The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.

They read The Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family firesides is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very

THE DALLES OREGON

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Mrs. Susan Williams, an Oregon pioneer, died in Portland yesterday. She is 71 years of age, and located in the Umpqua valley in 1853.

The acreage of hops in Polk county has trebled over last year's production. It will give work to a great many idle and bring hundreds of thousands of dollars into the county.

George Markle is pressing his rich relatives for financial aid, of which he has quite a few. As a consequence the Oregon National will probably be the first suspended Portland bank to open.

Frank Boulter of Brooks, Or., will realize $1,221 per acre for seven acres of onions this year. They were grown in a former lake bottom, which is very rich land, and the varieties are the Yellow Globe Danvers and Red Wethersfield, the leading varieties of winter onions.

Mr. Thomas Batts, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, Im.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE, Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

HENRY M. STANLEY will contribute, especially for young readers, a thrillingly interesting story of African Adventure.

NATURAL HISTORY AND ADVENTURE. There will be several articles written by Raymond Dartmouth, who has been called by Mr. W. Stead the best interpreter in England, from material furnished liberally by Karl Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, the great animal importer and trainer. These articles deal with

The Capture of Wild Beasts. The Transportation of Wild Beasts. The Training of Wild Beasts. The Adventures and Escapes of Karl Hagenbeck. The series will be illustrated by an English artist of acknowledged skill in drawing wild animals.

JOHN BURROUGHS, C. E. HOLDER, DR. C. C. ANBERT, and other writers famous for their work in this field, will contribute to the magazine.

Of interest to both Young and Old will be PROF. R. L. GARNER'S AFRICAN EXPEDITION TO THE GORILLA. Arrangements have been made, in connection with a leading English review, to publish Prof. Garner's letters descriptive of his present expedition to Africa. Prof. Garner is noted all over for the curious and interesting investigations he is making in the speech of monkeys called for Africa last September for the sake of further pursuing his studies in the native habits of the gorilla. The illustrations for these articles will be from photographs taken by Prof. Garner. The magazine also contains most interesting articles under the following comprehensive titles: "The Edge of the Future," "Knowledge of Immediate Value," "Newest Knowledge," "The Present Hour," "Stranger than Fiction," etc.

We are offering this splendid magazine with the DAILY CHRONICLE for only $7.20 a year, in advance or in monthly installments as desired.
