THE REFERENDUM.

The referendum, or the initiative and referendum, as it is called, is eliciting considerable discussion at the present time, and while its introduction would necessarily involve a good deal of general work and red tape, it withal possesses many virtues. Strictly carried into execution there would be no chance for the people to complain of the legislature because of unjust laws passed. Of course the multiplicity and variety of laws which would be petitioned for might be overwhelming in numbers and provisions, but the responsibility would all revert to the people. The initiative may be defined as the exercise of the right of a body of voters to initiative proposals for the enactment of new laws or for the alteration or abolition of existing laws. The referendum is an institution by virtue of which laws and resolutions, framed by legislatures, are referred to the voters for final acceptance or rejection. The initiative is in vogue in fourteen out of twenty-two Swiss cantons, the referendum in twenty-one. Both institutions are now applicable to federal matters, so that they cannot be said to be any longer in an experimental stage. They have become fixtures in Switzerland.

W. D. McCracken, in the May Arena, asks: "Has there ever been a time under our representative system when a citizen could cast his ballot without fear of being tricked out of its true meaning? The referendum would make it possible for him to register a definite 'yes' or 'no' to a particular measure. It would sweep away the unknown quantities in legislation. There is no confusion in a simple assent or dissent to a proposition bereft of the perplexing adjuncts of personalities or party loyalty." At all events, we must have done once for all with this farce of legislation in which the people are alternately duped and balked by cliques conspiring for sordid infamies. Making laws by means of all powerful representatives will some day be looked upon as a method fully as crude and primitive as that of letter-writing by means of scribes on the street corners. The will of the people can now be registered at headquarters, by means of modern inventions, with a precision unknown in the days of stage coach and courier.

As for the rest, a great world tendency has set in definitely toward the exercise of popular rights at first hand. All the efforts of the privileged classes to block this advance can only serve to intensify the catastrophes their obstinacy may entail. It was an English military administrator in India, Sir Charles James Napier, who wrote in his work on colonization: "As to government, all discontent springs from unjust treatment. Idiots talk of agitation; there is but one in existence, and that is injustice. The cure for discontent is to find out where the shoe pinches and ease it. If you hang an agitator and leave the injustice, instead of punishing a villain you murder a patriot."

Then let there be free speech, an infinite toleration and a sense of human brotherhood in our councils.

Mr. Charles A. Sweet, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the fortunate possessor of the finest Jersey cow in America if not in the world. She is named Ida Marigold and took first premium at the world's fair on Tuesday. She was entered about four months ago in what is called test No. 1, capacity for making cheese in which she not only took first premium for Jerseys, but the sweepstakes premium for Jerseys, Guernseys and Shorthorns. She is now engaged in a ninety-days contest for butter-making, at the close of which she will go into a thirty-days' contest with regard to the amount of food consumed. Her record as a butter-maker is fifty pounds in fourteen days. She is valued at $5,000.

Notice:
Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received for the re-covering of the cistern at the intersection of Washington and Third streets. Said bids will be received until Saturday noon September 2nd, 1893, at the recorder's office, in Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon. The right to reject any and all bids is hereby reserved. The city to furnish all material for the re-covering of said cistern and said bids to be for the labor in re-covering the same.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kan.) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus, and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

PROPOSALS
—FOR—
Flour, Bran and Feed.

H. S. Indian Service, Warm Springs Agency.

WARM SPRINGS, Crook Co., Or., Aug. 2, 1893.
Sealed proposals, in duplicate, for Flour, Bran and Feed, as the case may be, and addressed to the undersigned at Warm Springs, Oregon, will be received at this agency until 1 o'clock P. M. of Tuesday, September 13, 1893, for furnishing and delivering at the agency about 45,000 lbs. of flour, 20,000 lbs. of bran, and 20,000 lbs. of feed.
Flour must be either what is known as "straight top stock" of good sound wheat, or the ground down to about 42 lbs. of flour, low grades to be taken out; or it may be what is known as patent flour, and delivered in extra strong single cotton sacks to weigh 49 lbs. net. Samples of not less than 25 lbs. must be furnished by bidders, said samples to be distinctly marked with the name of the bidder, and the number of the sample if more than one is submitted.
Bran must be of good quality, equal parts bran and shorts mixed; samples of not less than 25 lbs. must be furnished by bidders.
Feed must be clear barley, fresh rolled, free from dirt and rust; samples of not less than 25 lbs. must be furnished by bidders.
Delivery.—Of the above there is to be delivered at the steamship school, located 20 miles north of the agency, 24,000 lbs. of flour, 10,000 lbs. bran, and 10,000 lbs. of feed; and at the agency, 21,000 lbs. of flour, 10,000 lbs. bran, and 10,000 lbs. of feed. All articles are to be subject to a rigid inspection.
Proposals must state specifically the proposed price of each article offered for delivery under a contract by the cwt., not barrels or tons.
The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, or any part of any bid if deemed for the best interest of the service.
Certified checks—Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft upon some United States depositing or solvent national bank in the vicinity of the residence of the bidder, made payable to the order of the commissioner of Indian Affairs, for at least five per cent of the amount of the proposal, which check or draft will be forfeited to the United States in case any bidder or bidders receiving an award shall fail to promptly execute sureties, otherwise to be returned to the bidder.
Bids accompanied by cash in lieu of a certified check will not be considered.
For further information as to time of delivery and other particulars, apply to
J. C. LUCKY,
U. S. Indian Agent.

A feeble woman is restored to health and strength, by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If you're overworked, "run-down," or debilitated, you need it. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, and a soothing and strengthening nerve, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system. It's a legitimate medicine, too—carefully compounded by an experienced physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. For all the chronic weaknesses, functional derangements, and painful disorders peculiar to the sex, it is an untailing remedy. It's because it's unailing that it can be sold under a positive guarantee. If it fails to give satisfaction, in any case for which it's recommended, the money paid for it will be promptly returned.

It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition.

S. B. Mfg. Co.,
Duffur, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. My little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours,
Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.
