The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.

They read the Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family firesides is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a trade of a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very Governor Penneyer will not call an extra session.

J. M. Howell, janitor of the statehouse at Salem, has a concordance of the Bible printed in 1835.

The Riddle Enterprise estimates the South Umpqua and Cow creek prune crop at 2,000,000 pounds.

Sam Shade, of Grants Pass, 50 years of age, was seized with cramps and drowned in two feet of water in full view of his family.

Maggie Durst was yesterday adjudged insane by Justice Knight, ex-officio county judge, and was taken to Salem by Sheriff Ford.

At the coroner's inquest held over the body of Lieut. Nelson, A. T. Workman testified that he first saw Nelson leaning over the tongue of a caisson and scuffling with two members of the opposing force, who were attempting to prevent the capture of the gun by Lieutenant Nelson's company. Workman ran to Nelson's assistance, and just after his arrival heard him say: "Let me loose, I am hurt." He was allowed to recline on the ground, and his wound examined. Dr. Macrum was sent for, and arriving a few minutes later had Nelson removed to his tent. Workman is of the opinion that the fatal shot was fired by a member of the opposing force whose name and identity he does not know.

WASHINGTON.

Hop culture is a leading industry in some sections of the state. Crops this year will be abundant.

Nearly a dozen principal business houses were burned Tuesday morning at Fairfield. There was only a bucket brigade to fight the flames which soon got beyond control. The total loss is about $12,000.

A tramp entered a house near Dayton where two women, one of them sick, were alone. He quickly sized up the situation, and as the occupants of the house were too frightened to disturb him, he coolly set the table from the cupboard, ate a hearty meal and departed in peace.

Forest fires are raging in the woods about South Bend, and there are fears that portions of the town will be burned if the dry weather continues. A number of settlers have lost their cabins and others are not only anxious for their homes, but for the hemlock bark they have peeled for market, and which is now dry.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. 1m.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE,

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
