THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A Handsome Edifice--The Pulpit--The Dedication Ceremonies.

The Christian church, to be dedicated Sunday, is completed, and is a very handsome and commodious edifice. The main room is 34x35, and in conjunction with the vestry room, which is 14x28, will comfortably seat 230 persons. Both are tastefully carpeted, and are well lighted with windows of frosted glass with colored borders. An organ with be furnished each room. The entrance is roomy and leads to both rooms, so that the church can be vacated in a very few minutes. The three will be lighted by incandescent lights. The basement is finished and painted and will be used for church entertainments and for meetings of the ladies societies of the church. The building is provided with closets and connected with the city water works and the sewer. At the rear of the pulpit is the baptistry, separated by folding doors. The ceremonies will be in plain sight of the audience, and after immersion the doors may be closed, and the initiates retire to suitable dressing rooms adjoining. A bell has been placed in the tower and its tones will be heard for the first time on Sunday morning.

The appointments are so thorough, and all details have been attended to so carefully, even to the leveling of the ground and the construction of a broad sidewalk on both sides of the building, as to call for considerable praise to the members of the new church, who really number but about thirty.

The lecture or pulpit to be used was presented by Elder J. W. Jenkins, made of a variety of native woods of the island of Jamaica, where he was a missionary for three years. It is of beautiful construction and design and very valuable. The standard is made of lignum vite, handsomely turned and polished. The base is of brazillito, with braces of blood-wood and mouldings of mahoe. The table is trimmed with pigeon wood es-calloped, framed with cocoanut palm and a border of candlewood. There are also strips of breadfruit in it, the tree of which was blown down by a cyclone on the mission grounds. Both the bread-fruit and the cocoanut have often fur-nished food for Mr. Jenkins while act-ing as a missionary. The drops from the corners are of cusher. The whole is beautifully painted and varnished and will be "a thing of beauty and a joy for-ever."

The dedicatory services will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday. Rev. W. F. Cowden of Tacoma, superintendent of missions in the northwest for the Christian church, will preach. Miss Clara Moore, of Vienna, O., a singer evangelist of wide celebrity, will be present to con-duct the singing. At 12 o'clock a basket dinner will be given in the basement and all who are not provided with a lunch will be served. At 3 p. m., Rev. P. H. McGuffey of Kentucky, will ad-dress the audience. Rev. J. T. Eshel-man, of Tacoma, a brother of Dr. Eshel-man of this city, will preach in the evening at 8 o'clock. Daily services will thereafter be held for three weeks, Miss Moore being present at each ser-vice.

AUGUST ANGLINGS.

Small Fry Hooked by Persistent Chronicle Reporters.

If he had come in the early dawn I would have given him all my heart. Whatever the heart was worth. If he had come at the noonday hour He wouldn't have come too late. I would have given him patient faith. For then I had learned to wait. But he came to me in the gloaming time. When another man was there. So I told him two were company, and I broke him up with a pair.

Indications point to a big turnout next Monday.

The public schools will not open Monday on account of it being Labor day.

St. Mary's Academy will open on Monday next for the admission of pupils. It promises a prosperous year for their patrons.

The thermometer indicated the temper-ature to be high in the 90's this after-noon. It is the hottest day of August, as well as the last and the shortest one.

It is reported the wages of the section hands this side of Umatilla are to be re-duced to $1.30 per day and on the other side to $1.40 per day Monday. Section foremen are reduced $10 per month. This is just about the starvation limit.

The Veteran Volunteer Firemen of Portland have extended an invitation to all other volunteer organizations of fire-men who wish to participate in the fire-men's day celebration at The Dalles to meet with them at 5 p. m. Sunday and march in a body to the train. The veter-ans have engaged a band and expect to turn out 80 or 90 men.

Stevenson, Wash., is the name of a new town on the north bank of the Col-umbia, about a mile and a half above the Cascades. A contract has been let for ten new buildings and another for grading the streets. A bank will be a feature of the new city. The Pioneer announces its intention to publish its next issue there if it has to set the type under a tall pine tree.

A foolish escapade on the part of two young ladies of The Dalles is the talk of the streets today. As the parties are young, inexperienced girls, and thoughtless to the danger point, public sentiment should be strongly wielded to save them. The blighting, poisoned breath of gossip will only drive them to lower degradation, whereas kind thoughts and words and friendly aid will restore them to their endangered womanhood. Do not cast the first stone.

SIMPLY BAD LUCK.

Mr. Clark Explains the Situation as to the Earl Fruit Co.

PORTLAND, Aug. 30th 1893.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

It needs no argument to prove that the present year has no precedent in our history as one of financial disaster. In the best of good faith, I undertook to work for Oregon fruit growers, while finding a market for my own fruit this year, and made arrangement for shipping Oregon fruit east on the same plan ex-actly as is followed by the fruit growers of California. The same identical plan followed by the fruit growers union there. This was at $1.25 per 100 lbs. for the freight, and $125 to the car com-pany for use of refrigerator, car and icing same on the way to eastern cities. The Earl Fruit company to furnish ex-perienced men to supervise packing and loading, and furnish material necessary as an advance. I explained this to the growers publicly, and have shipped two large lots of my own fruit in the same way at the same charges, making a full car load in all. It was unfortunate that our fruit met in the eastern markets an immense quantity of similar fruit from California, but the published auction sales show that Oregon peach plums brought a higher price than others sold at the same time. My own shipments were a loss to me, but I know all was fairly done, and that we were simply unfortunate and need not be discouraged as to the future. It was simply due to the conditions of the present year.

Monday the 28th, pears and plums sold 50 per cent. higher than for weeks before, and must still rise in value be-cause we have the field to ourselves. California plums and Bartlett's are al-most entirely gone, and the Atlantic peach crop, that has been abundant and low priced, is also marketed, so that the field is left open for our pears and late plums. The advance in prices shows this. I see no other way to market my own fruit, and know that the great pear orchards of Oregon will send their fruit to Chicago. We simply have shared the misfortunes of the year, and now that things look brighter, may hope to reap benefits from our fruit crop.

S. A. CLARKE.

They will be escorted by our firemen from the boat to their head-quarters. The Dalles City band will be at the dock when the boat arrives to escort them. By request.

Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diar-rhea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that re-lieved him at once. Excess Over Estimates.

Threshing is progressing very satis-factorily among our farmers. As far as heard from the yield is in excess of esti-mates 10 to 20 bushels per acre. Mr. J. K. Koontz of 8-Mile, threshed wheat out yesterday 23 bushels per acre, which no one estimated over 20 bushels per acre. Reports from Wamic and that section, are first class. Mr. P. W. Knowle's wheat threshed out 45 bushels per acre from his farm. This was an excess of five to eight bushels more than expected. Taking these reports as a criterion of the yield through the country, Wasco will come to the front this year.
