THE DALLES OREGON

If You Were Rich?

A Tacoma paper has been asking Tacoma men and women what they would do if they had a fortune. Some of the answers are decidedly naive and entertaining. Two young women promptly said they would give up all idea of marrying, but a third declared that she certainly would wed if the right man came along. One working girl said she would take a good long nap the next morning instead of turning out at 6 o'clock. Half of the answers showed a longing for foreign travel, from which it becomes evident that about the worst thing that could happen to this country would be the enrichment of everybody. The other half make airy promises of charity and philanthropy, promises that would be forgotten in most cases if fortune should be thrust upon the persons making them, for nothing is more certain than the certainty that a person who will do nothing for charity and philanthropy when in moderate circumstances would do little if suddenly thrust into the possession of great wealth.

Perhaps the truest answer was embodied in three words—"I'd grow richer"—said one man who was either a philosopher or an exceedingly frank person. That is what nine-tenths of the rich people do or try to do, and that is what nine-tenths of the poor people would do if fortune's wild wheel were suddenly to lift them into affluence. Airy resolutions would wither as Jonah's gourd withered in the sand and the sun of the desert, and the deeper influences of human nature would make of these people just such characters as wealth has made of the majority of people when suddenly thrust upon them.

Since its first introduction, electric bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c., 50c. and $1.00. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
