in Clinton, Ky. A fisherman who saw the fellow across the river the evening of the murder identifies him as the man. By 11 o'clock the crowd gathered here numbered thousands, and when he was taken from the train a mad rush was made and nothing could be heard above the shouts of the angry multitude. Finally

Mr. Miller offers a reward of $250 to anyone who will succeed in discovering the whereabouts of his child. He describes her as follows: Hair, light brown, shingled; eyes, hazel; a scar the size of a dime on the back of the head; small scar on the nose, visible when crying or laughing; burn scar on one hip; slender build; about three feet, nine inches tall; 6 years old August 4th last; small for her age. Her name is Alma Gladys Miller. If her hair has not been cut it will be about nine or ten inches long. Sheriff Pugh promised to exert himself on Mr. Miller's behalf, but the chances are that "little Alma" may be hundreds, perhaps thousands of miles from here ere this.

The kidnaping proclivities of gypsies are historical, and it is also well known that the booty stolen by one band is transferred at regular gypsy depots to other tribes and passed along from one band to the other until it is safely beyond the reach of detection. This may be the mode that these wanderers have of getting rid of their live plunder when they see it to resort to child-stealing. The father of the missing girl says he will never give up the chase as long as he has strength to continue it.—Spokane Review.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Drug-gists.

La Grippe. During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.
