That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family bedside is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. NEWS NOTES.

Four hundred chairpushers at the Chicago fair have struck against a reduction in pay.
 The Southern California railway has postponed its payday from the 15th to the 31st of August, on account of scarcity of funds.
 Seven thousand of Chicago's unemployed held a meeting in Chicago Tuesday and adopted resolutions calling upon congress to do away with the present evils in the financial world, and demanding that the Haymarket monument erected in the memory of the policemen killed during the anarchist riots of 1886 be torn down.
 Political Economist Horace F. Cutler proposes a scheme to end the monetary stringency by buying British Columbia, paying therefor in silver bars. "One hundred millions of dollars, payable in silver bars at say an average of 39 cents per ounce, would give England the opportunity of converting the same into coin, which might be made so as to correspond precisely in value to our own dollar. By international agreement a similar amount of $140,000,000 could be coined by the United States, both giving $280,000,000 of silver coins to be interchangeable between the people of both countries; thus taking an immense step in the direction of the 'coin union.'"

Too Bad.

There's war among the natives at Grande Ronde—not exactly among the natives but on the domain supplied them by Uncle Samuel. There is in the schools of the agency a white "schoolmarm," who not long ago was brought on from the east. On the reservation is a young brave, who would be taken for a white man, though Indian blood courses through his veins. A deep friendship sprang up between the school marm and the young brave, and their friendship deepened into love. They were to have been married last week, the house was furnished into which they would settle down into happy domestic life. But "there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." A bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked maid of the forest appears on the scene, and Friday, with the brave who was to have married the white woman, went to Dallas, where the nuptial knot was tied. In consequence the schoolmarm was interviewing Justice Field at Sheridan Saturday, and swearing vengeance on her betrayer.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.

It is said that the new city directory of Baltimore indicates an increase of 26,000 in the population of the city during the past year, due largely to the growth of manufacturing interests in the city and suburbs.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, 1m.

THE DALLES
 Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.
ITS TERRITORY.
 It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.
The Largest Wool Market.
 The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.
 The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.
ITS PRODUCTS.
 The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.
 The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.
ITS WEALTH.
 It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.
 Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
