THE DALLES OREGON

A FEW OBSERVATIONS.

Power of language is indicated by fullness beneath the eyes.
Each salmon, it is estimated, produces about 20,000,000 eggs.

MAN'S finger nails grow about an inch and a half every year.

The nickname of Austin, Tex., seems unfortunate. They call it the dam city. There is a sea on the Californian coast which is colored vermilion by the presence of vast quantities of minute shell fish and zoophytes.

The negroes in Virginia are becoming thrifty. They pay taxes on real estate valued at $9,453,685, and on personal property worth $1,342,050.

Most vegetarians believe that it is cruel to kill animals for the sake of using their flesh as food; hence they abstain from meat. Some of them refuse to wear leather shoes for the same reason, and have their feet-covering made of felt.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. 1m.

Benedict's vs. Bachelors.
It is stated that among every 1,000 bachelors there are thirty-eight criminals; among married men the ratio is only eighteen per 1,000.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. 1m.

Towels galore. See N. Harris' show window.
Go to N. Harris for fine prints; 20 yards for $1.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

THE DALLES
Wasco County, Oregon.
The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.
ITS TERRITORY.
It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.
The Largest Wool Market.
The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.
The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.
ITS PRODUCTS.
The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.
The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.
ITS WEALTH.
It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.
Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
