IN RECEIVERS' HANDS The Northern Pacific Railroad Company. NOW IN CONTROL OF THE COURTS. The Appointments Made in New York This Morning--No Surprise to Wall Street.

New York, Aug. 15.—Thomas F. Oakes, of New York, W. H. Payne, of Milwaukee, and Henry Crouse, president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad company, were this afternoon appointed receivers of the Northern Pacific railroad in the United States court in this city.

The appointment of receivers did not come as a surprise to the street, although not announced until after 3 o'clock. Brokers were prepared for the news, as rumors of such stories had been plentiful all day.

These receivers are the same as those appointed in Wisconsin. They gave bonds in $500,000 in the United States court there, and were ordered to give a bond of $500,000 here. The application was made with the consent of the railroad company.

Additional Particulars Regarding the Explosion. The explosion of the steamer Annie Faxon are to the effect that the boat was attempting to land at Waite's bar, forty miles below Lewiston, at 7 o'clock a. m., and when about eight feet from the shore the boiler exploded.

At Indianapolis, on the Indiana state fair grounds yesterday, entries closed for the five-mile "forced march," in which members of the G. A. R. alone will participate.

Reports from the militia camp of the First regiment O. N. G., at the Clackamas river, say that the soldiers have quieted down to the fact that it is business and not boys' play to be a soldier.
