Partisanship is wholly irrelevant in this matter of the Sherman bill and what is best to be done in the premises, and only the most bigoted of newspapers will reduce it to a question of the superiority of methods of the one party or the other. It is foreign to the spirit of the world's press, comments of which are universally telegraphed. In the slight reference made to it by the president himself he denies that it is a party question, stating that it is geographical rather than political. The following comment from the Chicago Record is a sample of the numerous sensible comments made on this score: "The president's message is a remarkable document in no respect, save in its straightforwardness and calm business tone. The question submitted to congress is not of political character and should not be used from an angle of partisanship. Instead of endeavoring to lay the blame for enactment of the Sherman law upon republicans, he says mildly that it may be considered to have been a truce between the advocates of free coinage and those intending to be more conservative."

The farmer of the west wants no unstable, irredeemable or wildcat currency. Nor does he want one so dear and so scarce that it requires testimony to establish the fact that it is in existence. Such a currency can be secured by a mintage of the product of our own gold and silver mines, upon an agreed ratio, and by a paper currency based upon the same. Let the country be honest with its farmers and its farmers will be honest with labor.—Exchange.

The states of Oregon and Washington each have over 100,000 milch cows, or 208,000 in all. If this number of cows were even up to the average standard of cows for the whole of the United States they would supply all the butter, cheese and milk required for home consumption. As it is the greater part of the cheese and a very large amount of the butter consumed in the two states is imported from other states.

The Chicago Record makes this savage comment on the late electrocution in New York state: "The last execution in New York by the humane method of electricity consumed just fifty-five minutes, during which period the victim was alive and groaning. This is the only instance of recent years in which a civilized commonwealth legally tortured a culprit before killing him."

There is no sale for some varieties of perishable fruit. Early clingstone peaches are reported rotting on the ground for lack of a market. Some varieties of fruit, as the foregoing, are too perishable to stand long shipment, and when the local market is supplied, sales are ended. Orchardists should be judicious as to the varieties they plant.

It is true that at present business is very much depressed and money is tight. Yet if the railroads would furnish really good passenger accommodations at reduced rates there would be no lack of custom. The excursion trains would be in constant demand and the railroads of the country would be reaping very gratifying profits.

A year ago the country was terrorized over the expected advent of cholera. Now all fear of it is ended. It is a good illustration of the extremes to which a panic may lead. A year hence people will be wondering what there was to justify the present financial scare.

The busiest congressmen at Washington at the present time are the free silver coinage advocates. They have ample cause to be watchful of their interests, for salt petre won't save them.

The Spokane Review says the republican who shall vote for the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law will also vote to let down the bars of protection.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.

MARKET REPORT.

THURSDAY, August 11, 1893.—Unusual quietness has prevailed in all branches of trade this far in the season's business. The merchants have bought sparingly, and sales have been of the usual hand to mouth character among buyers and consumers. The large orders made for goods to stock up with, have been largely cancelled and only such replenishing has been made as was absolutely necessary to supply the pressing demand from day to day. Prices have not changed, although there has been a disposition to shade somewhat in certain lines. The grocery trade, especially in the retail line, has been steady and yet, some complain of a dullness in that branch. The same is said in provision lines.

The produce market is weak and unsatisfactory. Vegetables are abundant and prices are nominal. Potatoes and cabbage are in great abundance, and sellers realize only 1/4 cents per pound for them. Fruit is likewise plentiful and prices are down to almost bedrock, as a producer said yesterday. The quality of all kinds is above the average. Summer Bellflower apples were sold yesterday for 50 to 60 cents per box with a limited demand and sale.

The grain market is very quiet and really is lifeless. Reports from Eastern and European markets are weak in tone, and our own Western markets are dull in consequence.

The wool situation continues decidedly dead on the basis of "free wool," and as some one said a few days ago, was "worse and worse." As congress is in session, hopes are entertained that legislation will improve the condition of markets and business in every sphere in the near future.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

The Severest Felt in California for Many Years.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 9.—The severest earthquake felt here since 1808 occurred this morning at 1:12 o'clock. The oscillations were apparently southeast and northwest. Considerable damage was done in the way of falling chimney, broken windows, etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—A sharp shock of earthquake was felt in this city at 1:10 a. m. It was also experienced at Oakland and Sacramento.

National Conservatory of Music.

The National Conservatory of Music, 126 E. 17th St., New York, furnishes instruction gratis to all persons without means, having remarkable talent and showing aptitude for receiving instruction. The nominal fees demanded from others are expended in furthering the usefulness of the institution. It is the desire of the board to gather from all parts of the United States pupils whose after-labors will advance the cause of music in their native land.

The conservatory places the best obtainable musical education within the reach of all: it is open to those of every race, creed and color upon the condition that they give proof of sufficient natural talent to justify their admission. The full course of instruction covers from three to six years, but varies with the aptitude and diligence of the students.

Following composes the entrance examinations:

Singing.—September 21st, 22d and 23d, from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., and on the evening of the 25d. Chorus, from 8 to 10 p. m.

Piano.—September 26th and 27th, from 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.

Viola, violin, contrabass, cello, harp.—September 28th, from 10 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m.

Orchestra and all wind instruments.—September 29th, from 2 to 5 p. m.

Composition (Dr. Dvorak's class).—October 2d, from 8 to 12 a. m., and 2 to 5 p. m.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.
