WHAT A CHANGE.

It is stated that the San Francisco Examiner has sent a reporter in the guise of a laboring man through the orchards of Solano county to ascertain the true situation of affairs as touching the labor question. He applied to one large orchardist and asked for a job. On being refused he asked why it was that said orchardist couldn't discharge one member of his large band of Chinamen and give him a job, and on being informed that it was on account of white men being unreliable, he revealed himself and informed the orchard gentleman that he proposed to investigate the matter and that unless the orchard men discharged the Chinamen and gave employment to the poor white people he proposed to write them up for the columns of the Examiner with hair on their snouts. Following this some of the orchard men received letters from fruit dealers in the east stating that unless they discharged the Chinese and employed white help that they need not send any more of their fruit that way, and as a consequence a large force of white men and women and children have been given employment in the orchards. Whether or not the report is true the Examiner is to be commended, but it should go a little farther and burn some of the warts off the pot-bellied old faces in the white house chair for the aid and support he is giving the Chinese lovers of the country. We do not approve of the boycott system, but if the white people would refuse to purchase fruit put up by Chinamen they would be doing a righteous act. The Chinese don't even purchase or eat any of the fruit they put up, and the idea of having the fruit picked, packed and canned by these pig-tailed lepers, while good American citizens are left to rot, hog or die, and then go out and hunt up a white market for said fruit is the most infamous and gigantic fraud and curse of the age.

Now what is the matter with this glorious country of ours? One year ago the nation was happy, prosperous and secure; today it is in chaos and doubt, and hairning over the precipice of bankruptcy. One year ago the industrial wheel of the nation was sweetly humming, money plenty, credits good, and men in all branches of trade feeling safe and secure; today the hum of the industrial wheel is jaded, banks are failing, money is scarce, securities are set at naught, assignments are being made, and the whole industrial fabric of the nation is tottering in the breeze of adversity and insecurity. What is the cause of this changed state of affairs? Some say that the new administration is not to blame for it, but we fear they cannot prove it. The new administration pledged itself to break down the protective safeguards which surround the manufacturing industries of America and which have made the nation great, times good, and blessed the land with peace and plenty, whereas the foreign countries threw up their hats and commenced calling home their gold with a view of depressing and crushing out the enterprises of America, and if possible monopolize the manufacturing industries of the world—a thing which they are unable to accomplish without the aid and support of the executive department of the United States government.

This state of affairs makes it unsafe for the manufacturer, the merchant and the banker, and throws the whole business whirl of the nation into unrest, and the laboring man gets his share; and whether or not it is the proposed policy of the new administration that has brought about the depressed situation of affairs, there is one thing very certain, and that is Democrats and Republicans alike are suffering. Some claim that these financial depressions come periodically and are brought on by the ceaseless motion of the business sea, and that time alone, coupled with the faith of the people, can heal them. Let us hope that this is true, but Mr. Cleveland claims the cause of the present financial distress to be the silver purchase law, which requires the government to purchase 4,500,000 ounces of silver every month and issue treasury notes therefor; and he has actually stopped fishing long enough to call congress together in special session for the purpose of repealing the Sherman law. The Sherman law is the next best thing outside of free coinage of silver, and its repeal means the withdrawal from circulation of about $4,500,000 a month, which Mr. Cleveland thinks would relieve the country of the present financial embarrassment. The calamity howler of 1892 told us we wanted a change and we have got it, and O what a change!—Exchange.

They made an assiduous effort up in Morrow county last week trying to strike water by bombarding space with dynamite, but as usual they failed to make it. Rain falls alike upon the just and unjust, but heaven's resources are too vast to yield to a siege of that kind.

Baltuy Washington.

From a letter from Washington, D. D., we give the following:
 One of the numerous phases of the agitation has been supplied by those statesmen who allege unwillingness to visit Washington in summer time, because they declare it to be the abiding place of the excessive insolation. For a long while Washington was stigmatized as the home of malaria and it was the fashionable thing for men with uncontrollable appetites, pampered by official opportunity, to blame what Washingtonians termed "congressional malaria" for their indisposition. That excuse has been threadbare these many months and no one uses it now, but in its place are heard references to the terrific summer heat from which the national capital is supposed to suffer. The fact of the matter is that there are few cities in this country that are more pleasant during the warm months than Washington. Broad avenues permit the free movement of cooling breezes, lofty shade trees cut off the sun's direct rays, while the placid Potomac carries on its surface cooling influences such as but few large centers of population enjoy. There is hardly a more comfortable city in the country than Washington, no matter what weather conditions prevail.

In Grippe.

During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Trials of an Essayist.

Puck.
 "Oh, dear!" she sighed, as she laid her mother-of-pearl penholder on her mosaic-topped desk; "I don't suppose I shall ever get this graduation essay done."
 "What is the matter?" asked her mother.
 "That 'Handy Dictionary of Synonyms' is too mean for anything; and I can't find the Thesaurus."
 "What are you looking for?"
 "A word of five syllables that means 'wise'."

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. It "la grippe" has left you weak and wearied, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Worn-out.
 "run-down," feeble women, need Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It builds them up. It's a powerful, restorative tonic, or strength-giver—free from alcohol and injurious drugs. The entire system is renewed and invigorated. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, gives refreshing sleep, and restores flesh and strength. As a soothing nerve, it allays and subdues hysteria, spasms, and all the nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease. It's the only guaranteed medicine for women. It does what is promised—or it asks nothing. It gives satisfaction, in every case, or the money paid for it is refunded.
 That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system.

WINANS
 THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp-ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and water falls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the mill factories will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be equal anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already made you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
