MARKET REPORT.

THURSDAY, July 27.—The conditions of trade remain with little interest to note. In lines other than the provision, the business has been of a hand to mouth character.

Our provision market is up to its standard in stocks on hand, and prices continue unchanged. The produce market shows a large supply with the present price governing trade.

Poultry is more freely offered and spring broilers are quoted at from $2.00 to $3.50 per dozen.

The meat market remains steady on former quotations. Beef cattle and mutton are in fair demand.

The wool market situation continues unchanged in our city. Eastern advices of the 21st inst. promises but little encouragement to holders.

The condition of the wheat market is very quiet. Deliveries are more limited and quotations are steady at old rates.

Foreign markets are weak and unsettled. The crop reports from Europe and Asia are still conflicting.

That a report has got out that 200,000,000 bushels will be required to supply this year's deficiency.

Telegrams from the different crop bureaus in the United States indicate a small surplus of 15,000,000 bushels.

Chicago Horse Market.

J. S. Cooper, commission salesman of horses, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, says:

The horse market has improved some in the last week, but we cannot give much encouragement to shippers, as we look for a quiet market for some weeks.

The demand for good smooth horses is fair, and they are bringing good prices for this season of the year.

Following is summary of prices: Strokers smooth chunks, 11500-1200-15 $ 750-800

Our Old Fire Company. "That was a gay old company that we belonged to, Joe, away back in '68, when you and I ran with the machine." Do you remember that big fire in Hotel Row, one freezing night, when fifteen people were pulled out of their burning rooms and came down in their night-clothes;

and how 'Dick' Green brought down two 'kids' at once—one in his arms, the other slung on his back?

Poor 'Dick'! He got the catarrh dreadfully from so much exposure, and suffered from it five years or more.

TO BE CONTESTED.

The Will of the Late Mrs. Love to Be Set Aside if Possible. Dispatch.

Suit is to be brought to have set aside the will of the late Mrs. Lewis Love, filed three months ago or longer. The will on record gives her entire estate valued at about $500,000, to her husband, who is worth $2,000,000.

While on her death bed she appeared worried about the will, and had talked with her son Captain Fred Love, about it.

A few days before her death, Lewis Love, the father, had Fred Love charged with insanity, but on examination before the probate judge the charge was dismissed.

It will be urged that this step was taken to prevent Mrs. Love from abrogating her last will when she had an opportunity.

It is said to be easy of proof that Lewis Love has purposely neglected his offspring, although possessed of great wealth which he will soon have to quit.

He is intentionally distressing his children who are entitled to the estate left by the mother.

During the latter's sickness, a daughter who lives on Hood river, took care of her until her health broke down, and she is now an invalid in straitened circumstances.

and denied any share of the vast wealth of her parents, which is being hoarded by Lewis Love.

Mrs. Love lies buried in a lonely spot on Columbia Slough, instead of resting in Lone Fir or some other decent place.

The right of a father who is possessed of more property than he can handle, to distress his children, by withholding what should be given them, will be questioned in the contest.
