THE DALLES OREGON

Love and War.
 Ah Ling is in love. At least he has proposed and been rejected. This comes hard on Ah Ling, who is a prominent highbinder and accustomed to having his wishes gratified. It seems that Ling had become infatuated with a maiden in Wah Luak's Chinese harem on Pine street near Second. He has frequently endeavored to make love to her, but she has invariably repelled his advances. Last night he decided to make a final demand and did so. It was received with scorn.

Then Ling concluded that the life of his beloved was not worth living without him, and if the allegations of his loved one, Yeung Seen, are true, he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot her, after first attempting to assault her with an iron bar. Yeung Seen ran away from him, and some of the inmates of the harem blew a police whistle, which caused Ah Ling to drop his weapons and run away. These are the allegations of Yeung Seen, Oi Yang, her sister, Wah Luak, her brother-in-law, and others of the harem; and they further allege that Ah Ling and Ah Que, who is also a highbinder, before leaving robbed Oi Yang of $30. Special Officer Moore responded to the police whistle and caught the alleged offenders on Pine street near Fourth. They were lodged in the police station and were today arraigned before Judge Williams in the municipal court. They both waived examination on the charge of robbery, and were held to answer to the grand jury. The charge of carrying concealed weapons preferred against Ah Ling was dismissed by Judge Williams.—Telegram.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it is recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berke Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Making Stamps.

Every part of postage stamps making is done by hand. The designs are engraved on steel, 200 stamps on a single plate. These plates are inked by two men, and then are printed by a girl and a man on a large hand press. They are dried as fast as printed, and then gummed with a starch paste made from potatoes. This paste is dried by placing the sheets in a steam fanning machine, and then the stamps are subjected to a pressure of 2,000 tons in a hydraulic press. Next the sheets are cut so that each one contains 100 stamps, after which the paper between the stamps is perforated, and after being pressed the sheets are filed away. If a single stamp is injured the whole sheet is burned.

"My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing doing him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhoea or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.
 They read The Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes The Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family bedside is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a half of a family of two thousand is worth nothing for through these columns, especially so at our very

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE,

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

will contribute, especially for young readers, a thrillingly interesting story of African Adventure.

NATURAL HISTORY AND ADVENTURE.

There will be several articles written by Raymond B. Hays, who has been called by Mr. W. T. Stead the best interviewer in England, from material furnished him by Karl Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, the great animal importer and trainer. These articles deal with

The Capture of Wild Beasts. The Transportation of Wild Beasts. The Training of Wild Beasts. The Adventures and Escapes of Karl Hagenbeck. The series will be illustrated by an English artist of acknowledged skill in drawing wild animals.

John Burroughs, C. F. Hensley, Dr. C. C. Abbott, and other writers famous for their work in this field, will contribute to the magazine.

Of Interest to both Young and Old will be

PROF. A. L. GARNER'S AFRICAN EXPEDITION TO THE GORILLAS. Arrangements have been made, in connection with a leading English review, to publish Prof. Garner's letters descriptive of his present expedition to Africa. Prof. Garner is noted the world over for the curious and interesting investigations he is making in the speech of monkeys. He sailed for Africa last September for the sake of further pursuing his studies in the native haunts of the gorilla. The illustrations for these articles will be from photographs taken by Prof. Garner. The magazine also contains most interesting articles under the following comprehensive heads:
