what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort; and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia. Such a remedy is found in Simmons Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauscate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. R. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfections of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians.

"It affords me pleasure to add my test-mony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results." W. F. PARK, M. D., Tracy City, Tenn.

The Emperor Delighted, and It Is Rumored He Will Make Chancellor Von Caprivi a Prince.

Berlin, July 15 .- Soon after the army after speaking had commenced, it bedid not intend to let the measure be to attacking or supporting the bill than to railing at political opponents.

The emperor left the building before vote the bill was passed by a majority of happy couple. 16, the vote standing 201 in favor of the measure to 185 against it. After reading the speech of the emperor closing the session, the chancellor added: "It is a special pleasure to me to be charged to give you the emperor's thanks." the occasion was the almost entire absence of intoxicants, and the general good behavior of the company, for which the people of this place deserve credit, since good behavior is not a general rule on such occasions. Tuesday morning came out bright and to give encouragement and cheer to the first celebration at Mitchell.

The programme of the day was simple but deserves mention. Several songs were sung by a choir of twelve or fifteen, which were nicely done. The best Mitchapron as a guaranty of safety. I hope they will see more of like exhibitions in the near future, to give them an idea for a thought beyond the routine and monotony of their almost entire seclusion from the social associations with the world beyond their narrow limitations. The final success was the ball at night. People from every part of the surrounding country came in, tilling the hall to its greatest capacity, the dancers doing their best to enjey themselves from 8 o'clock in the evening until 4 in the morning. Every one during the entire night was very quiet, which was a great surprise, since on former occasions, the amusements were generally broken up
