THE DALLES OREGON

EVERY ONE HAS ONE.

In the Days When the Mug Craze Reigned at Vassar.

The mania for collecting beer-mugs, an ex-Vassar girl says, according to the New York World, is an old Vassar custom revived.

"Nearly every girl in Vassar, in my time," she explained, "had among her college properties an immense glass beer-mug, the larger the better. How the custom originated I cannot say, but the glass beer-mug was then considered an indispensable adjunct to every stylish young woman's education—because it looked 'weird,' I presume. You remember at one time the Vassar craze for pronouncing everything 'weird'—from a comic opera to a midnight lunch on pretzels and lemonade.

"What use did the beer glass serve?" Oh, dozens of uses; we used them to drink from in our rooms, to keep flowers in, to concoct the hot lemonade potions for bad colds, to carry to picnics, to smuggle ice-cream in and for lots of other interesting affairs. Of course most of the girls bought their beer-mugs, but the girl who was so fortunate as to have one given her by a masculine admirer—one who was a trifle wild preferred—was a person of great consequence among her mates. One fortunate girl, I remember, had a 'Black Jack' from Heidelberg, with heavy old silver mountings. She was the most envied girl in college.

"I confess to attaching some sentimentality to my beer-mug," concluded the ex-Vassar girl with a deprecatory laugh. "It is still among my cabinet treasures at home and is really a highly cultured mug, having gone through four college courses at Vassar—with myself, two younger sisters and a girl friend. I have often wondered if the beer-mug fashion still reigns in Vassar's classic halls."

IMPERSONAL BREVITIES.

A COLORED woman in Holly Springs, Miss., has hair eight feet six inches in length.

A CONVICT in the Vermont state prison received $12,000 for a piece of real estate a few days ago.

A WOMAN in Allentown, Pa., is reported to have been shot at three times, and each time her life was saved by her corset.

A MOTHER at Penicook, Mo., has four daughters who bear these euphonious names: Beulah May, Ivy Rose, Reoda Alwilda and Greta Alifeta.

"It will cost you fifteen cents just the same," are the reported words of a New York druggist when he was told that the use of his telephone was desired in a case of life or death. Of course the fifteen cents was paid.

"My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhoea or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniata Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.

They read The Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family fireside is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their arrangements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a family of a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very cheap Advertising Rates.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE,

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

- Jules Verne, Archdeacon Farrar, Alphonse Daudet, Camille Flammarion, Edward Everett Hale, Prof. Graham Bell, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Thomas A. Edison, F. Hopkinson Smith, H. H. Boyesen, etc.

and many others, have furnished material for especially prepared interviews which will appear fully illustrated in this magazine.

Each number contains two or three short stories by famous authors. Fully illustrated stories will appear in early numbers by: William Dean Howells, R. L. Stevenson, Bret Harte, Sarah Orne Jewett, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Octave Thanet, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Stanley J. Weyman.

HENRY M. STANLEY

will contribute, especially for young readers, a thrillingly interesting story of African Adventure.

NATURAL HISTORY AND ADVENTURE.

There will be several articles written by Raymond B. Huxham, who has been called by Mr. W. T. Stead the best interviewer in England, from material furnished him by Karl Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, the greatest animal importer and trainer. These articles deal with:

The Capture of Wild Beasts. The Transportation of Wild Beasts. The Training of Wild Beasts. The Adventures and Escapes of Karl Hagenbeck. The series will be illustrated by an English artist of acknowledged skill in drawing wild animals. JOHN BURTON, C. F. HOLZER, JR., C. C. ANBERT, and other writers famous for their work in this field, will contribute to the magazine.

Of Interest to both Young and Old will be

PROF. A. L. GARNER'S AFRICAN EXPEDITION TO THE GORILLAS. Arrangements have been made, in connection with a leading English review, to publish Prof. Garner's letters descriptive of his present expedition to Africa. Prof. Garner is noted the world over for the curious and interesting investigations he is making in the speech of monkeys. He sailed for Africa last September for the sake of further pursuing his studies in the native haunts of the gorilla. The illustrations for these articles will be from photographs taken by Prof. Garner. The magazine also contains most interesting articles under the following comprehensive heads: "The Edge of the Future," "Knowledge of Immediate Value," "Newest Knowledge," "The Present Hour," "Stranger than Fiction," etc.

We are offering this splendid magazine with THE DAILY CHRONICLE for only $7.50 a year, payable in advance or in monthly installments as desired.
