signed me with all the energy and ability I possess. The Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 .- The republican caucus was held in the rooms of the committee on judiciary tonight to nominate candidates for officers for the 53d congress. Henderson of Illinois presided, and Hooker of New York acted as secretary. When it came to nominating necting with steamer Regulator for The the ticket that is to be defeated Monday, General Henderson nominated ex-Speaker Reed, saving that he would name a man whose record and whose 3.00 hold on the popular heart would make a more eloquent appeal than anything he might be able to say. The nomination was made by acclamation and after prolonged applause Reed responded in one ot his characteristic speeches, his sareastic drawl having lost none of its pungency during the summer recess. Four months ago, he said, they had left congress and returned to their homes with the country in a prosperous condition. All mills were running, the spindles playing, the furnaces roaring, labor employed everywhere and the people happy.

He continued: "Now we are called back to find an extraordinary business depression, a distrust in all circles and a general demoralization of the finances of the country, a condition, of course, precipitated by the democratic failure to legislate. In this emergency the democrats call upon the republicans to lay aside all been done in the past and join with the democrats to get them out of their present trouble." There was no attempt on the part of Reed to outline the party's policy, and he concluded by saying the republican asked to do no more.

NERVE OF LING SING.

The Wolcott Captain's Private Steward Proves a Smuggler.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 5 .- The culmination of one of the most startling and sensational affairs in the history of Puget sound smuggling occurred here today when Ling Sing was taken into custody on the charge of smuggling. The Celestial is none other than the private steward to Captain Roath, commanding the United States revenue steamer Wolcott, and that vessel has been the means by which the contraband drug has been brought over from the other side and smuggled into the United States without paying the necessary revenue fees. Sing is probably one of the best educated Chinamen of

He has been aboard, in his present capacity, for nearly twelve years and Democratic, Republican and Populist never before the present time came under the eye of suspicion. Just how long Sing has been engaged in the traffic of opium is not known, and it might have been continued indefinitely had not the discovery of his crime been made through accident. Today the cutter visited Victoria and was about to business. His reported victims, who pull away from the dock when Sing had paid fees for fictitious claims across rushed headlong down the wharf. The plank was in, so he was forced to climb over the rail. A REVEREND SWINDLER.

Had Defrauded Persons Who Thought They Had Claims in Europe.

Jackson, Tenn., Aug.--News was received here today of the arrest of Dr. Frederick Howard, of this city. in Chicago, where he and his family were attending the world's fair. Howard is charged with using the United States' mails for fraudulent purposes in connection with his European claims agency the Atlantic, kicked vigorously when their British possessions were not forthcoming, and especially when the doctor broke off correspondence, and a lively correspondence sprung up between Secto the matter, and federal officers were put to work to run the man down. Howard returned from Europe last winter, where he claimed to have been appointed by a syndicate as president of the proposed Gulf & Ship Island railway, extending southward from Jackson, with its southern terminus at Ship island. The scheme has been most valuable to him in his collecting business, as he used the printed stationery of the proposed road, bearing his name as president. Local officials and citizens have received hundreds of inquiries concerning him from reported victims. Howard is an Englishman and a doctor of divinity, a minister of the Baptist church, and a lawyer. He became widely known in I889 in his suit for $50,000 against two newspapers and leading members of the First Baptist church of this city who had published an article ventilating his record, and acmany unpleasant things were said. Mrs. cusing him of bearing a false name.

The jury awarded him one cent damages. Inspector McLaughlin was put on the case, and after swearing out a warrant for the arrest of the doctor he went to the address given with a deputy marshal. unable to attend the sessions of the It was the right place, but the doctor committee she sent her sister to act as was not at home.
