THE DALLES OREGON

HAS A HARD TIME.

Some of the Trials and Tribulations of Russia's Czar.

His imperial majesty the czar of all the Russias appears to have more difficulty in crossing his realm by rail than the average tramp has in going from San Francisco to New York. To avoid the watchful nihilist, armed to the teeth and equipped with bombs, the imperial train of shell-proof cars travels in three sections, which has proven as bewildering to the sanguinary subject as three-car monte to the average rustic. Still, this is not the only precaution. An army division is spread out along the line, and the ground is carefully paced by soldiers stationed twenty-five feet apart. From the last report we are informed that in spite of shell-proof cars and a vigilant soldiery, the imperial party narrowly escaped death by falling into a stream, the cars having jumped the track. In view of this, who can say the American tramp, beating his way from ocean to ocean, does not travel with less anxiety of mind than the autocrat of all the Russias?

PASTOR AND PEOPLE.

THERE are 200,000 Norwegian Lutherans in the United States.

The largest Gothic church in the world is Cologne cathedral. Its foundation stones were laid in 1248, and the edifice was completed in 1880.

The emperor of Germany asserts that the court preachers are taking too much of his time, and ordered that no sermon shall last more than six minutes.—N. Y. World.

The lord bishop of Chichester is the oldest bishop in England. He is over ninety years of age, and yet he attends to all the duties of his diocese without the aid of a coadjutor.

Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper, of San Francisco, has a Sunday-school class of more than three hundred intelligent men and women. She has taught a Bible class for more than forty years.

My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhoea or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NOTICE.

Inasmuch as my wife, Georgie Anna Brooks, has, without just cause or provocation, left my bed and board, against my wishes and consent, and refuses to return or further live with me, I hereby warn all persons not to give her any credit on my account, as I will not pay any bills of her contracting after this date. The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.

They read THE CHRONICLE to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes THE CHRONICLE an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family decides in the one that the advertiser of today patronizes when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a trade of a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very cheap Advertising Rates.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE,

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

will contribute, especially for young readers, a thrillingly interesting story of African Adventure.

NATURAL HISTORY AND ADVENTURE.

There will be several articles written by Raymond Blathwayt, who has been called by Mr. W. T. Stead the best interviewer in England, from material furnished him by Karl Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, the great animal importer and trainer. These articles deal with

The Capture of Wild Beasts. The Transportation of Wild Beasts. The Training of Wild Beasts. The Adventures and Escapes of Karl Hagenbeck. The series will be illustrated by an English artist of acknowledged skill in drawing wild animals.

JOHN BURROUGHS, C. F. HOLDEN, DR. C. C. ABBOTT, and other writers famous for their work in this field, will contribute to the magazine.

Of Interest to both Young and Old will be

PROF. R. L. GARNER'S AFRICAN EXPEDITION TO THE GORILLAS.

Arrangements have been made, in connection with a leading English review, to publish Prof. Garner's letters descriptive of his present expedition to Africa. Prof. Garner is noted the world over for the curious and interesting investigations he is making in the speech of monkeys. He sailed for Africa last September for the sake of further pursuing his studies in the native haunts of the gorilla. The illustrations for these articles will be from photographs taken by Prof. Garner.

The magazine also contains most interesting articles under the following comprehensive heads: "The Edge of the Future," "Knowledge of Immediate Value," "Newest Knowledge," "The Present Hour," "Stranger than Fiction," etc.

We are offering this splendid magazine with the DAILY CHRONICLE for only $7.50 a year, payable in advance or in monthly installments as desired.

We make this exceptional offer in order that we may secure a large number of new subscribers, but all who are already subscribers may avail themselves of this opportunity to secure this great magazine. Fill up the blank and send it to us.
