THE FAMINE IN CHINA

FLOOD AND CHOLERA PREVAILING

Captain and Crew of a Steamer Killed by Chinese Passengers—Catholic Mission Destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—The steamer China arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama yesterday, bringing the following advices:

Very sad accounts of flood and famine come from North China, and the distress among the people is terrible. In Ho-Kian men, women, children and cattle are dying of starvation by hundreds, and as many as 30 fatal cases of cholera are reported as taking place in the city daily.

While the Dutch steamer Rajah At-jeh, trading between Penang and the east coast of Acheen, was making a trip recently, the Chinese passengers rose and attacked the crew. They killed the English captain and mate, and 22 others who were presumably Asiatics. They also wounded 15 others of the passengers and crew. After this slaughter the Chinese left the steamer in boats, taking with them several captives. The steamer, afterwards, fell into Dutch hands.

News has been received in Hong Kong of the destruction, during a riot by the natives, of the Catholic mission near Mien Yang. Rev. Mr. Stanley, who has been a resident of Tien-Tsin for 30 years, in a recent letter says:

"Since the murder of the Swedes, the vicery of Nanking has sent word to some of the missionary families, at their summer resort, some 10 miles distant, that he could not protect them there, and they have come in. The simple meaning of this was, liberty to any rough to go and kill them if they remained, and nothing would be done.
Somebody else will be warned next, and so it will go on. It is a scheme to get everybody out of the interior or kill them, and then possibly they will try what can be done at the ports. Probably something of this sort is necessary to arouse foreign interest."

THE SILVER DEBATE.

Vance Speaks in Favor of Free Coinage.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The senate took up the house bill to repeal the silver-purchase clause of the Sherman act with the Voorhees bill as a substitute. Vance of North Carolina, one of the minority members of the finance committee, spoke in opposition to the bill and in favor of free coinage. A large part of his speech was devoted to showing the inconsistencies of the friends of repeal in both parties, in view of the bimetallic declarations of both the national platforms. He quoted from these, commenting in an ironical strain on the way in which the pledges were being fulfilled. He said they seemed to think the only way to maintain the parity between gold and silver was to first strike silver a death blow, and unconditional repeal would be a death blow, for it was known that Cleveland would veto any silver coinage bill. The effect on the condition of mankind following the destruction of half the currency, aggregating $7,500,000,000, it would be impossible to accurately describe. He gave the history of the demonetization of silver, and declared that every government which had demonet-ized the white metal did so when it was at a premium. When coinage stopped in India, the effort to have it stopped in the United States began, aided by the influence of the moneyed power of all the world and our government. If coinage stopped here, silver would cease to live throughout the commercial nations of the earth. The fall in the price would be greater than that following the stoppage of coinage in India. Repeal without a substitute meant an end of silver money for this generation unless a revolution of the people should restore it as it did after the fraudulent demonetization of 1873.
Let no man doubt the proposed repeal was the result of a conspiracy among the money-holders of the world. He declared the Sherman law did not drive out gold, else why did gold return with it still in force? The democratic platform, he said, denounced the Sherman act as a cowardly makeshift, yet this bill for its repeal, striking silver a harder blow, was more cowardly and more of a makeshift. He closed with a declaration for the free coinage of silver.

Reports from Hungary Alarming.
LONDON, Sept. 1.—Seven deaths from cholera occurred in Naples yesterday.

Reports from Hungary continue alarming. In 16 counties of northern Hungary 138 new cases and 87 deaths were reported yesterday. Private advices from Rotterdam say the real extent of the cholera in that city is being suppressed by the authorities. The situation is much worse than admitted. Six cases were reported to the British authorities from various parts of Germany during the past three days. In a large number of places along the Rhine, surveillance has been established to prevent the introduction of cholera. It is reported from Tangier that cholera has broken out among the Jeddah pilgrims on an island off the city of Mogador.

Cholera Growing Worse.

VIENNA, Sept. 1.—Twenty-eight deaths from cholera have occurred at Delatyn, Austrian Galicia. The disease is rapidly spreading in that vicinity. The custom-house at Delatyn is cleared. All intercourse with the building is forbidden, as several officers who have quarters in it have been stricken with the malady. The law courts are also closed and business in the town is at a standstill. The inhabitants are in a state of panic, and all who are able are hurrying from the place. Advices from Smyrna report a similar state of affairs there.

A Chinese Murderer Hanged.

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., Sept. 1.—Lee Doon, a Chinaman, was hanged here this morning for the murder of William Shenton in 1890. Shenton was painting a house where Lee Doon was employed and had a quarrel with the Chinaman.
As Shenton was driving away in a wagon, Lee Doon shot him in the back.
Shenton fell to the ground and the Chinaman fired three more shots into the prostrate man's body.
Lee Doon died without a struggle, his neck being broken by the drop. He was pronounced dead in 13 minutes.

The Beauty Standard.

The standard of female loveliness varies greatly in different countries and with individual tastes. Some prefer the plump and buxom type; some admire the slender and sylph-like, and some the tall and queenly maiden. But among all people of the Caucasian race, one point of beauty is always admired—a pure, clear and spotless complexion—whether the female be of the blonde, brunette, or hazel-eyed type. This first great requisite of loveliness can be assured only by a pure state of the blood, active liver, good appetite and digestion, all of which are secured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
It is guaranteed to accomplish all that is claimed for it, or money refunded.
If you would have a clear, lovely complexion, free from eruptions, moth patches, spots and blemishes, use the "Golden Medical Discovery."

pation and indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be exceeded and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

E. Stanton, of Siletz, son of the store keeper at the Indian agency, was driving through the old sawmill in a wagon yesterday. He stooped to avoid a projecting timber but it struck his back and it is thought broke it. He has been unconscious ever since and is not expected to recover.

MITCHELL NEWS.

Misfortune by Fire—S. F. Allen's Mishap—News Notes.

Campmeeting on Six Shooter will be held two or three weeks.

Mr. Sasser, of the firm of Sasser & Co., has suspended work on his hotel and store for the present.

The last few days the atmosphere has been very smoky from fires, possibly started from sheep or hunters' camps.

Lou Keeting passed through here on his way to The Dalles with a very nice looking horse, which he means to try to dispose of in that place.

At about noon today a span of frightened horses came tearing through town kicking at the harness and parts of a wagon that were still attached to them.
They belonged to Mrs. Bracket, a widow, whose sons had been using them and the wagon. In some way the coupling pole became detached, frightening the horses, which started to run and threw the boys out, hurting one on the shoulder, but not seriously. The wagon is scattered from starting to stopping point.

Misfortunes never come singly, or so it seems in the case of Mr. Minor, who lives with his family ten or twelve miles below here. During the haying season Mrs. Minor, to save a man's wages, since they were needy, filled a man's place in the field. Scarcely had they the satisfaction of looking on the results of their work before fire, in some mysterious way, caught the barn and stacks and entirely consumed them. Their winter's support was gone, for their hay meant food and clothing. Last Saturday fire caught in the house, and raging in all its demoniacal fury, consumed everything they possessed, not anything being saved. The first destruction was not enough, their all must go. The people of Mitchell showed a disposition of true charity, and soon donations of lumber, household goods, clothing, etc., were sufficient to build them a house and keep them from want, at least for a time. Only with tears could the unfortunate couple thank the donors and smile a blessing to them.

S. F. Allen returned early, but not without a slight disaster on the road.
One night he made his camp in Antelope canyon, two miles and a half from Antelope. Some time after he was awakened by distant thunder. Looking to the east there was a dense cloud and a stiff breeze from that direction.
Thinking he would be deluged soon unless he found a place of safety and shelter, he took up his bed and walked up the side hill and found the shelter of a friendly juniper. But he had only settled himself to wait patiently for the coming storm, when he remembered he had left some of his goods exposed and he must return and put them under cover. By this time all was inky darkness; sage brush, greasewood, junipers, etc., rose up before him in unexpected places; and last, but not least of all, an uncommonly large badger hole must be in the road, and to be sure S. F. A. stepped directly into it, consequently he went headlong down the hill, scratching and grabbing at everything and anything to gain a footing, but he tumbled to the bottom and came out unharmed save a bruised shin or two. But the rain did not come.
