BISHOP LAWRENCE.

Something About the Successor of the Famous Phillips Brooks.

Rev. William T. Lawrence, S. T. D., the successor of Phillips Brooks as bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts, has been dean of the theological school of his church at Cambridge for the past four years and a professor in the same institution for ten years. He is one of the best families of Massachusetts, and himself a native of the state. His grandfather was one of the founders of the city of Lawrence, and the city was named in his honor. It was at Grace church in Lawrence that the bishop-elect officiated as rector for several years after his graduation from the Cambridge theological school, and there was sincere sorrow among his congregation when he resigned to take the post of vice dean and professor of homiletics and pastoral care at his alma mater. He became dean in 1889 on the death of Dean Gray, retaining his professorship.

REV. WILLIAM LAWRENCE, S. T. D.

The school has prospered under his care, and largely because of his endeavors.

Dean Lawrence is about forty-three years of age and is one of a family of seven brothers and sisters. He graduated at Harvard in the famous class of 1871 and afterward prosecuted his theological studies at the Episcopal schools at Andover and Philadelphia, taking his last year at Cambridge in 1876. He married a granddaughter of Bishop Parker, and they have three daughters and one son. The family lives at the deanery of the theological school and has a summer house at Bar Harbor.

The election of Dean Lawrence is essentially a victory for the broad churchmen, and it is expected that he will conduct the affairs of his diocese on the lines laid down by the late Bishop Brooks during his short but brilliant episcopate. There was considerable discussion at the convention about the insufficiency of the bishop's salary, which is not a stated amount, but the income, whatever it may be, of the episcopal fund, which amounts to nearly $140,000. The income last year was $7,000. Some vigorous endeavors will be made to increase the fund.

It Should Be in Every Home.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "la grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kriensy's. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

Mr. Thomas Bette, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. 1m.

THE DALLES Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
